Life Was Meant To Be Lived And Curiosity Must Be Kept Alive. One Must Never For Whatever Reason Turn His Back On Life

Eleanor Roosevelt
The 1983 edition is the third volume of the Villanova Law School Yearbook. It is the intention of the staff to commemorate the academic year, in particular the graduating class, in the Yearbook.

Staff: clockwise from upper left; Colette Buchanan, Editor; Juanita Holden; Marisa Guarino, Advertising Manager; Debbie Melamut; Bob Murphy; Ellen Joyce; Eric Freed; Ronnie Cubit. Not pictured (but equally important): Mary Porter; Joe Del Reo; Teresa Nazario; Andy Zeldin; Bill McNichol.

The Villanova Student Bar Association is an organization of elected representatives designed to promote academic and social activities at the law school. Some of the activities sponsored by the SBA include the orientation of first year students, two blood drives, the Barristers' Ball, a volleyball tournament, a roller skating party, and several TGIFs.

Members: counter-clockwise from upper right: Lynn Lewis, Secretary; Rob Sachs, Treasurer; Ronnie Cubit, President; Tony Cadiz, Vice-President; Pete Pitsiokus; Natalie Ramsey; Dao Radich, Second Year Representatives; Sonny Banks; Carla Bobst; Andy Worthington, First Year Representatives; Ernie Hart, Fran Lincicome, Third Year Representatives.
Moot Court Board

The Moot Court Board is responsible for administering the Reimel Competition and the Moot Court Credit Round. This includes scheduling the judges, hosting the arguments and The Board also screens the briefs to assure academic quality.

Honor Board

The Honor Board is an organization designed to promote and enforce the standards of ethical conduct required of students attending Villanova.

The Villanova Law Review, a national legal periodical, offers an opportunity for valuable experience in legal writing and research. It is composed of those students who have been selected on the basis of scholarship or performance in an open-writing competition.

Members: Richard Umbrecht, Editor-in-Chief; Gayle Chaotl Sproul, Nancy Eshelman, Managing Editors; Juan Vocu, Kathy Freidack, Judy Anzain, Wayne Welthow, Jr., Jim Wells, Paul Alt man, Mary Anderson, Wei Wei Chiu, Leah Levine Tompkins, Jack Jerrett, Kathleen Merivether, Mark Mullin, Sam Arena, Jr., Dennis Bartholomew, Tom Buder, Jeanne Crane, Audrey Greene, Lynne Heckett, Laurie Kramer, Valerie Vilbon, Jim Lawsess, IV, Joseph Whip, (continued below)

Law Review

The purpose of BALSA is to articulate and promote the professional needs and goals of Black American Law Students: to foster and encourage professional competence; to instill in the Black Attorney and Law Student a greater awareness of and commitment to the needs of the Black Community.

The Thomas More Society is an organization designed to perpetuate legal ethics in the profession and service to society through the law. The Society pursues these goals by sponsoring programs open to the community.

The Jewish Law Students Association is an organization formed to promote the interests of Jewish students at Villanova.

The International Law Society is an organization of students particularly interested in world politics, human rights, global relations and the legal relations between nations.

Members: Tony Giountikas, Panice Maguire, Katy Liza, George Chou, Rachel Firono, Lauren Kane, Lynn Lewin, Beth Setrumwani, Ann Marie Coxle, Mary Beth Pford, Tony Shore, Julius Lapham, Tom Sipes, Mike Buckley, Steve Mezrow, Tim Hunter, Marc Arrigo, Steve Mezrow, Emil Gerdano, George David, Tom Spencer, Kathy Feldman, Julia Pelicano, Jamieson Schaff, James Watkins, John Dillon, Tianyi Swete, Steve Pinnen, Diane Mancini, Michelle Miko, Edie Langenbach, Joe Cunningham, Jerry Carozza, Mark Benner, George Polis, Margarette Maier, Tom O'Keefe, Mike Hawkins, Pat Harvey, Gina Vogel, Michael Gallagher, Charles Marvin.
The National Lawyers Guild is a policy-making service organization. Since its inception, Guild members have participated in the struggle for economic, social and political justice.

Members: Gregory Boles, Colette Buchanan, Mary Burton, Dave Eddy, Timmie Eister, Mark Hanster, Barbara Hoffman, Juanita Holden, Mary Ann Knight, Laurie Kramer, Lee Levan, Patrice McGuire, Jim Malone, Linda Richenderger, Richard Verner, Mary Young, Tim Hunter, Beth Franco.

The Women's Law Caucus is an organization designed to encourage women toward a better awareness of their potentials within the legal community and to present programs to the Law School community with specific emphasis on issues affecting women.

Phi Delta Phi is the oldest legal fraternity in North America. One of the major goals of its members is service to the law school and the community.

The Villanova Community Legal Services enables students to work with housing, consumer, family, elderly or mental health cases. Third year students are permitted to represent clients in court.

Environmental Law Club

The Environmental Law Club is an organization of students interested in the environment and the effect of law upon it.

Garey Hall Rugby Club

Garey Hall Rugby Club is a sports organization dedicated to maintaining the spirit of athletic competition in law school. The team plays in a league consisting of teams from other area professional schools.

Other Organizations

THE DOCKET
Villanova Law Squash Club
VLS Basketball Team
VLS SOCCER CLUB
American Bar Association