Dean Reuschlein Invested With Papal Knighthood By Spellman

New York Alumni Meet In First Annual Banquet

This year another "first" was established in the ever growing list of luncheons and social meetings for the alumni of Villanova Law School. A special alumni luncheon was held in conjunction with the Annual Meeting of the American Bar Association, New York August 8-15.

The Villanova Alumni luncheon was scheduled on the Calendar of Events along with similar meetings of other alumni groups. The proximity of New York City to Pennsylvania and New Jersey made the American Bar Association meeting an opportune time to begin such luncheons. The arrangements were made and coordinated by Peter F. Smith, III '69, a member of the New York Bar who presided at the event. The meeting was attended by Francis Recchuiti, Thomas A. Riley, S. Konowal, C. Dale McClain, Albert F. M. Schlipp, Robert Silverberg, A. Hyman, James P. Karp, Alan C. Mey, Charles C. Hodgson, Jr., Myron A. Hyman, and Edwin R. Soeffling.

Dean Reuschlein spoke to the group on the hopes and aspirations of the Law School. He talked about the general changes which have taken place and the particular plans for future developments. The ever increasing enrollment has pointed up the need for a larger and more efficient enrollment hall for the law students as well as mere professors to handle the growing work load.

Two Credit Allowance Made For Senior Law Review Staff

Staff members of the Villanova Law Review will receive two credit hours in recognition of the time required to research and write Law Review articles, announced William B. Freligh, Editor-In-Chief of Volume X.

Murray Named Advisor For Senior Law Review Staff

A top twenty members of the second year class have been invited to compete for positions on the Law Review staff. The editorials (Continued on Page 2)

Dean Reuschlein with the office of Papal Knighthood by Spellman.

The third annual dinner of The Order of The Coif, Villanova Chapter, was held on Friday, October 16, in Garey Hall. Among honored guests at the dinner were The Very Reverend John A. Klekotka, O.S.A., Dean Harold Gill Reuschlein.

McKeldin discussed his answers to the question "WHAT IS GOOD GOVERNMENT."

New York Alumni Banquet was well attended.

The Villanova Alumni luncheon from the Class of 1964. The induction of new members elected guests at the dinner were The Very Reverend John A. Klekotka, O.S.A., Dean Harold Gill Reuschlein. The next three meetings of the American Bar Association will be in distant places: Miami, Florida; Montreal, Canada; and Honolulu, Hawaii. However, in 1968 the convention will be in Philadelphia. The alumni luncheon then should have a record breaking attendance, not only because of the ever increasing number of graduates, but also because the first program proved as exceedingly enjoyable, entertaining and worthwhile for all those who attended.

Dean Reuschlein was designated a Knight of the Holy Sepulcher. The Order of the Holy Sepulcher was founded by Godfrey of Bouillon during the first Crusade in 1099. It enjoys the highest standing in Europe and its members there in the ranks of nobility, heads of republics and others who distinguish themselves in the service of the church, the arts, sciences, and literature.

The Dean and Mrs. Reuschlein were entertained by Cardinal Spellman at a luncheon in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel following the morning investitures in the Cathedral.

Villanova's School since it was founded in 1963. It is a native of the "old school"type in undergraduate work at the University. He earned his Bachelor of Laws Degree at Yale in 1933 and received his Doctor of Jurisprudence Degree in 1934. The Dean had taught at Georgetown, Notre Dame, and Pittsburgh Law Schools prior to his move to Villanova.

Villanova Law Review, the Honorable Theodore R. McKeldin, Governor of Maryland. Speaking at the Villanova Law Forum was given a lecture on government. Two members of the present law school student body were at the meeting as representatives of the Student Bar Association. They were Henry Burgoyne, Student Bar President, and Thomas Henry, Treasurer.

About twenty-three Villanova alumni from various states attended the luncheon at the Manhattan Club. The Manhattan Club is located near Madison Square where the original Madison Square Gardens was located. It is an old political club in New York City and was a most atmospheric place for a luncheon. The walls are covered with pictures of the many dignitaries who have attended functions there.

In First Year Class Record Enrollment

Villanova's School since it was founded in 1953. He is a native of the "old school" type in undergraduate work at the University. He earned his Bachelor of Laws Degree at Yale in 1933 and received his Doctor of Jurisprudence Degree in 1934. The Dean had taught at Georgetown, Notre Dame, and Pittsburgh Law Schools prior to his move to Villanova.

Dean Reuschlein was designated a Knight of the Holy Sepulcher. The Order of the Holy Sepulcher was founded by Godfrey of Bouillon during the first Crusade in 1099. It enjoys the highest standing in Europe and its members there in the ranks of nobility, heads of republics and others who distinguish themselves in the service of the church, the arts, sciences, and literature.

The Dean and Mrs. Reuschlein were entertained by Cardinal Spellman at a luncheon in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel following the morning investitures in the Cathedral.

The Order of the Holy Sepulcher was founded by Godfrey of Bouillon during the first Crusade in 1099. It enjoys the highest standing in Europe and its members there in the ranks of nobility, heads of republics and others who distinguish themselves in the service of the church, the arts, sciences, and literature.

The Dean and Mrs. Reuschlein were entertained by Cardinal Spellman at a luncheon in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel following the morning investitures in the Cathedral.

Villanova's School since it was founded in 1963. It is a native of the "old school" type in undergraduate work at the University. He earned his Bachelor of Laws Degree at Yale in 1933 and received his Doctor of Jurisprudence Degree in 1934. The Dean had taught at Georgetown, Notre Dame, and Pittsburgh Law Schools prior to his move to Villanova.

Villanova Law Review, the Honorable Theodore R. McKeldin, Governor of Maryland. Speaking at the Villanova Law Forum was given a lecture on government. Two members of the present law school student body were at the meeting as representatives of the Student Bar Association. They were Henry Burgoyne, Student Bar President, and Thomas Henry, Treasurer.

About twenty-three Villanova alumni from various states attended the luncheon at the Manhattan Club. The Manhattan Club is located near Madison Square where the original Madison Square Gardens was located. It is an old political club in New York City and was a most atmospheric place for a luncheon. The walls are covered with pictures of the many dignitaries who have attended functions there.

In First Year Class Record Enrollment

Villanova's School since it was founded in 1953. He is a native of the "old school" type in undergraduate work at the University. He earned his Bachelor of Laws Degree at Yale in 1933 and received his Doctor of Jurisprudence Degree in 1934. The Dean had taught at Georgetown, Notre Dame, and Pittsburgh Law Schools prior to his move to Villanova.

Villanova Law Review, the Honorable Theodore R. McKeldin, Governor of Maryland. Speaking at the Villanova Law Forum was given a lecture on government. Two members of the present law school student body were at the meeting as representatives of the Student Bar Association. They were Henry Burgoyne, Student Bar President, and Thomas Henry, Treasurer.

About twenty-three Villanova alumni from various states attended the luncheon at the Manhattan Club. The Manhattan Club is located near Madison Square where the original Madison Square Gardens was located. It is an old political club in New York City and was a most atmospheric place for a luncheon. The walls are covered with pictures of the many dignitaries who have attended functions there.

Two Credit Allowance Made For Senior Law Review Staff

Murray Named Advisor For Senior Law Review Staff

A top twenty members of the second year class have been invited to compete for positions on the Law Review staff. The editorials (Continued on Page 2)
Two Credit... (Continued from Page 1)

Published four times a year by the students of the Law School, for the friends, and Students of Villanova University.

Editor: Richard E. Regan
Associate Editor: William B. Freilich
Managing Editor: Michael Macchiaroli

THE VILLANOVA DOCKET
Published four times a year by the students of the Law School, for the friends, and Students of Villanova University.

Editor: Richard E. Regan
Associate Editor: William B. Freilich
Managing Editor: Michael Macchiaroli

Docket

The welcome which this year's first class is by far the largest in our history. Hereafter, we shall limit enrollment appreciably and this should mean constant improvement in the quality of the students we admit.

For the next academic year call for augmentation of the full-time faculty by at least three men and the division of the first-year class into two sections. Our plans also call for administrative reorganization which will enable us to do more effective work in the areas of recruiting, placement and alumni relations.

This year's first class is by far the largest in our history. Hereafter, we shall limit enrollment appreciably and this should mean constant improvement in the quality of the students we admit.

For the next academic year call for augmentation of the full-time faculty by at least three men and the division of the first-year class into two sections. Our plans also call for administrative reorganization which will enable us to do more effective work in the areas of recruiting, placement and alumni relations.

And while we are speaking of alumni relations, I am happy to note that our 1964 Annual Giving has come to a successful conclusion. Again — and for the third successive year — and this should mean constant improvement in the quality of the students we admit.

For the next academic year call for augmentation of the full-time faculty by at least three men and the division of the first-year class into two sections. Our plans also call for administrative reorganization which will enable us to do more effective work in the areas of recruiting, placement and alumni relations.

And while we are speaking of alumni relations, I am happy to note that our 1964 Annual Giving has come to a successful conclusion. Again — and for the third successive year — and this should mean constant improvement in the quality of the students we admit.

For the next academic year call for augmentation of the full-time faculty by at least three men and the division of the first-year class into two sections. Our plans also call for administrative reorganization which will enable us to do more effective work in the areas of recruiting, placement and alumni relations.

And while we are speaking of alumni relations, I am happy to note that our 1964 Annual Giving has come to a successful conclusion. Again — and for the third successive year — and this should mean constant improvement in the quality of the students we admit.

For the next academic year call for augmentation of the full-time faculty by at least three men and the division of the first-year class into two sections. Our plans also call for administrative reorganization which will enable us to do more effective work in the areas of recruiting, placement and alumni relations.

And while we are speaking of alumni relations, I am happy to note that our 1964 Annual Giving has come to a successful conclusion. Again — and for the third successive year — and this should mean constant improvement in the quality of the students we admit.

For the next academic year call for augmentation of the full-time faculty by at least three men and the division of the first-year class into two sections. Our plans also call for administrative reorganization which will enable us to do more effective work in the areas of recruiting, placement and alumni relations.

And while we are speaking of alumni relations, I am happy to note that our 1964 Annual Giving has come to a successful conclusion. Again — and for the third successive year — and this should mean constant improvement in the quality of the students we admit.

For the next academic year call for augmentation of the full-time faculty by at least three men and the division of the first-year class into two sections. Our plans also call for administrative reorganization which will enable us to do more effective work in the areas of recruiting, placement and alumni relations.

And while we are speaking of alumni relations, I am happy to note that our 1964 Annual Giving has come to a successful conclusion. Again — and for the third successive year — and this should mean constant improvement in the quality of the students we admit.

For the next academic year call for augmentation of the full-time faculty by at least three men and the division of the first-year class into two sections. Our plans also call for administrative reorganization which will enable us to do more effective work in the areas of recruiting, placement and alumni relations.

And while we are speaking of alumni relations, I am happy to note that our 1964 Annual Giving has come to a successful conclusion. Again — and for the third successive year — and this should mean constant improvement in the quality of the students we admit.

For the next academic year call for augmentation of the full-time faculty by at least three men and the division of the first-year class into two sections. Our plans also call for administrative reorganization which will enable us to do more effective work in the areas of recruiting, placement and alumni relations.

And while we are speaking of alumni relations, I am happy to note that our 1964 Annual Giving has come to a successful conclusion. Again — and for the third successive year — and this should mean constant improvement in the quality of the students we admit.

For the next academic year call for augmentation of the full-time faculty by at least three men and the division of the first-year class into two sections. Our plans also call for administrative reorganization which will enable us to do more effective work in the areas of recruiting, placement and alumni relations.

And while we are speaking of alumni relations, I am happy to note that our 1964 Annual Giving has come to a successful conclusion. Again — and for the third successive year — and this should mean constant improvement in the quality of the students we admit.

For the next academic year call for augmentation of the full-time faculty by at least three men and the division of the first-year class into two sections. Our plans also call for administrative reorganization which will enable us to do more effective work in the areas of recruiting, placement and alumni relations.

And while we are speaking of alumni relations, I am happy to note that our 1964 Annual Giving has come to a successful conclusion. Again — and for the third successive year — and this should mean constant improvement in the quality of the students we admit.

For the next academic year call for augmentation of the full-time faculty by at least three men and the division of the first-year class into two sections. Our plans also call for administrative reorganization which will enable us to do more effective work in the areas of recruiting, placement and alumni relations.
Burgoyne And Henry Attend 16th Annual A.L.S.A Meeting

This summer marked the Sixteenth Annual Meeting of the American Law Student Association. It was held at the Hotel Biltmore in New York City, from August 9 until August 15. The Student Bar Association of Villanova sent Hank Burgoyne, the president of the Association, as a voting delegate and Tom Henry, the treasurer, as the alternate. The main purposes of the meeting were: (1) to elect officers for the current school year and, (2) to inform its members of A.B.A. administration by way of seminars dealing with specialized areas.

After a call to order by Eugene A. Bambic, the president of A.B.A., there were addresses by the president-elect of the American Bar Association, the president of the Association of American Law Schools and the president of the Canadian Bar Association and others. The roll call of member associations was made and the meeting proceeded on to business. There were ninety-six participating law schools and others were present as observers.

Some of the topics discussed in the seminars were: orientation programs, S.B.A. loan funds, law school newspapers, pre-law recruitment and the relations of the local S.B.A. to the A.B.A. The seminars were prepared and presented by members of A.B.A. and informational material on the pertinent subjects was distributed. Other seminars were presented by famed trial lawyers and writers. Some of the topics discussed were: the role of the computer in the law, from law student to law practice, famed trial lawyers and writers.

The program was not limited to business; there being events from law student to law practice, famed trial lawyers and writers. The role of the computer in the law, and it is assured that a generous allocation per person has been made. The number of persons expected to attend is sufficient for three times the number of persons expected to be in attendance. The program lists the serving of cocktails from 5:30 until 7:00. After cocktails the participants will be served over an open bar until 1:00 A.M. Both the cocktails and dancing will begin and continue until 1:00 A.M. Both the cocktails and dancing will begin and continue until 1:00 A.M.

Burgoyne And Henry Attend 16th Annual A.L.S.A Meeting

First Annual Dinner Dance Combines Two Social Nights

The Student Bar Association has announced that plans are well under way for the Law School's first annual dinner dance. The dance will be held at the Falcon House on Saturday, March 20, from 5:30 until 1:00. Unlike the social format of last year, the Galas consists of a dance in December and an all male dinner in March, the present plan calls for a combination of the two events into one.

The changed program was necessitated by the increased enrollment in the school which provided use of the limited accommodations offered by Bartley Hall on campus. The president of the S.B.A., Hank Burgoyne, explained that the new proposal was decided upon because of a desire by the students to have an affair which would be more appealing to wives and dates.

Since this dinner dance will be the most formal event of the year, it was deemed to have been the appropriate occasion for the presentation of the various academic awards won by the students.

Mock Election Sees Goldwater In Secret Place

In a mock election conducted October 22 by the American Law Club, the students of the School of Law overwhelmingly made President Lyndon B. Johnson their choice over Senator Barry Goldwater for the office of President of the United States. The final returns gave Mr. Johnson 177 votes or 66% of the 263 ballots cast, while Senator Goldwater was preferred by 76 votes. Ninety per cent of the student body participated in the election.

The President was provided with substantial majorities by all three classes, receiving his strongest support from the first year class where he enjoyed a three to one margin of victory over Senator Johnson. The closest contest was in the third year class where the Republican candidate lost by nine votes.

The results by class:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Votes</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>First Year</td>
<td>107</td>
<td>67%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Second Year</td>
<td>49</td>
<td>29%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Third Year</td>
<td>33</td>
<td>19%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The faculty vote was also heavily in favor of Mr. Johnson, the President, receiving seven of the eight ballots cast.
With the commencement of the 1964-65 academic year, the Law School has introduced a new series of faculty members: Professors John Murray, Jr., John S. Carne, and Donald M. Collins. Murray, a native of Philadelphia, received his B.S. degree from LaSalle College in 1965 and is currently a professor at the University of Washington, where he has been a member of the Law School faculty since 1966. Accredited with a solid record of teaching and research, Murray has been recognized for his contributions to the field of law.

Murray is a member of the Committee on Emminent Domain and the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Professor Carne is also a member of the Committee on Eminent Domain of Philadelphia and the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Professor Collins, who is presently teaching Land-Use Planning Law, has received his J.D. degree from Harvard Law School in 1963. Admitted to practice in 1963 in Pennsylvania, he has been a member of the Bar in that State since 1963. In addition, he is currently a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Professor Collins is also a member of the Committee on Eminent Domain of Philadelphia and the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Professor Carne is also a member of the Committee on Eminent Domain of Philadelphia and the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Three Appointments Augment Faculty

With the commencement of the 1964-65 academic year, the Law School has introduced a new series of faculty members: Professors John Murray, Jr., John S. Carne, and Donald M. Collins. Murray, a native of Philadelphia, received his B.S. degree from LaSalle College in 1965 and is currently a professor at the University of Washington, where he has been a member of the Law School faculty since 1966. Accredited with a solid record of teaching and research, Murray has been recognized for his contributions to the field of law.

Murray is a member of the Committee on Emminent Domain and the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Professor Carne is also a member of the Committee on Eminent Domain of Philadelphia and the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Professor Collins, who is presently teaching Land-Use Planning Law, has received his J.D. degree from Harvard Law School in 1963. Admitted to practice in 1963 in Pennsylvania, he has been a member of the Bar in that State since 1963. In addition, he is currently a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Professor Collins is also a member of the Committee on Eminent Domain of Philadelphia and the Pennsylvania Bar Association.