READER'S GUIDE TO THE PENNSYLVANIA BULLETIN AND PENNSYLVANIA CODE

Pennsylvania Bulletin

The Pennsylvania Bulletin is the official gazette of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It is published every week and includes a table of contents. A cumulative subject matter index is published quarterly.

The Pennsylvania Bulletin serves several purposes. First, it is the temporary supplement to the Pennsylvania Code, which is the official codification of agency rules and regulations and other statutorily authorized documents. Changes in the codified text, whether by adoption, amendment, repeal or emergency action must be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. Further, agencies proposing changes to the codified text do so in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Second, the Pennsylvania Bulletin also publishes: Governor's Executive Orders; State Contract Notices; Summaries of Enacted Statutes; Statewide and Local Court Rules; Attorney General Opinions; Motor Carrier Applications before the Public Utility Commission; Applications and Actions before the Department of Environmental Protection; Orders of the Independent Regulatory Review Commission; and other documents authorized by law.

The text of certain documents published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin is the only valid and enforceable text. Courts are required to take judicial notice of the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

There are no restrictions on the republication of official documents appearing in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Adoption, Amendment or Repeal of Regulations

Generally an agency wishing to adopt, amend or repeal regulations must first publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. There are limited instances where the agency may omit the proposal step; they still must publish the adopted version.

The Notice of Proposed Rulemaking contains the full text of the change, the agency contact person, a fiscal note required by law and background for the action.

The agency then allows sufficient time for public comment before taking final action. An adopted proposal must be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin before it can take effect. If the agency wishes to adopt changes to the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to enlarge the scope, they must re-propose.

Citation to the Pennsylvania Bulletin

Cite material in the Pennsylvania Bulletin by volume number and page number. Example: Volume 1, Pennsylvania Bulletin, page 801 (short form: 1 Pa.B. 801).

Pennsylvania Code

The Pennsylvania Code is the official codification of rules and regulations issued by Commonwealth agencies and other statutorily authorized documents. The Pennsylvania Bulletin is the temporary supplement to the Pennsylvania Code, printing changes as soon as they occur. These changes are then permanently codified by the Pennsylvania Code Reporter, a monthly, loose-leaf supplement.

The Pennsylvania Code is cited by title number and section number. Example: Title 10 Pennsylvania Code, § 1.1 (short form: 10 Pa.Code § 1.1).

Under the Pennsylvania Code codification system, each regulation is assigned a unique number by title and section. Titles roughly parallel the organization of Commonwealth government. Title 1 Pennsylvania Code lists every agency and its corresponding Code title location.

How to Find Documents

Search for your area of interest in the Pennsylvania Code.

The Pennsylvania Code contains, as Finding Aids, subject indexes for the complete Code and for each individual title, a list of Statutes Used As Authority for Adopting Rules and a list of annotated cases. Source Notes give you the history of the documents. To see if there have been recent changes, not yet codified, check the List of Pennsylvania Code Chapters Affected in the most recent issue of the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

The Pennsylvania Bulletin also publishes a quarterly List of Pennsylvania Code Sections Affected which lists the regulations in numerical order, followed by the citation to the Pennsylvania Bulletin in which the change occurred.

Printing Format

Material proposed to be added to an existing rule or regulation is printed in bold face and material proposed to be deleted from such a rule or regulation is enclosed in brackets [] and printed in bold face. Asterisks indicate ellipsis of Pennsylvania Code text retained without change. Proposed new or additional regulations are printed in ordinary style face.

Fiscal Notes

Section 612 of The Administrative Code of 1929 (71 P. S. § 232) requires that the Office of Budget prepare a fiscal note for regulatory actions and administrative procedures of the administrative departments, boards, commissions or authorities receiving money from the State Treasury stating whether the proposed action or procedure causes a loss of revenue or an increase in the cost of programs for the Commonwealth or its political subdivisions; that the fiscal note be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin at the same time as the proposed change is advertised; and that the fiscal note shall provide the following information: (1) the designation of the fund out of which the appropriation providing for expenditures under the action or procedure shall be made; (2) the probable cost for the fiscal year the program is implemented; (3) projected cost estimate of the program for each of the five succeeding fiscal years; (4) fiscal history of the program for which expenditures are to be made; (5) probable loss of revenue for the fiscal year of its implementation; (6) projected loss of revenue from the program for each of the five succeeding fiscal years; (7) line item, if any, of the General Appropriation Act or other appropriation act out of which expenditures or losses of Commonwealth funds shall occur as a result of the action or procedures; (8) recommendation, if any, of the Secretary of the Budget and the reasons therefor.

The required information is published in the foregoing order immediately following the proposed change to which it relates; the omission of an item indicates that the agency text of the fiscal note states that there is no information available with respect thereto. In items (3) and (6) information is set forth for the first through fifth fiscal years; in that order, following the year the program is implemented, which is stated. In item (4) information is set forth for the current and two immediately preceding years, in that order. In item (8) the recommendation, if any, made by the Secretary of Budget is published with the fiscal note. See 4 Pa. Code § 7.231 et seq. Where "no fiscal impact" is published, the statement means no additional cost or revenue loss to the Commonwealth or its local political subdivision is intended.

Amendments to the Rules of Organization and Procedure of the Board; Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Notice is hereby given that The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania is considering amending its Rules of Organization and Procedure as set forth in Annex A.

The proposed amendments deal with the following subjects:

1. Recusal. Pa.R.D.E. 220 provides for the recusal of members of the Board or hearing committees or special masters under certain circumstances. The Board is proposing to specify in § 85.11 of its Rules the procedures to be followed when such a motion is made.

2. Reinstatement. Pa.R.D.E. 208(g)(1) provides that when the expenses of a formal proceeding are taxed against a respondent-attorney the expenses must be paid within 30 days after the entry of the order taxing the expenses. Pa.R.D.E. 531 provides that a respondent-attorney may not be reinstated until the Lawyers Fund for Client Security has been reimbursed for any disbursements it has made as a result of the conduct of the respondent-attorney. Notwithstanding those rules, the Board has encountered situations where formerly admitted attorneys have sought reinstatement before the taxed costs have been paid or the Lawyers Fund for Client Security has been reimbursed. The Board is accordingly considering amending its Rules to provide expressly that reinstatement may not be sought until all taxed costs have been paid and reimbursement has been made.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments regarding the proposed amendments to the Office of the Secretary, The Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, First Floor, Two Lemoyne Drive, Lemoyne, PA 17043, on or before January 22, 1996.

Secretary

Annex A

TITLE 234. RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

PART I. GENERAL

CHAPTER 300. PRETRIAL PROCEEDINGS

Rule 319. Pleas and plea agreements.

(a) Generally.

(1) Pleas shall be taken in open court.

(2) A defendant may plead not guilty, guilty, or, with the consent of the [court] judge, nolo contendere. [The judge may refuse to accept a plea of guilty, and shall not accept it unless he determines after inquiry of the defendant that the plea is voluntarily and understandingly tendered. Such inquiry shall appear on the record.] If the defendant [shall refuse] refuses to plead, the [court] judge shall enter a plea of not guilty on the defendant's behalf.

(3) The judge may refuse to accept a plea of guilty, and shall not accept it unless the judge determines after inquiry of the defendant that the plea is voluntarily and understandingly tendered. Such inquiry shall appear on the record.

(b) Plea agreements.

[(1) The trial judge shall not participate in the plea negotiations preceding an agreement.]

[(2)] (1) When counsel for both sides have arrived at a plea agreement, they shall state on the record in open court, in the presence of the defendant, the terms of the agreement [Thereupon the], unless the judge orders, for good cause shown and with the consent of the defendant, counsel for the defendant, and the attorney for the Commonwealth, that specific conditions in the agreement be placed on the record in camera and the record sealed.

(2) The judge shall conduct [an] a separate inquiry of the defendant on the record to determine whether [he] the defendant understands and [concurs in] voluntarily accepts the terms of the plea agreement on which the guilty pleas is based.

[(3) If the judge is satisfied that the plea is understandingly and voluntarily tendered, he may accept the plea. If thereafter the judge decides not to concur in the plea agreement, he shall permit the defendant to withdraw his plea.]

(c) Murder cases.

In cases in which the imposition of a sentence of death is not authorized, when a defendant enters a plea of guilty to a charge of murder generally, the judge before whom the plea was entered shall alone determine the degree of guilt.

Official Note: Paragraph (a) adopted June 30, 1964, effective January 1, 1965; amended November 18, 1968, effective February 3, 1969; paragraph (b) adopted and title of rule amended October 3, 1972, effective [thirty] 30 days hence; specific areas of inquiry in Comment deleted in 1972 amendment, reinstated in revised form March 28, 1973, effective immediately; amended June 29, 1977, effective as to cases in which the indictment or information is filed on or after January 1, 1978; paragraph (c) added and Comment amended May 22, 1978, effective July 1, 1978; Comment revised November 9, 1984, effective January 2, 1985; amended December 22, 1995, effective July 1, 1996.

Comment

The purpose of paragraph (a)(2) is to codify the requirement that the judge, on the record, ascertain from the defendant that the guilty plea is voluntarily and understandingly tendered. On the mandatory nature of this practice, see Commonwealth v. Ingram, [455 Pa. 198,] 316 A.2d 77 (Pa. 1974); Commonwealth v. Campbell, [451 Pa. 465,] 304 A.2d 121 (Pa. 1973); Commonwealth v. Jackson, [450 Pa. 417,] 299 A.2d 209 (Pa. 1973).

It is difficult to formulate a comprehensive list of questions a judge must ask of a defendant in determining whether the judge should accept the plea of guilty. Court decisions [constantly] may add areas to be encompassed in determining whether the defendant understands the full impact and consequences of [his] the plea, but is nevertheless willing to enter that plea. [However, at] At a minimum the judge should ask questions to elicit the following information:

- (1) Does the defendant understand the nature of the charges to which he or she is pleading guilty?
- (2) Is there a factual basis for the plea?
- (3) Does the defendant understand that he or she has the right to trial by jury?
- (4) Does the defendant understand that he or she is presumed innocent until [he is] found guilty?
- (5) Is the defendant aware of the permissible range of sentences and/or fines for the offenses charged?
- (6) Is the defendant aware that the judge is not bound by the terms of any plea agreement tendered unless the judge accepts such agreement?

Inquiry into the above six areas is mandatory during a guilty plea colloquy[,] under Commonwealth v. Willis, [471 Pa. 50,] 369 A.2d 1189 (Pa. 1977), and Commonwealth v. Dilbeck, [466 Pa. 543,] 353 A.2d 824 (Pa. 1976).

Many, though not all, of the areas to be covered by such questions are set forth in a footnote to the Court's opinion in Commonwealth v. Martin, [445 Pa. 49, 54—56,] 282 A.2d 241, 244—245 (Pa. 1971), in which the colloquy conducted by the trial judge is cited with approval. See also Commonwealth v. Minor, [467 Pa. 230,] 356 A.2d 346 (Pa. 1976), and Commonwealth v. Ingram, [455 Pa. 198,] 316 A.2d 77 (Pa. 1974). As to the requirement that the judge ascertain that there is a factual basis for the plea, see Commonwealth v. Jackson, [450 Pa. 417,] 299 A.2d 209 (Pa. 1973) and Commonwealth v. Maddox, [450 Pa. 406,] 300 A.2d 503 (Pa. 1973).

It is advisable that the judge [should] conduct the examination of the defendant. However, paragraph (a) does not prevent defense counsel or the attorney for the Commonwealth from conducting part or all of the examination of the defendant, as permitted by the judge. In addition, nothing in the rule would preclude the use of a written colloquy that is read, completed, signed by the defendant, and made part of the record of the plea proceedings. This written colloquy would have to be supplemented by some on-the-record oral examination. Its use would not, of course, change any other requirements of law, including these rules, regarding the prerequisites of a valid guilty plea.

[Paragraph (b) is intended to alter the process of what is commonly known as "plea bargaining" so as to make it a matter of public record and to insure that it does not involve prejudicing or compromising the independent position of the judge. See Commonwealth v. Alvarado, 442 Pa. 516, 276 A.2d 526 (1971); Santobello v. New York, 404 U. S. 257, 92 S.Ct. 495, 30 L.Ed.2d 427 (1971); Commonwealth v. Wilkins, 442 Pa. 524, 277 A.2d 341 (1971); Commonwealth v. Evans, 434 Pa. 52, 252 A.2d 689 (1969); cf. Commonwealth v. Scoleri, 415 Pa. 218, 202 A.2d 521 (1964); A.B.A. Minimum Standards Relating to Pleas of Guilty § 3.3(a), at 71-74 (Approved Draft 1968); President's Commission on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice, "The Challenge of Crime in a Free Society" at 134 (1967).]

The "terms" of the plea agreement, referred to in [subparagraph] paragraph (b) [(2)] (1), frequently involve the attorney for the Commonwealth—in exchange for the defendant's plea of guilty, and perhaps for the defendant's promise to cooperate with law enforcement officials—promising [such] concessions such as a reduction of a charge to a less serious offense, [or] the dropping of one or more additional charges, [or] a recommendation of a lenient sentence, or a combination of these. In any event, paragraph (b) is intended to [assure] insure that all terms of the [quid pro quo] agreement are openly acknowledged for the [court's] judge's assessment. See, e.g., Commonwealth v. Wilkins, 277 A.2d 341 (Pa. 1971).

The 1995 amendment deleting former paragraph (b)(1) eliminates the absolute prohibition against any judicial involvement in plea discussions in order to align the rule with the realities of current practice. For example, the rule now permits a judge to inquire of defense counsel and the attorney for the Commonwealth whether there has been any discussion of a plea agreement, or to give counsel, when requested, a reasonable period of time to conduct such a discussion. Nothing in this rule, however, is intended to permit a judge to suggest to a defendant, defense counsel, or the attorney for the Commonwealth, that a plea agreement should be negotiated or accepted.

Under paragraph (b)(1), upon request and with the consent of the parties, a judge may, as permitted by law, order that the specific conditions of a plea agreement be placed on the record in camera and that portion of the record sealed. Such a procedure does not in any way eliminate the obligation of the attorney for the Commonwealth to comply in a timely manner with Rule 305 and the constitutional mandates of Brady v. Maryland, 373

U. S. 83 (1963), and its progeny. Similarly, the attorney for the Commonwealth is responsible for notifying the cooperating defendant that the specific conditions to which the defendant agreed will be disclosed to third parties within a specified time period, and should afford the cooperating defendant an opportunity to object to the unsealing of the record or to any other form of disclosure.

When a guilty plea includes a plea agreement, the 1995 amendment to paragraph (b)(2) requires that the judge conduct a separate inquiry on the record to determine that the defendant understands and accepts the terms of the plea agreement. See Commonwealth v. Porreca, 595 A.2d 23 (Pa. 1991).

Former paragraph (b)(3) was deleted in 1995 for two reasons. The first sentence merely reiterated an earlier provision in the rule. See (a)(3). The second sentence concerning the withdrawal of a guilty plea was deleted to eliminate the confusion being generated when that provision was read in conjunction with Rule 320. As provided in Rule 320, it is a matter of judicial discretion and caselaw whether to permit or direct a guilty plea to be withdrawn. See also Commonwealth v. Porreca, 595 A.2d 23 (Pa. 1991) (the terms of a plea agreement may determine a defendant's right to withdraw a guilty plea).

Paragraph (c) reflects a change in Pennsylvania practice, which formerly required the judge to convene a panel of three judges to determine the degree of guilt in murder cases in which the imposition of a sentence of death was not statutorily authorized.

[Paragraph (b)(3) requires the judge to permit the defendant to withdraw a plea the judge has accepted when the judge is unable to comply with a plea agreement on which the plea was based. See Rule 320.

When a plea agreement has been negotiated, there must be an inquiry in order to determine whether the plea is made voluntarily and understandingly. However, the terms of the plea agreement should be stated in the record and it should be made clear that the defendant understands the nature and effect of the agreement.

The addition of paragraph (c) changes prior practice in Pennsylvania. Under prior Rule 319A (suspended effective November 1, 1976) the judge could convene a panel of three judges to determine the degree of guilt in murder cases in which the imposition of a sentence of death was not statutorily authorized.]

Rule 320. Withdrawal of Plea of Guilty.

At any time before sentence, the court may, in its discretion, permit or direct a plea of guilty to be withdrawn and a plea of not guilty substituted.

Comment

When a defendant withdraws a guilty plea under this rule and proceeds with a non-jury trial, the court and the parties should consider whether recusal might be appropriate to avoid prejudice to the defendant. See, e.g., Commonwealth v. Pierce, 527 A.2d 973 (Pa. 1987).

FINAL REPORT

Amendments to Pa.R.Crim.P. 319—New Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 320: Judicial Involvement in Plea Agreements; Sealing of Plea Agreements; Withdrawal of Plea Agreements: Recusal

Introduction

On December 22, 1995, upon the recommendation of the Criminal Procedural Rules Committee, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania adopted amendments to Rule of Criminal Procedure 319 (Pleas and Plea Agreements) and approved a new Comment to Rule 320 (Withdrawal of Plea of Guilty). One amendment to Rule 319(b) eliminates the absolute prohibition contained in former subsection (b)(1) against any judicial involvement in plea agreements. In the Comment, a paragraph which addressed this prohibition has been deleted, and an extensive cautionary discussion has been added to provide specific guidance on the degree to which judicial involvement in the plea agreement process is appropriate. Another amendment to Rule 319(b) permits, for good cause and with the consent of all parties, the sealing of specific conditions in plea agreements. See new subsection (b)(1). The Comment addresses the discovery and notice requirements which must be observed if this new procedure is utilized. Finally, the new Comment to Rule 320 (Withdrawal of Plea of Guilty) alerts the parties to consider whether recusal might be appropriate when a defendant elects a waiver trial after withdrawing a guilty plea, citing Commonwealth v. Pierce, 527 A.2d 973 (Pa. 1987).

This Final Report replaces the original explanatory Report¹ by which the Committee sought comments on the proposal, and not only contains all relevant portions of the earlier Report, but also explains the changes which were made to the proposal after publication.²

Discussion

Guilty plea procedures have been the focus of Committee discussions with considerable frequency. Most recently, communications from lawyers and judges suggested that the Committee reevaluate the procedures provided in Rules 319 and 320, with a view to permitting some judicial involvement in guilty plea agreements.

The Committee's consideration of whether the rules should permit some limited judicial involvement in plea agreements generated two additional issues: whether the rules should expressly provide procedures for sealing portions of a plea agreement in order to protect a defendant or an ongoing investigation, and whether there should be a specific provision for recusal when a defendant has withdrawn a guilty plea and elects to be tried before a judge alone. Although these three areas overlap somewhat, the Committee's work on each involved different considerations and different aspects of the rules.

A. Judicial Involvement in Plea Negotiations

Prior to the 1972 adoption of the plea agreement procedures contained in Rule 319(b), case law forbade any participation by the trial judge prior to the offering of a guilty plea, an approach which mirrored the ABA standards then in effect. See Commonwealth v. Evans, 252 A.2d 689 (Pa. 1969), citing A.B.A. Minimum Standards, Pleas of Guilty, § 3.3 (Tent. Draft, February, 1967). Despite this prohibition, judges were clearly involved in the plea agreement process.

It has been a frequent practice in Pennsylvania for countless years for a defendant's attorney and the District Attorney and the trial judge to have a conference and in many cases agree on a plea and sentence. Provided this conference is requested by the defendant's attorney and the district attorney is present throughout all these conferences and the agreement was fairly arrived at—and not by chicanery, partiality, politics, or compulsion or concealment of material facts as to each and all of which the burden of proof would be on the defendant—it would result in greatly shortening the time of trial and eliminating the practical possibility that a guilty man may be acquitted. Id., at 252 A.2d 689, 692, Bell, C.J., dissenting (emphasis in original).

Although the courts did not want to proscribe plea bargaining completely, there was great concern about the sensitive and potentially coercive nature of plea bargaining practices. Due process considerations made distinctions between advice to the defendant from defense counsel, bargaining between defense and prosecuting attorneys, and discussions with the judge who ultimately determines the length of sentence imposed.

In 1972, the Supreme Court amended Rule 319 to add a section covering plea agreement procedures, including, inter alia, a provision in paragraph (b)(1) that the "trial judge shall not participate in the plea negotiations preceding an agreement." In general, this early amendment was intended to recognize existing practices while regulating procedures in order to protect the integrity of judges and the rights of defendants. Central to the plea agreement provisions in Rule 319 was the ongoing concern that the slightest judicial involvement in guilty plea negotiations would not only compromise the independent position of the sentencing judge but also taint the voluntariness of the defendant's plea.

The intended scope of the prohibition in paragraph (b)(1), however, was far from clear, and our review of the rule's history failed to provide an explanation of what the original drafters meant by "participate." We therefore examined the approaches in other jurisdictions. We considered the relevant statutes and/or rules in every state, and reviewed numerous secondary materials, including the 1982 A.B.A. Standards on Criminal Justice, Standard 14-3.3, "Responsibilities of the Judge," and an extensive presentation of the arguments for and against judicial involvement in plea agreements. See Bond, Plea Bargaining and Guilty Pleas, Clark Boardman (2d Ed., 1982).

During the course of our discussions, countless questions were raised and debated. Should a plea conference be formalized in the rules? Should the judge be permitted to initiate a plea negotiation? Should any absolute time limits be placed on negotiations? If a judge has been involved in negotiations, in whatever degree, and the negotiations fail, should the same judge preside at trial, or should there be a procedure for assigning the trial to a different judge? If the rules are amended to permit greater judicial participation, should all discussions involving a judge's participation be on the record, even if the discussion takes place in chambers? If the rules permit judicial involvement, how much procedural detail should they include? Conversely, what are the dangers of painting with a broad brush?

Our analysis convinced us that there was considerable merit to permitting some judicial involvement in plea negotiations, although the very same due process concerns that had been raised even before the adoption of the Rule 319(b) plea agreement procedures—the impact of judicial "coercion" on the voluntariness of a plea—were again voiced by various Committee members. On the one hand, removing the absolute prohibition against judicial involvement in the plea process made good sense if it would encourage new judges to assist in the plea agreement process—judges who, we were told, would not do so absent an express provision in the rules. Furthermore, if a particular guilty plea is an appropriate resolution for a defendant and for the Commonwealth, permitting some judicial involvement could provide a neutral catalyst for discussion between parties who have reached an impasse. A third advantage considered was that by removing from the rule the absolute prohibition against judicial involvement, the rule would more accurately reflect the responsibility shared by the judge and the attorney for the Commonwealth when a plea agreement is finally accepted. Appropriately handled, in our view, judicial involvement in plea agreements could help the parties reach a fair result without compromising the independent role of the judge.

Committee members nevertheless approached a possible change in the rules permitting judicial involvement in plea agreements with healthy skepticism. Opening the door to greater judicial involvement could create the risk, in some cases, that a judge might force one or both sides into a plea agreement for any number of inappropriate reasons—to avoid a protracted trial or sidestep a decision on a controversial issue, for example. Yet we knew that a rule which primarily sought to guard against the rare situation in which the spirit of the rule is abused would not only offend most judges in Pennsylvania, for whom such proscriptions are unnecessary, but would also result in the rule's demise. Unnecessary burdens placed on the parties and the judge by detailed requirements would quickly outweigh the utility of any judicial involvement.

The Committee finally concluded that the advantages of permitting some judicial involvement in guilty pleas clearly outweighed any potential for abuse. Rule 319 has therefore been amended to eliminate the provision in paragraph (b)(1) prohibiting judicial participation in plea negotiations preceding an agreement. The revised Comment explains that judicial involvement is no longer absolutely prohibited, but cautions that a judge must not suggest to a defendant, defense counsel, or the attorney for the Commonwealth that a plea agreement should be negotiated or accepted.

B. Withdrawal of Guilty Pleas: Recusal

Once the Committee agreed to amend Rule 319 to permit some form of judicial involvement in guilty plea agreements, we reviewed the guilty plea rules generally, looking for problem areas that might arise if the proposed amendment were adopted. One of the procedural issues which we felt should be addressed in this proposal concerned the propriety of a judge's recusal when a defendant elects a waiver trial after withdrawing a guilty plea. Although there is no per se prohibition against a plea judge's presiding over a waiver trial after a plea has been withdrawn, Commonwealth v. Pierce, 527 A.2d 973 (Pa. 1987) (overruling Commonwealth v. Badger, 393 A.2d 642 (Pa. 1978)), the Committee felt that if Rule 319 were amended to permit judicial involvement in the plea agreement process, the issue of recusal might arise more frequently. We therefore decided that a cautionary Comment to Rule 320 should be added to alert judges and attorneys that in cases where a defendant might be prejudiced if the plea judge presides at the non-jury trial, counsel should consider moving for the judge's recusal.

C. Sealing of Specific Conditions of Plea Agreements

Another question raised during our discussion of judicial involvement in plea agreements was whether Rule 319 should permit the sealing of plea agreements. This issue was the logical outgrowth of our general examination of the relationship between Rule 319 procedures and current practice: judges, prosecutors, and defense counsel already use a variety of informal methods in this sensitive area to effectuate plea agreements involving a defendant's cooperation with the Commonwealth or an ongoing investigation. Committee members were troubled by the inconsistencies among the various local approaches, and expressed concern that, without some clear guidance from the rules as to how, when, and for how long portions of a plea agreement may be sealed, serious problems might arise in two areas, first amendment public access and Brady issues.

Under first amendment case law, the press and public have a right of access to court proceedings and documents generally. See, e.g., United States v. Criden, 648 F.2d 814 (3rd Cir. 1981); Richmond Newspapers, Inc. v. Virginia, 448 U.S. 555 (1980) (plurality opinion); Gannett Co. v. De Pasquale, 443 U.S. 368 (1979). This right of access extends to plea agreements, Oregonian Pub. v. U.S. Dist. Court for Dist. of Or., 920 F.2d 1462 (9th Cir. 1990). However, as with other first amendment issues arising in the criminal justice context, the right is not absolute. Id. A competing tradition permits the courts, in the exercise of their supervisory powers, to balance the right to public trials against the defendant's need for a fair trial and the court's need to restrict public access to court proceedings or court documents when countervailing interests in the administration of justice come into play, such as the protection of informants, the protection of an ongoing investigation, or the protection of a proceeding from unfair pretrial publicity. Nixon v. Warner Communications, Inc., 435 U.S. 589 (1978).

In view of the case law's recognition of these competing concerns, we concluded that Rule 319 could be amended to provide a procedure for sealing portions of plea agreements, but debated at length whether such an amendment should be made, for we saw that discovery and impeachment problems might arise when the contents of a sealed plea agreement became material to the cooperating defendant's/Commonwealth witness' credibility in another defendant's case.

In order to determine whether to permit the sealing of plea agreements at all, the Committee examined the most likely situation—when a plea agreement contemplates a defendant's cooperation with the Commonwealth and is sealed—and considered the competing concerns of the parties. 1) A defendant desires to plead guilty and cooperate with the Commonwealth in return for concessions, but wants the agreement sealed in order to be protected from those against whom the defendant will be working or testifying. 2) The attorney for the Commonwealth prosecuting the defendant wants the pertinent portions of the agreement sealed either to protect the defendant as a witness or informant for a later case or cases, or to shield an ongoing investigation from public exposure, or both. 3) A "third party" defendant who may not know of a plea agreement between a Commonwealth witness and the Commonwealth, or who may not know that a cooperating defendant/witness exists at all, may have a right to know of the agreement and the identity of the cooperating defendant under Rule 305 and Brady. In this context, the attorney for the Commonwealth will be obligated at some point to disclose the agreement to the "third party" defendant.

These competing interests raised a number of other questions. At what point should a "third party" defendant learn of the agreement's existence? Must the attorney for the Commonwealth move to have the record unsealed? Is the attorney for the Commonwealth required to notify the cooperating defendant that soon the sealed agreement will no longer be protected?

We were well aware that, without proper limits, a rule providing for sealing guilty plea agreements might encourage unwarranted secrecy. In fact, we were troubled by reports that under current practice, plea agreements were too frequently formalized by a mere wink and a nod in order to shield the nature of the agreement from public exposure. On the other hand, we also knew that a rule which permitted judicial involvement in plea agreements but continued to be silent on the issue of sealed plea agreement would be interpreted by new judges as precluding the sealing of plea agreements altogether—in spite of local "informal" practices to the contrary.

Having weighed the advantages and disadvantages of the competing interests and identified the related issues involved in sealing plea agreements, we concluded that Rule 319 should permit the sealing of portions of a plea agreement, for good cause shown and with the consent of the parties.

In order to address the various considerations discussed above, Rule 319(b)(2), renumbered (b)(1), has been amended to provide that once a plea agreement is reached, the terms of the agreement must be stated on the record in open court, unless the judge orders, for good cause shown and with the consent of the parties, that specific conditions in the agreement be placed on the record in camera and the record sealed. The proposed Comment revision explains that these sealing procedures do not eliminate the obligation of the attorney for the Commonwealth to comply in a timely manner with Rule 305 and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). The Comment also notes that the attorney for the Commonwealth must 1) notify the cooperating defendant in a timely manner that the terms of the agreement sealed pursuant to Rule 319(b)(1) are to be disclosed to one or more third parties; and 2) afford the cooperating defendant an opportunity to object to the unsealing of the record or to any other form of disclosure of the plea agreement.

D. Changes Made after Publication

(1) Responses to Publication. The responses to the original proposal were extensively reviewed by the Committee, and the consensus was that no modification of the original proposal was required in light of this correspondence because the issues raised had been thoroughly researched, debated, and resolved before publication. In particular, respondents questioned the constitutionality of the in camera and sealing procedures in proposed new subsection (b)(1). This specific issue was not only discussed at length by the Committee prior to publication, but is directly addressed in the Comment, which makes it clear that these procedures are subject to the limitations imposed by case law:

Under paragraph (b)(1), upon request and with the consent of the parties, a judge may, as permitted by law, order that the specific conditions of a plea agreement be placed on the record in camera and that portion of the record sealed. (emphasis added)

(2) Changes in Case Law. During our discussion of the responses to the proposal, the Rule 319 Comment revision citing Commonwealth v. Porreca, 567 A.2d 1044 (Pa. Super. 1989), was updated. The original Comment citation to the Superior Court opinion had been included to alert counsel to the procedural pitfalls which arise when a defendant's cooperation is contingent upon the judge's acceptance of all the terms of a plea agreement. Shortly after the Supreme Court reversed the Superior Court's Porreca decision, Commonwealth v. Porreca, 595 A.2d 23 (Pa. 1991), the Court requested that the Committee review the proposal in light of its Porreca opinion. In particular, we took a closer look at the apparent inconsistency between Rules 319(b)(3) and 320. Rule 320 (Withdrawal of Plea of Guilty) leaves to the judge's discretion the determination of whether to permit a plea withdrawal. Rule 319(b)(3), however, appears to limit that discretion by requiring the judge to "permit" the withdrawal of a plea if the judge cannot concur in the plea agreement:

If the judge is satisfied that the plea is understandingly and voluntarily tendered, he may accept the plea. If thereafter the judge decides not to concur in the plea agreement, he shall permit the defendant to withdraw his plea. (emphasis added)

Our analysis of these two provisions led, in turn, to the consideration of whether the rules themselves should address the scope of a judge's discretion to permit a plea withdrawal. In light of the extensive discussion of plea withdrawals in Porreca and our reexamination of the case law generally, we concluded that Rule 319(b)(3) should be deleted to eliminate any inconsistency with Rule 320, thereby clearly deferring to the case law on the scope of judicial discretion in this area. The Comment revision addressing this change reads:

Paragraph (b)(3) was deleted in 1995 for two reasons. The first sentence merely reiterated an earlier provision in the rule. See (a)(3). The second sentence concerning the withdrawal of a guilty plea was deleted to eliminate the confusion being generated when that provision was read in conjunction with Rule 320. As provided in Rule 320, it is a matter of judicial discretion and case law whether to permit or direct a guilty plea to be withdrawn. See also Commonwealth v. Porreca, 595 A.2d 23 (Pa. 1991) (the terms of a plea agreement may determine a defendant's right to withdraw a guilty plea).

We also agreed, in light of Porreca, to amend Rule 319(b)(2) to make it clear that the judge must conduct a separate inquiry to insure that the defendant understands and accepts the terms which form the basis of the plea agreement:

The judge shall conduct a [n] separate inquiry of the defendant on the record to determine whether [he] the defendant understands and [concurs in] voluntarily accepts the terms of the plea agreement on which the guilty plea is based.

It is difficult to set forth all the standards which a judge must utilize and consider in imposing sentence. It is recommended that, at a minimum, the judge look to the standards and guidelines as specified by statutory law. See the Judicial Code, 42 Pa.C.S. § 9701 et seq. See also Commonwealth v. Riggins, 377 A.2d 140 (Pa. 1977) and Commonwealth v. Devers, 546 A.2d 12 (Pa. 1988).

In all cases in which restitution is imposed, the sentencing judge must state on the record the amount of restitution if determined at the time of sentencing, or the basis for determining an amount of restitution. See 18 Pa.C.S. § 1106 and 42 Pa.C.S. §§ 9721, 9728.

FINAL REPORT

Revision of Rule 1405 Comment

Imposition of Restitution at Time of Sentencing

I. Introduction

On December 22, 1995, upon the recommendation of the Criminal Procedural Rules Committee,¹ the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania approved a revision of the Comment to Rule 1405 (Sentencing). The new Comment language makes it clear that at the time of sentencing, the judge must state on the record either the amount of restitution, if determined at the time of sentencing, or the basis for determining the amount.

II. Discussion

A. Background

The issue of restitution arose when the Committee was asked to consider amending Rule 1405 to address the issue of restitution in cases involving multiple defendants. Although the Committee believes that the apportioning of restitution—the issue of joint and several restitution liability—is a substantive one, we concluded that it would be useful to examine the procedures by which judges determine the amount of restitution for sentencing purposes.

Early on, our discussion of restitution procedures included a review of 18 Pa.C.S. § 1106(c), which can be read to require that the judge order restitution as part of the order imposing sentence and that the specific amount of restitution must be ordered.²

(c) Authority of sentencing court.—In determining whether to order restitution as a part of the sentence or as a condition of probation or parole, the court:

(1) Shall consider the extent of injury suffered by the victim and such other matters as it deems appropriate.

(2) May order restitution in a lump sum, by monthly installments or according to such other schedule as it deems just, provided that the period of time during which the offender is ordered to make restitution shall not exceed the maximum term of imprisonment to which the offender could have been sentenced for the crime of which he was convicted.

(3) May at any time alter or amend any order of restitution made pursuant to this section providing, however, that the court state its reasons and conclusions as a matter of record for any change or amendment to any previous order.

We also reviewed the prompt sentencing provisions of Pa.R.Crim.P. 1504A and considered the degree to which the rule's time limits would be compromised if sentencing had to be delayed until the specific amount of restitution could be determined, noting that the Legislature appeared to have recognized the need for flexibility by including a section permitting the sentencing judge to alter or amend the restitution order, 18 Pa.C.S. § 1106(c)(3).

In comparing our collective experience as judges, prosecutors, and lawyers, we agreed that the determination of the restitution amount cannot always be completed consistent with prompt sentencing. For example, some victims will incur medical expenses related to the crime months after sentence is imposed. On the other hand, it became increasingly clear during our discussion that the prompt imposition of sentence was a primary factor to be considered when evaluating possible procedural requirements for determining restitution. Present practice reflects these competing considerations. We learned that in some judicial districts, the amount of restitution is invariably made part of the record of the sentencing proceeding. In other judicial districts, however, if the specific amount of restitution is not available at the time of sentencing, the probation/parole department is given the responsibility for determining the amount after sentence is imposed. Although some of us felt strongly that permitting the county department of probation and parole to determine the amount of restitution was specifically disapproved by case law, others were sympathetic with the logistical/practical reasons giving rise to such procedures.

Ultimately, because judicial districts appear to be using procedures which work and which comply with the spirit, if not the letter, of the statute, the Committee concluded that an amendment to the text of the rule which mapped out a set of required procedures for determining the exact amount of restitution at or before sentencing was not necessary. However, we did agree that the Comment should make it clear that the sentencing judge must control the method by which that determination is made. The new language appears in the "Sentencing Procedures" section of the Rule 1405 Comment and reads:

In all cases in which restitution is imposed, the sentencing judge must state on the record the amount of restitution if determined at the time of sentencing, or the basis for determining an amount of restitution. See 18 Pa.C.S. § 1106 and 42 Pa.C.S. §§ 9721, 9728.

B. Post-publication review of proposal and statutory developments

We received one letter in response to the proposal. The correspondent thought that the Comment achieved a fair balance between the statutory requirements and practice, but expressed concern that the proposed language might ¹The proposal was published for comment at 24 Pa.B. 4074 (August 13, 1994).

²When this proposal was being developed, 18 Pa.C.S. § 1106(c) had not been amended by Act No. 1995-12 (SS1).

run afoul of case law limiting a sentencing judge's ability to delegate sentencing decisions to a probation department, citing Commonwealth v. Kioske, 487 A.2d 420 (Pa. Super. 1985) and Commonwealth v. Erb, 428 A.2d 574 (Pa. Super. 1981). Although the Committee had considered this issue during the development of the proposal, as discussed above, we reviewed the correspondent's concerns and concluded that no changes to the proposed language should be made, because we believe that the Comment revision adequately addresses the problem. As long as the sentencing judge controls the method by which the amount of restitution is to be determined, the Committee believes that the "sentencing decision" is not being delegated.

While the proposal was being prepared for submission to the Court, legislation was introduced¹ amending, inter alia, 18 Pa.C.S. § 1106(c). Because this was a key statutory provision considered during the development of this proposal, we held up submission of the proposal to the Court in order to review the legislation in final form.²

As amended, 18 Pa.C.S. § 1106(c) reads:

(c) Mandatory restitution.—

(1) The court shall order full restitution:

(i) Regardless of the current financial resources of the defendant, so as to provide the victim with the fullest compensation for the loss. The court shall not reduce a restitution award by any amount that the victim has received from the Crime Victim's Compensation Board or other governmental agency, but shall order the defendant to pay any restitution ordered for loss previously compensated by the board to the Crime Victim's Compensation Fund or other designated account when the claim involves a government agency in addition to or in place of the board. The court shall not reduce a restitution award by any amount that the victim has received from an insurance company, but shall order the defendant to pay any restitution ordered for loss previously compensated by an insurance company to the insurance company.

(ii) If restitution to more than one person is set at the same time, the court shall set priorities of payment. However, when establishing priorities, the court shall order payment in the following order:

(A) The victim.

(B) The Crime Victim's Compensation Board.

(C) Any other government agency which has provided reimbursement to the victim as a result of the defendant's criminal conduct.

(D) Any insurance company which has provided reimbursement to the victim as the result of the defendant's criminal conduct.

(2) In determining the amount and method of restitution, the court:

(i) Shall consider the extent of injury suffered by the victim and such other matters as it deems appropriate.

(ii) May order restitution in a lump sum, by monthly installments or according to such other schedule as it deems just, provided that the period of time during which the offender is ordered to make restitution shall not exceed the maximum term of imprisonment to which the offender could have been sentenced for the crime of which he was convicted.

(iii) May at any time alter or amend any order of restitution made pursuant to this section providing, however, that the court state its reasons and conclusions as a matter of record for any change or amendment to any previous order.

(iv) Shall not order incarceration of a defendant for failure to pay restitution if the failure results from the defendant's inability to pay.

(v) Shall consider any preexisting orders imposed on the defendant, including, but not limited to, orders imposed under this title or any other title.

Although the amendments to 18 Pa.C.S. § 1106(c) now require the court to order "full" restitution, the Committee concluded that the amendments did not require any substantial alteration of the Comment revision as proposed. If the full amount of restitution is not determined at the time of sentencing, the judge will nevertheless be able to specify how the full amount will be determined. The Committee did agree, however, that the cross-reference to the Judicial Code should be expanded to include 42 Pa.C.S. § 9721 (Sentencing Generally), which has been amended by the Act to make it clear that restitution is mandatory. 42 Pa.C.S. § 9721(c).

Title 249—PHILADELPHIA RULES

PHILADELPHIA COUNTY

Day Forward Program: Procedure for Disposition of Major Jury Cases Filed On and After January 2, 1996; Gen. Court Reg. No. 95-2

Activity directed at reducing the number of pending civil cases in the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas to a manageable level has been ongoing since 1993. Utilizing a three-tiered settlement process and a team-calendaring system, the Court has dramatically reduced the pending major case inventory and shortened the time to disposition; however, success with Day Backward cases will be brief unless a comprehensive system of handling civil litigation is developed which prevents new cases from becoming old cases.

Accordingly, upon due consideration of Rules of Court concerning the establishment of trial lists, the scheduling of pretrial conferences and the imposition of discovery deadlines (see Pa.R.C.P. 212, 4001, et seq., and Phila. Civ.R. ★215 and ★4003.4, et seq.) the Court of Common Pleas hereby establishes trial lists, trial management conferences, pretrial conferences and case management deadlines to properly and expeditiously resolve Major Jury cases, and designates this process as "Day Forward Case Management."

1. Cases Subject to Day Forward Case Management. All Major Jury cases commenced on or after January 2, 1996 shall be subject to Day Forward Case Management. A Major Jury case is a "Civil Action—Action at Law" wherein the damages claimed exceed the applicable Arbitration limits, and a jury demand has been timely made and perfected by the payment of the applicable jury listing fee.

This General Court Regulation shall not apply to cases assigned to the following trial lists: "Non-Jury," "Mass

³HB 18 (SS-1).

⁴ACT NO. 1995-12 (SS1), enacted May 3, 1995.

Tort," "Arbitration," "Arbitration Appeals," "Municipal Court Appeals" or "Agency Appeals." This Regulation shall not apply to cases designated as Class Actions, unless Class certification is denied.

2. Commencement of Action: All subject actions shall be commenced as provided in Pa.R.C.P. 1007. Philadelphia Civil Rule ★205.2 shall be followed.

All jury trial demands shall be perfected in accordance with Pa.R.C.P. 1007.1 and Phila. Civ.R. ★1007.1

3. Case Management Conference: Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 212, a Case Management Conference shall be scheduled in every Major Jury case not earlier than ninety (90) days after commencement of the action.

Plaintiff shall serve a copy of the Order scheduling the Case Management Conference on all attorneys of record, and any unrepresented party. When necessary, the Court may require Plaintiff to file an Affidavit of Service with the Prothonotary; but no such filing shall be routinely required.

a. Presiding Officer: The Case Management Conference shall be conducted by a Civil Case Manager designated by the Court, acting on behalf of the Day Forward Judicial Team Leader.

b. Issues to be Addressed: Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 212(b), counsel shall address all relevant issues concerning service of process, venue, pleadings, discovery, possible joinder of additional parties, theories of liability, damages claimed and applicable defenses.

c. Failure to Proceed: If it appears, from the information obtained at the Case Management Conference, that any party has shown a lack of due diligence by failing to proceed with reasonable promptitude, the Civil Case Manager may schedule the matter for a conference or hearing before the Day Forward Judicial Team Leader. The Civil Case Manager may, by Rule to Show Cause, direct any party to proceed with pleadings in accordance with applicable Rules of Civil Procedure, including requiring Plaintiff to serve the initial pleading, to file a Complaint and serve same, or to file a Petition for Alternative Service. Any such Rule to Show Cause shall be returnable before the Day Forward Team Leader.

d. Transfer to Arbitration: If it appears, from the information provided to the Civil Case Manager at the Case Management Conference, that the amount at issue does not exceed the applicable arbitration limits, the Civil Case Manager shall refer the case to the Day Forward Judicial Team Leader for determination of whether the case should be transferred to Arbitration pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. No. 1021(d).

4. Case Management Order: At the conclusion of the Case Management Conference, a Case Management Order shall issue. The Case Management Order will be based upon the assignment of each case to a specific Case Management Track.

The following Case Management Tracks are hereby established: Expedited Case Management Track, Standard Case Management Track, Complex Case Management Track and Extraordinary Case Management Track. Each case shall be assigned to a Case Management Track in accordance with the presumptive track assignment, established hereby and attached hereto as "Exhibit A." For cause shown, the Case Manager may reassign the case to any appropriate Case Management Track.

The Case Management Order shall establish the applicable deadlines for each particular case in accordance with the Presumptive Time Standards, established hereby and attached hereto as "Exhibit B." All cases assigned to the Extraordinary Case Management Track shall be scheduled for a conference before the Day Forward Judicial Team Leader; and deadlines shall be imposed upon consideration of the particular facts of each case.

5. Relief from Deadlines Set Forth in Case Management Order: Relief from the time requirements of any Case Management Order may be granted only by the Day Forward Judicial Team Leader. Any aggrieved party may file a Petition for Extraordinary Relief with the Prothonotary and Motion Court prior to the deadline that is sought to be changed. The Petition shall be in the form attached hereto as "Exhibit C."

Any adverse party shall have ten (10) days after the filing of the Petition for Extraordinary Relief to file a Response with Motion Court. The Response shall be in the form attached hereto as "Exhibit D." The parties may not extend any Case Management deadline by agreement, without Court approval, obtained by Petition for Extraordinary Relief.

6. Settlement/Mediation Conference: The Court shall schedule a Settlement/Mediation Conference in all cases as follows: Expedited Track cases after nine (9) months; Standard Track cases after fourteen (14) months; and Complex Track cases after twenty-one (21) months. Unless already scheduled, a Settlement/Mediation Conference will be expeditiously scheduled by the Court on any case in which counsel concur that such a conference may be productive. Such requests shall be made in writing to the Civil Case Manager.

7. Pretrial Memorandum: All counsel and unrepresented parties shall file a Pretrial memorandum as required by the Case Management Order. The Pretrial Memorandum shall contain: A concise summary of the nature of the case, or defense; a list of witnesses, by name and address, of all witnesses the party anticipates calling at trial; a pre-numbered list of all exhibits which the party intends to offer into evidence at trial; the Plaintiff shall list an itemization of the injuries or damages sustained, and all special damages claimed, by category and amount; and Defendant shall identify the applicable insurance carrier, together with applicable limits of liability.

The Pretrial Memorandum shall be served upon all counsel and unrepresented parties contemporaneously with filing. Counsel should expect witnesses and exhibits not listed in the Pretrial Memorandum to be precluded at trial.

8. Pretrial Conference: In every case, a Pretrial Conference shall be scheduled by the Court. At the conclusion of the Pretrial Conference, a Pretrial Order controlling the conduct of trial may be entered.

9. Trial Date: At the conclusion of the pretrial conference, a date shall be established by which the case shall be deemed by the Court to be ready for trial. A date certain trial date, with reasonable notice to the parties, consistent with the "Presumptive Time Standards," will be assigned at or after the Pretrial Conference.

No Continuance requests shall be entertained, except in accordance with Pa.R.C.P. 216, and subject to Pa.R.C.P. 217.

10. Motions: The Motion procedure set forth in Phila. Civ.R. ★206.1 and ★206.2 remains unchanged. The exclusive procedure for relief from Day Forward Case Management deadlines is as provided by Petition for Extraordinary Relief filed of record as set forth above and ruled upon by the Day Forward Judicial Team Leader.

11. Failure to Appear for Scheduled Conferences. Attendance at all conferences scheduled by the Court is mandatory. If Plaintiff fails to appear, the case may be nonprossed without further notice. In the event any other party fails to appear, the conference shall be held in their absence; and sanctions may be imposed. All requests to reschedule conferences shall be made in writing to the appropriate Team Leader with copies to all parties.

12. Day Forward Judicial Team Leader. The Administrative Judge of the Trial Division may, from time to time, designate a Day Forward Judicial Team Leader who shall be responsible for Day Forward Case Management.

This General Court Regulation is promulgated in accordance with the April 11, 1986 Order of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, Eastern District, No. 55, Judicial Administration, Docket No. 1, Phila. Civ.R. ★51 and Pa.R.C.P. 239, and shall become effective immediately. As required by Pa.R.C.P. 239, the original regulation shall be filed with the Prothonotary in a docket maintained for General Court Regulations issued by the Administrative Judge of the Trial Division; and copies shall be submitted to the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts, the Legislative Reference Bureau and the Civil Procedural Rules Committee. Copies of the regulation shall also be submitted to Legal Communications, Ltd., The Legal Intelligencer, Jenkins Memorial Law Library and the Law Library for the First Judicial District.

SECURITIES COMMISSION

[64 PA. CODE CH. 203]

Corrective Amendment to 64 Pa. Code § 203.091

The Securities Commission has discovered a discrepancy between the agency text of 64 Pa. Code § 203.091, as deposited with the Legislative Reference Bureau and published at 25 Pa.B. 3994 (September 23, 1995), and the official text as published in the Pennsylvania Code Reporter (Master Transmittal Sheet No. 252) and as currently appearing in the Pennsylvania Code. Subsection (c) was not codified.

Therefore, under 45 Pa.C.S. § 901: The Securities Commission has deposited with the Legislative Reference Bureau a corrective amendment to 64 Pa. Code § 203.091. The corrective amendment to 64 Pa. Code § 203.091 is effective as of November 4, 1995, the date the defective official text was announced in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

The correct version of 64 Pa. Code § 203.091 appears in Annex A, with ellipses referring to the existing text of the regulation.

PROPOSED RULEMAKING

LIQUOR CONTROL BOARD

[40 PA. CODE CH. 5] Events/Tournaments/Contests

The Liquor Control Board (Board) under the authority of section 207(i) of the Pennsylvania Liquor Code (47 P. S. § 2-207(i)), proposes to amend § 5.32 (relating to restrictions/exceptions) as set forth in Annex A.

Purpose of the Proposed Amendment

The proposed amendment will remove current restrictions related to events, tournaments and contests on licensed premises to the extent that hotel, restaurant, club, privately-owned public golf courses, privately-owned private golf courses, municipal golf courses, brew pubs and malt beverage eating place licensees will be permitted to sponsor the activities and award prizes to participants. Governing bodies of professional golf, tennis, skiing and bowling will also be permitted to hold events, tournaments and contests on licensed premises.

Need for the Proposed Amendment

This proposed amendment has been prompted in response to requests from licensees, and from the Pennsylvania Licensed Beverage Association. The proposed changes to § 5.32 will remove current restrictions which generally prohibit licensees (hotel, restaurant, club, privately-owned public golf courses, privately-owned private golf courses, municipal golf courses, brew pubs and malt beverage eating place) from sponsoring events/tournaments/contests on licensed premises. Removal of current restrictions will increase business opportunities for holders of these licenses.

Affected Persons

Those affected by this proposed amendment include holders of restaurant, hotel, club, privately-owned public golf courses, privately-owned private golf courses, municipal golf courses, brew pubs and malt beverage eating place licenses issued by the Board, and the patrons of the licensees' tournaments and contests.

Costs and Paperwork Requirements

This regulatory proposal will impose a slight increase in paperwork upon those affected by virtue of expanded recordkeeping related to winners and prizes. The proposed amendment imposes no additional costs beyond current amusement permit fees as established by statute, section 614A of The Administrative Code of 1929 (71 P. S. § 240.14A).

Effective Date/Sunset Date

Availability of Adult Education Act Section 322 Funds for Adult Basic Education Including English as a Second Language and Adult Secondary Education Programs for Program Year 1996-97

The Adult Education Act as amended by the National Literacy Act of 1991 provides funds to local agencies through the Department of Education for the establishment of adult education programs that will:

1. enable all adults to acquire basic educational skills necessary for literate functioning;
2. provide these adults with sufficient basic education to enable them to benefit from job training and retraining programs in order to obtain and retain productive employment so that they might more fully enjoy the benefits and responsibilities of citizenship; and
3. enable adults who so desire to continue their education to at least the level of completion of secondary school.

Eligible applicants include local education agencies and public or private nonprofit agencies, organizations and institutions. A for-profit agency is eligible to participate in the program only if it is part of a consortium with a local education agency or other eligible sponsor, with the nonprofit agency acting as fiscal agent. A for-profit organization must also have the capability and capacity to augment the adult education services of such a consortium significantly.

Consistent with the purpose of the Adult Education Act for Program Year 1996-97, the Department of Education will give primary consideration to programs for the educationally disadvantaged.

Since the funding level for the Commonwealth will be the same or less as the previous program year, priority for funding will be given to applicants for the continuation of existing programs that have demonstrated an ability to produce results consistent with the objectives of the Adult Education Act.

The Federal share of a grant will be 75% of the total cost of the program. The applicant must provide 25% match of the total cost of the program. The local match may be in kind. Other Federal funds may not be used for the local match unless specifically identified as eligible for use as matching funds.

Restrictions placed upon the Department of Education by the United States Department of Education on the administration of the grant include:

1. Not more than 20% of the Federal grant to the State Department of Education may be used for programs of equivalency for a certificate of graduation from a secondary school.
2. Not less than 10% of the State's allotment must be used for adult education for institutionalized adults.
3. Not more than 5% of a local applicant's grant may be used for administrative costs, unless a higher percent is approved in advance by the Bureau of Adult Basic and Literacy Education, Department of Education.

Application Guidelines will be mailed to current adult basic education providers in mid-January. Others desiring additional information or Application Guidelines may obtain them after January 8, 1996, by written request to Chief, Regional Programs Division, Bureau of Adult Basic and Literacy Education, Department of Education, 333 Market Street, 12th Floor, Harrisburg, PA 17126-0333.

All potential applicants are urged to attend one of the following combined proposal development workshops for Federal Adult Education Act, Section 322, and State Adult Literacy Program, Act 143 of 1986. In order to ensure timely administration and processing of applications, both the grant writer and the fiscal person should attend the workshop.

I. Authorization

A. Section 353 of the Adult Education Act, P. L. 91-230, as amended by the National Literacy Act of 1991, requires the Department of Education (DOE), through its State Plan for Adult Education, to use not less than 15% of its annual Federal allotment of adult education funds from the United States Department of Education for special experimental demonstration and teacher training (staff development) adult education projects, as defined in the Act.

B. The Federal objectives for these grants are to:

"1. Promote special projects which will be carried out in furtherance of the purposes of the Act and which—

a. involve the use of innovative methods (including methods for educating persons with handicaps, the homeless, and persons of limited English proficiency), systems, materials, or programs which may have National significance or will be of special value in promoting effective programs under this title, or

b. involve programs of adult education, including education for persons with handicaps, the homeless, and persons of limited English proficiency, which are part of community school programs, carried out in cooperation with other Federal, State or local programs which show unusual promise in promoting a comprehensive or coordinated approach to the problems of persons with educational deficiencies; and

2. Train persons engaged, or preparing to engage, as personnel in programs designed to carry out the purposes of this title."

C. The State objectives for these grants are to strengthen Pennsylvania's adult basic education programs through research, evaluation and demonstration of methods, programs, techniques, or operational/administrative systems to improve adult education services (special experimental demonstration projects) and to provide training for personnel working in or preparing to work in adult basic education programs (staff development). Emphasis on staff development will be on the following:

1. Training for full-time professional adult educators;
2. Training for minority educators;
3. Training for educators of adults with limited English proficiency; and

II. Special 353 Priorities for 1996-97

The following Section 353 priorities for 1995-96 have been developed as a result of suggestions/recommendations by adult education providers throughout the State, by Section 353 Task Force members, and by DOE Bureau of Adult Basic and Literacy Education staff. Priorities fall in three general categories as follows: A. Special experimental demonstration projects for State-wide or regional impact; B. Staff development projects designed for Statewide or regional impact; C. Mini-grant projects of up to $5,000 designed to assist programs with the adoption or adaptation of exemplary projects; with the development of an experimental demonstration project designed for local impact; or to address individual program needs in staff development.

Fiscal Year 1996-97 Priorities 353

A. Special Demonstration

1. Reporting Student Data—Examine recurring issues in the reporting of student enrollment, completions, early separations, and outcomes. To conduct onsite visitations of at least 10 agencies to evaluate how staff record student termination, assessment and outcomes data. To use the findings to design a survey of all programs. To convene a committee of adult education professionals to evaluate the findings and propose definitions for the following:

- Student completion, advancement and early separation.
- Number of levels advanced.
- Levels completed and when these levels constitute successful completion of the program.
- Obtaining a job or advancing in a job, meeting personal objective, completing a level, learning English.
- Other outcomes included on the student form.

Submit findings for evaluation by ABLE and then train RSDC staff on the new criteria adopted for student reporting. This project will work under the direct supervision of the Bureau of Adult Basic and Literacy Education.

2. PDE Student/Staff/Tutor Database—Continue the development of a student/staff information management system which incorporates the requirements of the local adult education agencies and ABLE. The applicants for this project shall survey participants in the PC Database project and evaluate problems to be corrected in the revised database system. The project must incorporate the programming already developed under Contract 98-6007.

Provide technical assistance to agencies submitting student and staff data by means of a database exported from Filemaker Pro. Prepare a macro which will export the required data in a format established by DOE.

3. Adult Learner Competencies—Develop a list of competencies for adult learners as workers, members of families and citizens in the community. The project must synthesize existing listings of learner competencies including SCANS, CASAS, and the like, to reflect a Pennsylvania specific adult learner competency list. The project must use a committee of adult education practitioners to review, revise and approve the learner competencies. The project will be directly supervised by the Bureau of ABLE.

4. High School Completion—Building on the activities begun in FY 1995-96, continue the development and implementation of an alternative diploma program as outlined in Contract #98-6015. Successful applicants will work under direct supervision of the Bureau of ABLE.

The project must provide training and technical assistance to the pilots and develop a system of "mentoring communities."

6. School-to-Work—Develop a model meeting the objectives of the School-to-Work Opportunities Act initiative that incorporates the common features of school-based and work-based learning for adult learners. The model must be coordinated with an identified School-to-Work Local Partnership and build upon the out-of-school youth component for adults over the age of 24 years. The applicant must be signed on to the Local Partnership Compact and be tied to training for the incumbent workforce. Preference will be given to applicants that are involved in or have been involved in School-to-Work planning grants.

7. Student Recognition—Manage an event that includes the technical editing of field-submitted student success stories focusing on the role of adult education in the lives of the nominated students; the interviewing and photographing of ten finalists; and the preparation, publication and dissemination of a Success Stories booklet including suggested adaptations for local program use. Applicants will collaborate with an identified staff person in the Bureau of Adult Basic and Literacy Education in the development of the project. Applicants must plan for a circulation of approximately 2,000 copies across the Commonwealth with distribution as requested by the Department of Education.

8. Post-Secondary Basic Education—Utilizing existing data sources and surveying 2 and 4 year post-secondary institutions, determine the extent to which such institutions must remediate basic skills as a prerequisite to college level and technical course work. Acknowledgment of Notices of Intent to Remediate Sections 304 and 305 of the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (the Act) require the Department of Environmental Protection to publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin an acknowledgment noting receipt of any Notices of Intent to Remediate. An acknowledgment of the receipt of a Notice of Intent to Remediate is used to identify a site where a person proposes to, or has been required to, respond to a release of a regulated substance at a site. Persons intending to use a site-specific standard or who intend to remediate a site in a Special Industrial Area must file a Notice of Intent to Remediate with the Department. A Notice of Intent to Remediate filed with the Department provides a brief description of the location of the site, a list of known contaminants at the site, the proposed remediation measures for the site, and a description of the intended future of the site. A person who demonstrates attainment of one or a combination of the cleanup standards identified under the Act will be relieved of further liability for the remediation of the site for any contamination identified in reports submitted to and approved by the Department and shall not be subject to citizen suits or other contribution actions brought by responsible persons not participating in the remediation.

Under sections 304(n)(1)(ii) and 305(c)(2) of the Act, there is a 30-day public and municipal comment period for sites proposed for remediation using a site-specific cleanup standard, in whole or in part, and for sites determined to be located in Special Industrial Areas. This period begins when a summary of the Notice of Intent to Remediate is published in a newspaper of general circulation in the area by the person conducting remediation. For the sites identified below, a municipality may request to be involved in the development of the remediation and reuse plans for the site if the request is made within 30 days of the date specified below. During this comment period a municipality may request that the person identified below, as the remediator of a site, develop and implement a public involvement plan. Requests to be involved, and comments, should be directed to the remediator of a site. For further information concerning the content of a Notice of Intent to Remediate, please contact the Department of Environmental Protection Regional Office under which the notice appears. If information concerning this acknowledgment is required in an alternative form, contact Steve Curcio at (814) 332-6816. TDD users may telephone the Department through the AT&T Relay Service at 1 (800) 654-5984.

Reasonably Available Control Technology; Public Hearings

The Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) will hold a public hearing on January 16, 1996, at 10 a.m. in the Waterfront Room, DEP offices, 500 Waterfront Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15222.

The hearing is for DEP to take testimony concerning Reasonably Available Control Technology (RACT) plan for the Anchor Glass Container for plant no. 5, in Conellsville, Fayette County.

The proposed approval is for the immediate implementation of manual control of Air-to-Fuel ratios on furnaces no. 1, no. 2 and no. 3 for a 15% reduction in NOx emissions. Additionally, Anchor shall install Combustion Staging on furnaces no. 1 and no. 2 by June 2, 1997 to reduce NOx emissions to 5.5 lbs. per ton of glass pulled.

RACT for all sources at this facility will include its operation and maintenance in accordance with manufacturer's recommendations and accepted air pollution control practices.

A final RACT approval will be submitted to the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) as a revision to Pennsylvania's State Implementation Plan.

Those wishing to present testimony during the hearing should by January 12 contact community relations coordinator Betsy Mallison at (412) 442-4182 to register.

Persons with a disability who wish to comment and require an auxiliary aid, service or other accommodations to do so should contact Betsy Mallison or the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service at 1 (800) 654-5984 (TDD) to discuss how the Department may accommodate their needs.

Those unable to attend the hearing, but wish to comment, should provide written comments to Barb Hatch, Air Pollution Control Engineer, DEP, 400 Waterfront Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15222. Comments should be submitted by January 30, 1996.

Copies of the RACT application and DEP review, are available for review from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the DEP Southwestern Regional Office, 400 Waterfront Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15222. Appointments for scheduling a review may be made by calling (412) 442-4000.

The Department of Environmental Protection will conduct a public hearing on Tuesday, January 30, 1996, beginning at 1 p.m. in the first floor conference room A at the Meadville Regional Office located at 230 Chestnut Street. Ave. West Ext., Warren, PA. The final RACT proposals will be submitted to the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) as a revision to Pennsylvania's State Implementation Plan. All of these facilities are located in Warren County. The proposed SIP revisions do not adopt any new regulations. They incorporate the provisions and requirements contained in the RACT approvals for these facilities to comply with current regulations. The preliminary RACT determinations, if finally approved, will be incorporated into an operating permit for the facilities and will be submitted to the U. S. Such NPDES permits will contain, at a minimum, technology-based effluent limitations (as described in the Department's regulations—25 Pa. Code §§ 77.522, 87.102, 88.92, 88.187, 88.242, 89.52 and 90.102) for iron, manganese, suspended solids, settleable solids, alkalinity and pH. In addition to the above, more restrictive effluent limitations, restrictions on discharge volume or restrictions on the extent of mining which may occur will be incorporated into a mining activity permit when necessary for compliance with water quality standards (in accordance with 25 Pa. Code Chs. 93 and 95). Persons or agencies which have requested review of the NPDES permit requirements for a particular mining activity within the above-mentioned public comment period will be provided with a 30-day period to review and submit comments on those requirements.

Bureau of Deep Mine Safety; Request for Variance

The Bureau of Deep Mine Safety has received a request for variance from Maple Creek Mining, Inc. The following notification contains a summary of this request. Complete copies of the variance request may be obtained from Glen Ziegler by calling (717) 787-1376.

The Department is publishing a summary of the request in order to solicit comments from affected parties on the proposed variance request. Comments may be used by the Bureau to assist in its investigation of the variance request. Comments will be accepted for 30 days following the publication of this notice. Comments should be addressed to Thomas J. Ward, Jr., Director, Bureau of Deep Mine Safety, P. O. Box 8463, Harrisburg, PA 17105-8463.

Section 702 of The Bituminous Coal Mine Act (52 P. S. §§ 701—702) provides a mechanism for operators to obtain variances from specific requirements of the act to accommodate the adoption of new machinery, equipment, tools, supplies, methods or processes.

Section 268(b) of The Bituminous Coal Mine Act, entitled Clearances and Shelter Holes, requires that shelter holes be provided on the clearance side along designated travelingways that are also used as haulage entries, other than belt conveyor haulage entries. Such shelter holes shall be spaced not more than 80 feet apart.

Summary of the request: Maple Creek Mining, Inc. is requesting permission to have areas of the mine devoid of shelter holes. The variance will apply to areas of the mine that were developed in excess of 70 years ago without shelter holes. Further, the use of crosscuts as shelter holes is not possible since the crosscuts are now inaccessible due to fatigue and collapse of roof and rib. Many of these areas are high with numerous locations having beams installed. Additionally, many areas are side bolted with plank. Due to the extensive amount of rehabilitation that would be required, Maple Creek Mining, Inc. feels that it would not be feasible to establish shelter holes in these areas.

General Requirements and Information

Firms interested in performing any of the above services are invited to submit letters of interest to: Director, Consultant Selection Committee, Room 1118, Transportation and Safety Building, Harrisburg, PA 17120.

A separate letter of interest and required forms must be submitted for each project for which the applicant wishes to be considered. The letter of interest and required forms must be received within 13 calendar days of this notice. The deadline for receipt of a letter of interest at the above address is 4:30 p.m. of the thirteenth day.

If the project advertisement indicates that the Department will retain an engineering firm, letters of interest will only be accepted from individuals, firms or corporations duly authorized to engage in the practice of engineering. If an individual, firm or corporation not authorized to engage in the practice of engineering desires to submit a letter of interest, said individual, firm or corporation may do so as part of a joint venture with an individual, firm or corporation which is permitted under State law to engage in the practice of engineering.

If a goal for Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) participation is established for an advertised project, firms expressing interest in the project must agree to ensure that Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) firms as defined in the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1991 and currently certified by the Department of Transportation shall have the maximum opportunity to participate in any subcontracting or furnishing supplies or services approved under Form 442, Section 1.10(a). The act requires that firms owned and controlled by women (WBEs) be included, as a presumptive group, within the definition of Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE). The goal for DBE participation shall be as stated in the individual project advertisement. Responding firms shall make good faith efforts to meet the DBE goal using DBEs (as they were defined prior to the act), WBEs or combinations thereof. Proposed DBE firms must be certified at the time of submission of the letter of interest. If the selected firm fails to meet the goal established, it shall be required to demonstrate its good faith efforts to attain the goal. Failure to meet the goal and to demonstrate good faith efforts may result in being barred from Department contracts in the future.

Responses are encouraged by small engineering firms, disadvantaged business enterprise engineering firms and other engineering firms who have not previously performed work for the Department of Transportation.

Each letter of interest must include in the heading, the firm's Federal Identification Number and the Project Reference Number indicated in the advertisement. The letter of interest must also include the following:

1. Standard Form 255, "Architect-Engineer and Related Services Questionnaire for Specific Project."

2. Standard Form 254, "Architect-Engineer and Related Services Questionnaire" not more than 1 year old as of the date of this advertisement, must accompany each letter of interest for the firm, each party to a joint venture and for each subconsultant the firm or joint venture is proposing to use for the performance of professional services regardless of whether the subconsultant is an individual, a college professor or a company. Please disregard the statements on Standard Form 255 that indicate a Standard Form 254 is only required if not already on file with the contracting office. The Department does not maintain a file for Standard Form 254 for contracting purposes; therefore, this Form is required for the prime consultant and each subconsultant as stated above.

3. Two copies of the Department's Form D-427 (Rev. 6-89), "Current Workload" for the firm submitting the letter of interest. At least one copy of Form D-427 must remain free and not bound in any way to any other portion of the letter of interest or accompanying documentation. Copies of Form D-427 are available upon request from the above address or by contacting the Department's Consultant Agreement Division at (717) 783-9309.

4. Firms with out-of-State headquarters or corporations not incorporated in Pennsylvania must include with each letter of interest a copy of their registration to do business in the Commonwealth as provided by the Department of State. Firms who are not registered to do business in Pennsylvania at the time of this advertisement must document that they have applied for registration to the Department of State, Corporation Bureau. The telephone number for the Corporation Bureau is (717) 787-1057 or (717) 787-2004.

The Standard Form 255 must be filled out in its entirety including Item No. 6 listing the proposed subconsultants and the type of work or service they will perform on the project. If a Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) goal is specified for the project, the DBE must be presently certified by the Department of Transportation, and the name of the firm and the work to be performed must be indicated in Item 6. If a Women Business Enterprise (WBE) firm is substituted for the DBE, the WBE firm must also be presently certified by the Department of Transportation and indicated in Item 6.

The Standard Form 254 must be signed and dated and must be less than 1 year old as of the date of this advertisement. A Standard Form must accompany each letter of interest for the firm submitting the letter of interest, each party to a joint venture, and for each subconsultant shown under Item 6 of the Standard Form 255.

Unless other factors are identified under the individual project reference number, the following factors, listed in their order of importance, will be considered by the Committee during their evaluation of the firms submitting letters of interest:

a. Specialized experience and technical competence of firm.

b. Past record of performance with respect to cost control, work quality, and ability to meet schedules. The specific experience of individuals who constitute the firms shall be considered.

c. Current workload and capacity of firm to perform the work within the time limitations.

d. Location of consultant.

e. Special requirements of the project.

f. Other factors, if any, specific to the project.

The Department currently limits its participation in the remuneration of principals or consultant employees performing work on projects to $72,800 per annum or $35 per hour or their actual audited remuneration, whichever is less. The Department currently limits its participation in the consultant's indirect payroll costs (overhead) on design and miscellaneous projects to 130% of the direct payroll cost or the consultant's actual audited overhead rate, whichever is less. The Department currently limits its participation in the consultant's indirect payroll costs (overhead) on construction inspection projects to 85.2% of the direct payroll cost or the consultant's actual audited overhead rate, whichever is less. The Department's limitations will apply to the projects advertised above unless the Department policy is revised prior to the negotiation of an agreement or contract.

The assignment of the above services will be made to one of the firms responding to this notice, but the Committee reserves the right to reject all letters of interest submitted, to cancel the solicitations requested under this notice, and/or to readvertise solicitation for these services.
