READER'S GUIDE TO THE PENNSYLVANIA BULLETIN AND PENNSYLVANIA CODE

Pennsylvania Bulletin

The Pennsylvania Bulletin is the official gazette of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It is published every week and includes a table of contents. A cumulative subject matter index is published quarterly.

The Pennsylvania Bulletin serves several purposes. First, it is the temporary supplement to the Pennsylvania Code, which is the official codification of agency rules and regulations and other statutorily authorized documents. Changes in the codified text, whether by adoption, amendment, repeal or emergency action must be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. Further, agencies proposing changes to the codified text do so in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Second, the Pennsylvania Bulletin also publishes: Governor's Executive Orders; State Contract Notices; Summaries of Enacted Statutes; Statewide and Local Court Rules; Attorney General Opinions; Motor Carrier Applications before the Public Utility Commission; Applications and Actions before the Department of Environmental Protection; Orders of the Independent Regulatory Review Commission; and other documents authorized by law.

The text of certain documents published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin is the only valid and enforceable text. Courts are required to take judicial notice of the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Adoption, Amendment or Repeal of Regulations

Generally an agency wishing to adopt, amend or repeal regulations must first publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. There are limited instances where the agency may omit the proposal step; they still must publish the adopted version.

The Notice of Proposed Rulemaking contains the full text of the change, the agency contact person, a fiscal note required by law and background for the action.

The agency then allows sufficient time for public comment before taking final action. An adopted proposal must be published in the Pennsylvania

Bulletin before it can take effect. If the agency wishes to adopt changes to the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to enlarge the scope, they must re-propose.

Citation to the Pennsylvania Bulletin

Cite material in the Pennsylvania Bulletin by volume number and page number. Example: Volume 1, Pennsylvania Bulletin, page 801 (short form: 1 Pa.B. 801).

Pennsylvania Code

The Pennsylvania Code is the official codification of rules and regulations issued by Commonwealth agencies and other statutorily authorized documents. The Pennsylvania Bulletin is the temporary supplement to the Pennsylvania Code, printing changes as soon as they occur. These changes are then permanently codified by the Pennsylvania Code Reporter, a monthly, loose-leaf supplement.

The Pennsylvania Code is cited by title number and section number. Example: Title 10 Pennsylvania Code, § 1.1 (short form: 10 Pa.Code § 1.1).

Under the Pennsylvania Code codification system, each regulation is assigned a unique number by title and section. Titles roughly parallel the organization of Commonwealth government. Title 1 Pennsylvania Code lists every agency and its corresponding Code title location.

How to Find Documents

Search for your area of interest in the Pennsylvania Code.

The Pennsylvania Code contains, as Finding Aids, subject indexes for the complete Code and for each individual title, a list of Statutes Used As Authority for Adopting Rules and a list of annotated cases. Source Notes give you the history of the documents. To see if there have been recent changes, not yet codified, check the List of Pennsylvania Code Chapters Affected in the most recent issue of the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

The Pennsylvania Bulletin also publishes a quarterly List of Pennsylvania Code Sections Affected which lists the regulations in numerical order, followed by the citation to the Pennsylvania Bulletin in which the change occurred.

Printing Format

Material proposed to be added to an existing rule or regulation is printed in bold face and material proposed to be deleted from such a rule or regulation is enclosed in brackets [] and printed in bold face. Asterisks indicate ellipsis of Pennsylvania Code text retained without change. Proposed new or additional regulations are printed in ordinary style face.

Fiscal Notes

Section 612 of The Administrative Code of 1929 (71 P. S. § 232) requires that the Office of Budget prepare a fiscal note for regulatory actions and administrative procedures of the administrative departments, boards, commissions or authorities receiving money from the State Treasury stating whether the proposed action or procedure causes a loss of revenue or an increase in the cost of programs for the Commonwealth or its political subdivisions; that the fiscal note be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin at the same time as the proposed change is advertised; and that the fiscal note shall provide the following information: (1) the designation of the fund out of which the appropriation providing for expenditures under the action or procedure shall be made; (2) the probable cost for the fiscal year the program is implemented; (3) projected cost estimate of the program for each of the five succeeding fiscal years; (4) fiscal history of the program for which expenditures are to be made; (5) probable loss of revenue for the fiscal year of its implementation; (6) projected loss of revenue from the program for each of the five succeeding fiscal years; (7) line item, if any, of the General Appropriation Act or other appropriation act out of which expenditures or losses of Commonwealth funds shall occur as a result of the action or procedures; (8) recommendation, if any, of the Secretary of the Budget and the reasons therefor.

The required information is published in the foregoing order immediately following the proposed change to which it relates; the omission of an item indicates that the agency text of the fiscal note states that there is no information available with respect thereto. In items (3) and (6) information is set forth for the first through fifth fiscal years; in that order, following the year the program is implemented, which is stated. In item (4) information is set forth for the current and two immediately preceding years, in that order. In item (8) the recommendation, if any, made by the Secretary of Budget is published with the fiscal note. See 4 Pa. Code § 7.231 et seq. Where “no fiscal impact” is published, the statement means no additional cost or revenue loss to the Commonwealth or its local political subdivision is intended.

Reproduction, Dissemination or Publication of Information

Third parties may not take information from the Pennsylvania Code and Pennsylvania Bulletin and reproduce, disseminate or publish such information except as provided by 1 Pa. Code § 3.44. 1 Pa. Code § 3.44 reads as follows:

§ 3.44. General permission to reproduce content of Code and Bulletin.

Information published under this part, which information includes, but is not limited to, cross references, tables of cases, notes of decisions, tables of contents, indexes, source notes, authority notes, numerical lists and codification guides, other than the actual text of rules or regulations may be reproduced only with the written consent of the Bureau. The information which appears on the same leaf with the text of a rule or regulation, however, may be incidentally reproduced in connection with the reproduction of the rule or regulation, if the reproduction is for the private use of a subscriber and not for resale. There are no other restrictions on the reproduction of information published under this part, and the Commonwealth hereby consents to a reproduction.

The Department of Environmental Protection has discovered a discrepancy between the agency text of 25 Pa. Code § 287.102(a)(2)(i) (relating to permit-by-rule) as deposited with the Legislative Reference Bureau and the official text as published at 31 Pa.B. 2873, 2888 (June 2, 2001) that currently appears in the Pennsylvania Code. The reference to subsection (k) in that subparagraph should have been changed to subsection (i).

Therefore, under 45 Pa.C.S. § 901: The Department of Environmental Protection has deposited with the Legislative Reference Bureau a corrective amendment to 25 Pa. Code § 287.102(a)(2)(i). The corrective amendment to 25 Pa. Code § 287.102(a)(2)(i) is effective as of June 2, 2001, the date the defective official text was printed in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Title 49—PROFESSIONAL AND VOCATIONAL STANDARDS

STATE BOARD OF COSMETOLOGY

[49 PA. CODE CH. 7]

Application Fees

The State Board of Cosmetology (Board) adopts amendments to § 7.2 (relating to fees), to read as set forth in Annex A.

Notice of proposed rulemaking was published at 30 Pa.B. 3266 (July 1, 2000). Publication was followed by a 30-day public comment period. The Board received no comments from the public, the House Professional Licensure Committee, the Senate Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure Committee or the Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC).

Effective Date

The amendment will be effective upon final-form publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Statutory Authority

The final-form amendment is authorized under section 16 of the Beauty Culture Law (63 P. S. § 522).

Calculation of Administrative Overhead

1. Use of Constant Overhead Cost Allocation and "Rounding Up"

In computing overhead charges, the boards and the Bureau of Professional and Occupational Affairs (Bureau) include expenses resulting from service of support staff operations, equipment, technology initiatives or upgrades, leased office space and other sources not directly attributable to a specific board. Once the Bureau's expenses are determined, the Bureau's expenses are apportioned to each board based upon that board's share of the total active licensee population. The board's share of the expenses is divided by the number of active licensees under that board to calculate a "per application" charge which is added to the direct personnel cost to establish the cost of processing (the administrative overhead charge). The administrative charge is consistently applied to every application regardless of how much time the staff spends processing the application.

This method of calculating administrative overhead to be apportioned to fees for services was first included in the biennial reconciliation of fees and expenses conducted in 1988-89. In accordance with the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. §§ 745.1—745.15), the method was approved by the Senate and House Standing Committees and IRRC as reasonable and consistent with the legislative intent of statutory provisions which require the board to establish fees which meet or exceed expenses.

IRRC suggested, in response to regulations promulgated by other boards, that within each board, the administrative charge should be determined by the amount of time required to process each application. For example, an application requiring 1/2 hour of processing time would pay 1/2 as much overhead charge as an application requiring 1 hour of processing time. The Bureau concurs with IRRC that by adopting this methodology the Bureau and the boards would more nearly and accurately accomplish their objective of setting fees that cover the cost of the service. Therefore, in accordance with IRRC's previous suggestions, the Bureau conducted a test to compare the resulting overhead charges obtained by applying IRRC suggested time factor versus the current method.

This review of the boards' operation showed that approximately 25% of staff time was devoted to providing services described in the regulations. The current method recouped 22% to 28% of the administrative overhead charges versus the 25% recouped using a ratio-based time factor. However, when the time factor is combined with the licensing population for each board, the resulting fees vary widely even though different licensees may receive the same services. For example, using the time-factor method to issue a verification of licensure would cost $34.58 for a landscape architect as compared with a cost of $10.18 for a cosmetologist. Conversely, under the Bureau method, the administrative overhead charge of $9.76 represents the cost of processing a verification application for all licensees in the Bureau. Also, the Bureau found that employing a time factor in the computation of administrative overhead would result in a different amount of overhead charge being made for each fee proposed.

With regard to IRRC's earlier suggestions concerning projected versus actual expenses, the boards noted that the computation of projected expenditures based on amounts actually expended has been the basis for biennial reconciliations for the past 10 years. During these 5 biennial cycles, the experience of both the boards and the Bureau has established that verifiable data can be substantiated by collective bargaining agreements, pay scales and cost benefit factors. This method has provided a reliable basis for fees. Also, the fees are kept at a minimum for licensees, but appear adequate to sustain the operations of the boards over an extended period. Similarly, accounting, recordkeeping and swift processing of applications, renewals and other fees were the primary basis for "rounding up" the actual costs to establish a fee. This rounding up process has in effect resulted in the necessary but minimal cushion or surplus to accommodate unexpected needs and expenditures.

2. Variation in Administration Charge of Verification/Certification Versus Administrative Charge for Other Services

In response to previous regulations from the Bureau, IRRC questioned why the administrative charge included for other services was different. The administrative charge of $9.76 represents the cost of processing a verification or certification application for any licensee in the Bureau irrespective of what Board issues the license. The administrative charge of $11.38 represents the cost of processing other types of licensure applications for only licensees under the Board. In other words, whereas the administrative charge for verification or certification of licensure is constant across all licensees under the Bureau, the license services performed that are specific to the type of license held are calculated based only on the number of licensees served by the board. Thus, each board has two administrative charges applied to the provision of licensure services: $9.76 is applied to all boards for verification or certification services and an individual fee ($1.62) is applied on a per board basis.

Fees for Business Changes

Previously, IRRC requested a more detailed explanation of the fee increases for change of business name or post office and change in business physical location.

When a business requests a name or address change, the Board staff reviews the application for completeness and contacts the applicant for any missing information. The staff verifies that the name of the dealership has not changed as a result of an ownership change and determines whether the address change is due to an actual physical location change or to a postal address reassignment. The staff then processes the new information through the computer and issues an updated license.

If there has been a physical location change, in addition to the previous procedures, the Board staff prepares an inspection report form and forwards the form to the Bureau of Enforcement and Investigation (BEI). BEI conducts an onsite inspection, determines whether statutory and regulatory standards for the facility are met and sends the inspection results to the Board. Board staff then updates the computer information and issues a license with the new address or, if BEI has found that the new location does not comply with applicable facility standards, issues a discrepancy notice. Inspection by BEI represents a change from the former procedure, when inspections were performed by the State Police at no charge to the Board. The State Police no longer perform this service.

Reinspection After Failure

When applicable facility standards are not met at initial inspection for new or relocated businesses, BEI advises Board staff of the reasons for failure at the onsite inspection. The Board staff sends a discrepancy letter to the applicant informing the applicant of the deficiencies. The applicant notifies the Board office when the deficiencies have been corrected. The Board office then prepares a reinspection report form and forwards the form to BEI for follow-up inspection. After the follow-up inspection is completed, the results are sent to the Board staff. The Board staff then either sends another discrepancy letter or issues the license.

Although the existing application fees capture the cost of the initial inspection by BEI prior to issuance of a license, the fees do not cover the cost of reinspection by BEI when the applicable facility standards were not met at the initial inspection. This new fee will cover the additional cost of reinspection and require that only those using the service must pay for the service.

Compliance with Executive Order 1996-1

The Board reviewed this final-form amendment and considered its purpose and likely impact upon the public and the regulated population under the directives of Executive Order 1996-1. The final-form regulation addresses a compelling public interest as described in this preamble and otherwise complies with Executive Order 1996-1.

Fiscal Impact and Paperwork Requirements

The final-form amendment will have no adverse fiscal impact on the Commonwealth or its political subdivisions. The fees will have a modest fiscal impact on those members of the private sector who apply for services from the Board. The final-form amendment will impose no additional paperwork requirements upon the Commonwealth, political subdivisions or the private sector.

Sunset Date

The Board continuously monitors the cost effectiveness of its regulations. Therefore, no sunset date has been assigned.

Regulatory Review

Under section 5(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. § 745.5(a)), on June 2, 2000, the Board submitted a copy of the notice of proposed rulemaking, published at 30 Pa.B. 3266, to IRRC and the Chairpersons of the House Professional Licensure Committee and the Senate Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure Committee for review and comment.

Under section 5(c) of the Regulatory Review Act, IRRC and the Committees were provided with copies of the comments received during the public comment period, as well as other documents when requested. In preparing the final-form amendment, the Board has considered the comments from IRRC and the Committees.

Under section 5.1(d) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. § 745.5a(d)), on May 16, 2001, this final-form amendment was deemed approved by the House and Senate Committees. The final-form amendment was deemed approved under section 5(g) of the Regulatory Review Act, effective on May 17, 2001.

STATE BOARD OF LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTS

[49 PA. CODE CH. 15]

Application Fees

The State Board of Landscape Architects (Board) amends §§ 15.12 and 15.57 (relating to fees; and registration by endorsement) to read as set forth in Annex A.

A. Effective date.

The amendments take effect upon final-form publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

B. Statutory Authority

The final-form amendments are authorized under section 5(a) of the Landscape Architects' Registration Law (law) (63 P.S. § 905(a)). This provision requires the Board to increase fees to meet or exceed projected expenditures if the revenues raised by fees, fines and civil penalties are not sufficient to meet expenditures over a 2-year period.

C. Background and Purpose.

Expenses of the Board that are related to processing individual applications or providing certain services directly to individual licensees or applicants are funded through fees which are based on the cost of providing the service. The fee is charged to the person requesting the service.

A recent systems audit within the Bureau of Professional and Occupational Affairs (Bureau) determined that the application and service fees did not accurately reflect the actual cost of processing the applications and performing the services. A detailed explanation of the background of these fees as well as a description of the fees was published at 29 Pa.B. 4355 (August 14, 1999).

D. Summary of Comments and Responses on Proposed Rulemaking

Following publication of proposed rulemaking at 29 Pa.B. 4355, the Board did not receive any comments from the general public. The Board also did not receive any comments or objections from the Senate Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure Committee. The House Professional Licensure Committee issued comments on September 27, 1999. The Board received comments from the Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) on October 14, 1999. The following is the response to both sets of comments.

Certification and Verification Fee

IRRC questioned the difference in staff processing time between a verification and a certification, and asked for a revised description of the staff processing functions for those two tasks. The House Professional Licensure Committee also asked for a distinction between verification and certification and the respective fees.

The certification of a score is made at the request of a licensee when the licensee is seeking to obtain a license in another state based upon a license in this Commonwealth, which had been issued on the basis of a uniform National or regional examination which was taken in this Commonwealth. Generally the state of the original license is the only source of the score of the licensee, as testing agencies do not maintain this information. The licensing laws of many states include provisions that licensure by reciprocity or endorsement based on a license in another state will be granted only if the board or agency determines that the qualifications are the same or substantially similar. Many state agencies have interpreted this provision to require that licensees have attained a score equal to, or exceeding, the passing rate in that jurisdiction at the time of original licensure. For this reason, these states require that the Board and other boards certify the examination score the applicant achieved on the license examination.

As noted in proposed rulemaking, the difference between the verification and certification fees is the amount of time required to produce the document requested by the licensee. As previously noted, states request different information when making a determination as to whether to grant a license based on reciprocity or endorsement from another state. The Bureau has been able to create two documents from its records that will meet all of the needs of the requesting state. The licensee, when applying to the other state, receives information as to what documentation and form is acceptable in the requesting state. The Bureau then advises the licensee of the type of document the Bureau can provide and the fee.

In the case of a "verification," the staff produces the requested documentation by a letter, usually computer generated, which contains the license number, date of original issuance, current expiration date and status of the license. The letter is printed from the Bureau's central computer records and sent to the Board staff responsible for handling the licensee's application. The letter is sealed, folded and mailed in accordance with the directions of the requestor. The Bureau estimates the average time to prepare this document to be 5 minutes. This function takes only 5 minutes because the search for the information is computerized.

The Bureau uses the term "certification fee" to describe the fee for a request for a document, again generally to support reciprocity or endorsement applications to other states, territories or countries, or for employment or training in another state. A certification document contains information specific to the individual requestor. It may include dates or location where examinations were taken, or scores achieved or hours and location of training. The information is entered onto a document which is usually supplied by the requestor. The Board staff then seals and issues this certification document. The average time to prepare a certification is 45 minutes. This is because a number of resources—such as files, microfilm and rosters—must be retrieved, consulted and often manually searched, in order to provide the information requested. The staff processing function in preparing a certification requires much more manual searching for information than the staff function in preparing a verification, which is primarily a computerized search.

Administrative Overhead

IRRC requested that the Board and the Bureau thoroughly examine its cost allocation methodology for administrative overhead and itemize the overhead costs to be recouped by these fees. IRRC commented that although the methodology is reasonable, there is no indication that the fees will recover the actual overhead costs because there is no relationship to the service covered by the fees and because the costs are based upon past expenditures rather than projected expenditures. IRRC expressed the view that there is no certainty that the projected revenues of the new fee will meet or exceed projected expenditures as required under the Board's enabling statutes. The House Professional Licensure Committee also questioned the Bureau's use of a $9.76 fee for certain services, as well as the Bureau's decision to round up proposed fees.

In computing overhead charges, the boards and the Bureau include expenses resulting from service of support staff operations, equipment, technology initiatives or upgrades, leased office space and other sources not directly attributable to a specific board. Once determined, the Bureau's total administrative charge is apportioned to each board based upon that board's share of the total active licensee population. In turn, the board's administrative charge is divided by the number of active licensees to calculate a "per application" charge which is added to direct personnel cost to establish the cost of processing. The administrative charge is consistently applied to every application regardless of how much time the staff spends processing the application.

This method of calculating administrative overhead to be apportioned to fees for services was first included in the biennial reconciliation of fees and expenses conducted in 1988-89. In accordance with the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. §§ 745.1—745.15), the method was approved by the Senate and House Committees and IRRC as reasonable and consistent with the legislative intent of statutory provisions which require the board to establish fees which meet or exceed expenses.

IRRC suggested that within each board, the administrative charge should be determined by the amount of time required to process each application. For example, an application requiring 1/2 hour of processing time would pay 1/2 as much overhead charge as an application requiring 1 hour of processing time. The Bureau concurs with IRRC that by adopting this methodology, the Bureau and the boards would more nearly and accurately accomplish their objective of setting fees that cover the cost of the service. Therefore, in accordance with IRRC's suggestions, the Bureau conducted a test to compare the resulting overhead of charges obtained by applying IRRC's suggested time factor versus the current method. This review of a board's operation showed that approximately 25% of staff time was devoted to providing services described in the regulations. The current method recouped 22% to 28% of the administrative overhead charges versus the 25% recouped using a ratio-based time factor. However, when the time factor is combined with the licensing population for each board, the resulting fees vary widely even though different licensees may receive the same services. For example, using the time-factor method to issue a verification of licensure would cost $34.58 for a landscape architect as compared with a cost of $10.18 for a cosmetologist. Conversely, under the Bureau method the administrative overhead charge of $9.76 represents the cost of processing a verification application for all licensees in the Bureau. Also, the Bureau found that employing a time factor in the computation of administrative overhead would result in a different amount of overhead charge being made for each fee proposed.

With regard to IRRC's suggestions concerning projected versus actual expenses, the boards noted that the computation of projected expenditures based on amounts actually expended has been the basis for biennial reconciliations for the past 10 years. During these 5 biennial cycles, the experience of both the boards and the Bureau has been that established and verifiable data can be substantiated by collective bargaining agreements, pay scales and cost benefit factors. This method has provided a reliable basis for fees. Also, the fees are kept at a minimum for licensees, but appear adequate to sustain the operations of the boards over an extended period. Similarly accounting, recordkeeping and swift processing of applications, renewals and other fees were the primary basis for "rounding up" the actual costs to establish a fee. This rounding up process has in effect resulted in the necessary but minimal cushion or surplus to accommodate unexpected needs and expenditures.

For these reasons, the Board has not made changes in the method by which it allocates administrative expenditures and the resulting fees will remain as proposed.

Increase in Fee for Licensure Under §§ 15.54(b)(2) and (3) or 15.56(a)(3)

The comments of the House Professional Licensure Committee inquired as to the significant increase in fee for these services. The fee will be increased from $45 to $60. The Board does not view this cost-based increase to be significant, as explained in this section. However, the Board also increased the fee for licensure and Board interview under § 15.54(b)(4) or § 15.56(a)(1) or (2) (relating to registration by examination; and registration without examination) from $255 to $350. This increase is also addressed in this section.

Section 6 of the law outlines seven routes to licensure as a landscape architect. The Board has split the fees for these routes into two groups based upon the amount of Board time and involvement in the licensure process.

Four groups of candidates for licensure are not required to appear before the Board. Section 15.54(b)(1) provides for licensure by examination for an applicant who holds an undergraduate degree in landscape architecture and 2 years of practical experience. Section 15.54(b)(2) provides for licensure by examination for an applicant with an undergraduate degree in landscape architecture, 1 year of graduate education in landscape architecture and 1 year of practical experience. Section 15.54(b)(3) provides for licensure by examination for an applicant with an undergraduate degree in a subject other than landscape architecture, a graduate degree in landscape architecture and 2 years of practical experience. Section 15.56(a)(3) provides for licensure without examination for an applicant who has passed the examination in another state with a score approved by the Board and met the education and other practical experience requirements of the act.

Candidates applying for licensure in the following three categories must appear for a Board interview. Section 15.54(b)(4) provides for licensure by examination for an applicant with no applicable landscape architecture degree but 8 years of practical experience. Section 15.56(a)(1) provides for licensure without examination for an applicant with an undergraduate degree in landscape architecture and 10 years of experience. Section 15.56(a)(2) provides for licensure without examination for an applicant with no degree in landscape architecture but 15 years of practical experience.

Because the costs of review and approval involved in the first four categories are identical, the fee has been described as an application for licensure under § 15.54(b)(1), (2) and (3) or § 15.56(a)(3). Likewise, because the costs to review and approve applications in the final three categories are identical, the fee designation is an application for licensure and Board interview under § 15.54(b)(4) or § 15.56(a)(1) or (2). The $15 increase for § 15.54(b)(1), (2) and (3) or § 15.56(a)(3)—those avenues of licensure which do not require a Board interview—is based on actual Board costs for the services.

The fees for licensure under the remaining three avenues of licensure increased more significantly. Licensure under any of the three methods requiring a Board interview allows an applicant who has certain combinations of experience or education, or both, to apply for licensure as a landscape architect without taking the licensure examination. Candidates are required to submit an extensive application to the Board which details the work and education experience which they believe qualifies them for licensure without examination. These applications are reviewed by a member of the Board staff who works with the applicant to provide any additional information needed. The applications are individually reviewed by members of a panel of the Board. The panel then schedules and conducts an in-depth personal interview of the applicant, reviewing blueprints, drawings, diagrams, plans, photographs and other documentation for numerous projects completed during the career of the applicant. The process is quite time and staff intensive because of the review of the candidate's work experience. The more significant increase of $95 for these avenues of licensure involving a Board interview under § 15.54(b)(4) or § 15.56(a)(1) or (2), reflect an average of costs for the interview process, as well as the fact that the Board has not increased that fee in 13 years.

Miscellaneous Changes

Other changes that have been made since the time these final-form amendments were submitted as a proposed rulemaking include the elimination of the fee per section of licensing examination. This fee was removed because it was temporal—the fees listed in the regulation were for the exams given in June 1999, September 1999 and June 2000. Those times have passed and the fees are obsolete.

E. Fiscal Impact and Paperwork Requirements

The final-form amendments will have no adverse fiscal impact on the Commonwealth or its political subdivisions. The fees will have a modest fiscal impact on those members of the private sector who apply for services from the Board. The final-form amendments will not impose additional paperwork requirements upon the Commonwealth, political subdivisions or the private sector.

F. Sunset Date

The Board continuously monitors the cost effectiveness of its regulations. Therefore, no sunset date has been assigned.

G. Regulatory Review

Under section 5(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. § 745.5(a)), on July 30, 1999, the Board submitted a copy of the notice of proposed rulemaking, published at 29 Pa.B. 4355, to IRRC and to the Chairpersons of the Senate and House Committees for review and comment.

Under section 5(c) of the Regulatory Review Act, IRRC and the Committees were provided with copies of the comments received during the public comment period as well as other documentation. In preparing the final-form regulations, the Board has considered any comments received from IRRC, the Committees and the public.

Under section 5.1(d) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. § 745.5a(d)), on September 4, 2001, the final-form regulations were deemed approved by the House and Senate Committees. Under section 5.1(e) of the Regulatory Review Act, IRRC met on September 6, 2001, and approved the final-form amendments.

DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION AND NATURAL RESOURCES

Federal Land and Water Conservation Fund Program

The Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (DCNR) has announced an open application period for funding of acquisition and development projects from the Federal Land and Water Conservation Fund (LWCF) program. Applications are now being accepted as part of DCNR's Community Conservation Partnerships Program grant cycle.

The Community Conservation Partnerships Program combines a variety of funding sources that were previously administered by the Bureau of Recreation and Conservation as separate grant programs, and the LWCF program moneys will be incorporated with these other grant sources to fund applications received during an open application period which began August 8, 2001, and closes October 31, 2001. DCNR anticipates receiving at least $3,000,000 this year from the Federal LWCF appropriation.

An announcement of the Community Conservation Partnerships Program open application period, information on preapplication workshops and an order form for the application manual and forms has been sent to Commonwealth municipalities, municipal agencies, appropriate/authorized organizations and prequalified land trust organizations. Information about the LWCF grants is contained in these documents and materials. APPLICATIONS

NATIONAL POLLUTION DISCHARGE ELIMINATION SYSTEM (NPDES) PERMITS

NPDES APPLICATIONS

PART I PERMITS

Under the Federal Clean Water Act and The Clean Streams Law, the following parties have applied for an NPDES permit or to renew their current permit to discharge controlled wastewaters into the waters of this Commonwealth or to conduct other activities required by the NPDES permit. For renewal applications listed in Section I, the Department of Environmental Protection (Department) has made a tentative determination to reissue these permits for 5 years subject to effluent limitations and monitoring and reporting requirements in their current permits, with appropriate and necessary updated requirements to reflect new and changed regulations and other requirements. For all new permit applications, renewal application with major changes or applications for permits not waived by EPA, the Department, based upon preliminary reviews, also made a tentative determination of proposed effluent limitations and other terms and conditions for the permit applications listed in Section II. All Oil and Gas Related permit applications are listed under Section III. These determinations are published as proposed actions for comments prior to taking final actions.

Unless indicated otherwise, the EPA Region III Administrator has waived the right to review or object to this proposed permit action under the waiver provision 40 CFR 123.24(d).

Persons wishing to comment on the proposed permit are invited to submit a statement, to the office noted before the application, within 30 days from the date of this public notice. Comments received within this 30-day comment period will be considered in the formulation of the final determinations regarding the application. The comments should include the name, address and telephone number of the writer and a concise statement to inform the Department of the exact basis of a comment and the relevant facts upon which it is based. A public hearing may be held if the responsible office considers the public response significant. Following the comment period, the Department's Water Management Program Manager will make a final determination regarding these applications. Notice of this final determination will be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin at which time this determination may be appealed to the Environmental Hearing Board.

The renewal application, including proposed effluent limitations and special conditions, is available on file. For new permit applications, information submitted with the applications is available on file. The information may be inspected and arrangements made for copying at the office indicated before the application.

Persons with a disability, who require an auxiliary aid service, including TDD users or other accommodations to seek additional information, should contact the Department through the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay service at (800) 654-5984.

PABIG-6101, Beneficial Use of Biosolids, Pitt Mining, Inc., 423 Weiss Road, Shelocta, PA 15774.

This application is for issuance of a Beneficial Use of Biosolids Land Application Individual Generator Permit for the Pitt Mining West Lebanon Biosolids Facility in Young Township, Indiana County.

It is proposed to receive sewage sludge from various sewage treatment plants and treat the sewage sludge to produce a biosolids lime material for land application.

The biosolids will be used to adjust soil pH the same as agricultural limestone. The biosolids are proposed to meet section 271.911 requirements for exceptional quality except the end use will not be able to meet the agronomic rate requirements.

The treatment process is a pasteurization process to maintain the temperature of the sewage sludge at 158(F or 70(C for 30 minutes. Treatment will be in a retention chamber.

The Department intends to issue a permit to the Pitt Mining West Lebanon Biosolids Facility. The following are the quality requirements and monitoring frequency the biosolids prepared under the permit must meet to be land applied. In addition is how application rates will be determined.

There are other special conditions that are in the draft permit.

LAND RECYCLING AND ENVIRONMENTAL REMEDIATION

UNDER ACT 2, 1995

PREAMBLE 1

Acknowledgment of Notices of Intent to Remediate Submitted under the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (35 P. S. §§ 6026.101—6026.908).

Sections 302—305 of the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (Act) require the Department of Environmental Protection (Department) to publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin an acknowledgment noting receipt of any Notices of Intent to Remediate. An acknowledgment of the receipt of a Notice of Intent to Remediate is used to identify a site where a person proposes to or has been required to, respond to a release of a regulated substance at a site. Persons intending to use the background standard, Statewide health standard, the site-specific standard or who intend to remediate a site as a special industrial area, must file a Notice of Intent to Remediate with the Department. A Notice of Intent to Remediate filed with the Department provides a brief description of the location of the site, a list of known or suspected contaminants at the site, the proposed remediation measures for the site and a description of the intended future use of the site. A person who demonstrates attainment of one or a combination of the cleanup standards or who receives approval of a special industrial area remediation identified under the Act, will be relieved of further liability for the remediation of the site for any contamination identified in reports submitted to and approved by the Department. Furthermore, the person shall not be subject to citizen suits or other contribution actions brought by responsible persons not participating in the remediation.

Under sections 304(n)(1)(ii) and 305(c)(2) of the Act, there is a 30-day public and municipal comment period for sites proposed for remediation using a site-specific standard, in whole or in part and for sites remediated as a special industrial area. This period begins when a summary of the Notice of Intent to Remediate is published in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the site. For the sites identified, proposed for remediation to a site-specific standard or as a special industrial area, the municipality, within which the site is located, may request to be involved in the development of the remediation and reuse plans for the site if the request is made within 30 days of the date specified. During this comment period the municipality may request that the person identified, as the remediator of the site, develop and implement a public involvement plan. Requests to be involved and comments, should be directed to the remediator of the site.

For further information concerning the content of a Notice of Intent to Remediate, contact the Environmental Cleanup Program Manager in the Department Regional Office under which the notice appears. If information concerning this acknowledgment is required in an alternative form, contact the Community Relations Coordinator at the appropriate Regional Office listed. TDD users may telephone the Department through the AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

AIR QUALITY

NOTICE OF PLAN APPROVAL AND OPERATING PERMIT APPLICATIONS

NEW SOURCES AND MODIFICATIONS

The Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) has developed an "integrated" plan approval, State Operating Permit and Title V Operating Permit program. This integrated approach is designed to make the permitting process more efficient for DEP, the regulated community and the public. This approach allows the owner or operator of a facility to complete and submit all the permitting documents relevant to its application one time, affords an opportunity for public input and provides for sequential issuance of the necessary permits.

DEP has received applications for plan approvals and/or operating permits from the following facilities.

Copies of these applications, subsequently prepared draft permits, review summaries and other support materials are available for review in the Regional Office identified in this notice. Persons interested in reviewing the application files should contact the appropriate Regional Office to schedule an appointment.

Persons wishing to receive a copy of the proposed Plan Approval or Operating Permit must indicate their interest to the DEP Regional Office within 30 days of the date of this notice and must file protests or comments on a Proposed Plan Approval or Operating Permit within 30 days of the DEP providing a copy of the proposed document to that person or within 30 days of its publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin, whichever comes first. Interested persons may also request that a hearing be held concerning the proposed plan approval and operating permit. Comments or protests filed with DEP Regional Offices must include a concise statement of the objections to the issuance of the plan approval or operating permit and relevant facts, which serve as the basis for the objections. If DEP schedules a hearing, a notice will be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin at least 30 days prior the date of the hearing.

Persons with a disability who wish to comment and require an auxiliary aid, service or other accommodation to participate should contact the Regional Office identified. TDD users may contact the Department through the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

Final plan approvals and operating permits will contain terms and conditions to ensure that the source is constructed and operating in compliance with applicable requirements in 25 Pa. Code Chapters 121—143, the Federal Clean Air Act and regulations adopted under the Act.

18-00006B: Dominion Transmission Corp. (CNG Tower, 625 Liberty Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15222-3199) for installation of air cleaning devices, "screw-in prechambers," on six natural gas-fired reciprocating internal combustion compressor engines (Engines 4, 5, 6, 9, 10 and 11) at the Leidy Compressor Station in Leidy Township, Clinton County. The Department's review of the information contained in the application indicates that the proposed installation will meet all applicable air quality requirements. Based on this finding, the Department of Environmental Protection intends to approve the application and issue a plan approval to install the proposed air cleaning devices on the respective engines.

The Leidy Compressor Station is a major facility, which has been issued a Title V Operating Permit (18-00006). The proposed air cleaning devices will replace existing air cleaning devices and are intended to better assure compliance with the nitrogen oxides emission limitations previously established for the respective engines under the reasonably available control technology requirements of 25 Pa. Code §§ 129.91—129.95. These installations will not result in a change in the amount of nitrogen oxides or other air contaminant allowed to be emitted from the engines but may result in a reduction in the emission rate of one or more air contaminants from the levels now actually occurring.

The following is a summary of the conditions the Department proposes to place in the plan approval to ensure compliance with all applicable air quality regulatory requirements:

1. Following the installation of the screw-in prechamber (SIP) system on each of engines 4, 5 and 6, the nitrogen oxides (NOx, expressed as NO₂) emissions from the respective engine shall not exceed 6.61 pounds per hour at full load/full speed and 13.22 pounds per hour at any time. Additionally, the emission of volatile organic compounds from each of the respective engines shall not exceed 3.63 pounds per hour.

2. Following the installation of the SIP system on each of engines 9, 10 and 11, the nitrogen oxides (NOx, expressed as NO₂) emissions from the respective engine shall not exceed 13.22 pounds per hour at full load/full speed and 26.43 pounds per hour at any time. Additionally, the emission of volatile organic compounds from each of the respective engines shall not exceed 7.26 pounds per hour.

3. Within 120 days of the completion of installation of the SIP system on each of the engines, stack testing shall be performed upon that engine for nitrogen oxides (NOx, expressed as NO₂), volatile organic compounds and carbon monoxide using reference method test procedures acceptable to the Department. All testing is to be performed while the engine is operating at full load and full speed.

4. Semi-annual nitrogen oxides portable analyzer testing shall be performed on each of the respective engines.

5. Records shall be maintained of the number of hours per month that each engine is operated and the amount of fuel used per month in each of the engines.

6. The six engines shall only be fired on pipeline quality natural gas.

7. The six engines are not required to comply with the nitrogen oxides and volatile organic compound emission limits specified in this plan approval during engine startup and shutdown provided that the duration of startup and shutdown does not exceed one hour per occurrence.

18-00011B: Croda, Inc. (P. O. Box 178, Mill Hall, PA 17751-0178) for construction of a 14,645,000 BTU per hour natural gas/No. 2 fuel oil-fired boiler equipped with a low nitrogen oxides emitting burner and a flue gas recirculation system in Bald Eagle Township, Clinton County. This boiler may potentially result in the emission of 1.28 tons per 12 consecutive month period of particulate matter, all of which may also be particulate matter less than 10 microns (PM₁₀), 5.77 tons per 12 consecutive month period of nitrogen oxides, 1.28 tons per 12 consecutive month period of carbon monoxide, 3.25 tons per 12 consecutive month period of sulfur oxides, 0.34 tons per 12 consecutive month period of volatile organic compounds and 0.118 tons per 12 consecutive month period of hazardous air pollutants. A preliminary review of the information submitted by Croda, Inc. indicates that the boiler will meet all applicable air quality requirements including the best available technology provisions of 25 Pa. Code §§ 127.1 and 127.12. Based on this finding, the Air Quality Program intends to approve the application and issue a plan approval to construct the boiler.

Croda, Inc. is a major facility for which a Title V Operating Permit (#18-00011) has been issued.

In order to ensure compliance with all applicable air quality standards, the Department proposes to place the following conditions in the respective plan approval:

1. This plan approval is issued for the construction of a 14,645,000 BTU per hour Cleaver Brooks model CB400-350 natural gas/No. 2 fuel oil-fired boiler (Boiler #1) equipped with a low nitrogen oxides emitting burner and a flue gas recirculation system, as described in the application and supplemental materials submitted for this plan approval.

2. This boiler shall be fired only on virgin No. 2 fuel oil with a sulfur content of not greater than 0.05% by weight on natural gas.

3. The boiler shall never emit air contaminants in excess of the following limitations:

Pollutant	lbs/million BTU (natural gas)	lbs/million BTU (No. 2 fuel oil)
Nitrogen oxides (NOx, expressed as NO ₂)	0.03	0.09
Carbon monoxide	0.01	0.02
Sulfur dioxide	0.00058	0.05
Volatile organic compounds	0.0054	0.0024
Particulate matter/PM10	0.01	0.02
Hazardous air pollutants	0.0018	0.000046

4. In any 12 consecutive month period, the emission rate from the boiler shall never exceed the following:

Pollutant	Tons

Carbon monoxide	1.28
Sulfur dioxide	3.25
Volatile organic compounds	0.34
Particulate matter/PM10	1.28
Hazardous air pollutants	0.118

5. The company shall maintain comprehensive, accurate records of the following:

- Volumes of natural gas and No. 2 fuel oil burned in the boiler on a monthly basis,
- The sulfur content of each load of No. 2 fuel oil delivered to the facility.

The company shall retain these records on-site for at least 5 years and shall make these records available to the Department upon request.

59-304-008F: ACP Manufacturing Co., LLC (P. O. Box 68, Blossburg, PA 16912-0068) for construction of a phenolic urethane cold box (PUCB) core-making machine, the air contaminant emissions from which shall be controlled by an existing drop-out box and countercurrent, vertical, packed bed scrubber which is currently used to control the air contaminant emissions from an existing PUCB core-making machine, at their foundry located in Lawrence Township, Tioga County.

ACP Manufacturing Co., LLC is a minor facility for which a facility wide synthetic minor operating permit has not yet been issued. The subject foundry is, however, currently authorized to operate under Operating Permit 59-304-008B.

The information provided by the applicant, as well as the Department's own analysis, indicates that the core-making machine will have the potential to emit 6.30 tons of volatile organic compounds per year. Additionally, although the core-making machine will have the potential to emit particulate matter and hazardous air pollutants, the corresponding emission of these air contaminants is insignificant.

A preliminary review of the information submitted by the applicant indicates that the proposed core-making machine will meet all applicable air quality requirements including the "best available technology" requirements of 25 Pa. Code §§ 127.1 and 127.12. Based on this finding, the Department proposes to approve the application and issue a plan approval.

In order to ensure compliance with all applicable standards, the Department proposes to place the following requirements in the respective plan approval.

- The two PUCB core-making machines shall not utilize a combined total of more than 156,000 pounds of binders per year.

- The volatile organic compound emissions from each PUCB core-making machine shall not exceed 5.13 pounds per hour. Furthermore, the total combined volatile organic compound emissions from the two PUCB core-making machines shall never exceed 6.30 tons per year.
- The total combined hazardous air pollutant emissions from the two PUCB core-making machines shall never equal or exceed 1 ton per year.
- The scrubber shall be equipped with instrumentation to continuously monitor differential pressure across the scrubber, pH of the scrubbing solution and the recirculation flow rate.
- The pH of the scrubbing solution shall never exceed 4.5.
- The recirculation flow rate of the scrubbing solution shall be equal to or greater than 38 gallons per minute any time the scrubber is operating.

Code §§ 77.522, 87.102, 88.92, 88.187, 88.242, 89.52 and 90.102) for iron, manganese, suspended solids, settleable solids, alkalinity and pH. In addition to the previous, more restrictive effluent limitations, restrictions on discharge volume or restrictions on the extent of mining which may occur will be incorporated into a mining activity permit, when necessary, for compliance with water quality standards (in accordance with 25 Pa. Code Chapters 93 and 95). Persons or agencies which have requested review of the NPDES permit requirements for a particular mining activity within the previously-mentioned public comment period will be provided with a 30-day period to review and submit comments on those requirements.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF PROPOSED CONSENT ORDER AND AGREEMENT

Sandy Lake Asbestos Site
Stoneboro Borough, Mercer County

Under section 1113 of the Hazardous Sites Cleanup Act (35 P. S. §§ 6020.101—6020.1305) (HSCA), notice is hereby provided that the Department of Environmental Protection (Department) has agreed to a de minimis settlement with the Lakeside Park Company, Robert R. Gillette, Bessie G. Gillette, Julie M. Widel, the Estate of Homer B. Widel (Julie M. Widel, Executrix) (collectively referred to as Lakeside) and the Sandy Creek Conservancy (Conservancy), to resolve Lakeside's liability for the Sandy Lake Asbestos Site (Site). The Site covers approximately 2 acres and is located on a 31.75-acre parcel owned by Lakeside and located between the former Penn Central Railroad Line and Route 845 in Stoneboro Borough, Mercer County, PA.

In the past, asbestos wastes were disposed at the Site and this waste contaminated the environment at the Site. Asbestos is a "hazardous substance" as defined in section 103 of HSCA (35 P. S. § 6020.103). The Department has the Site and has removed the asbestos wastes for proper disposal off-Site. The Department has incurred approximately 1.1 million dollars in response Costs for the Site. As owners of the Site during the time of the release and threatened release of hazardous substances at the Site, the members of Lakeside are each a "responsible person" as defined in section 103 of HSCA. Under the terms of the settlement, through a conservation easement, Lakeside will sell (for $1) the development rights of the 31.75-acre parcel that contains the Site to the Conservancy for the public benefit in perpetuity.

The specific terms of this settlement are set forth in the Consent Order and Agreement (Agreement) with Lakeside and the Conservancy. The Department will receive and consider comments relating to the Agreement for 60 days from the date of this public notice. The Department has the right to withdraw its consent to the Agreement if the comments concerning the Agreement disclose facts or considerations that indicate that the Agreement is inappropriate, improper or not in the public interest.

After the public comment period, the Department's settlement with Lakeside and the Conservancy shall be effective upon the date that the Department notifies Lakeside and the Conservancy, in writing, that this Agreement is final and effective in its present form and that the Department has filed a response to significant written comments to the Agreement or that no comments were received.

The Agreement is available for inspection and copying at the Department's office at 230 Chestnut Street, Meadville, PA. Comments may be submitted, in writing, to James W. Weaver, Project Manager, Department of Environmental Protection, Hazardous Sites Cleanup, 230 Chestnut Street, Meadville, PA 16335. Further information may be obtained by contacting James W. Weaver at (814) 332-6648. TDD users may contact the Department through the Pennsylvania Relay Service at (800) 645-5984.

Availability of Technical Guidance

Technical guidance documents are on DEP's website (www.dep.state.pa.us) at the Public Participation Center page. The "July 2001 Inventory" heading is the Governor's list of nonregulatory guidance documents. The "Final Documents" heading is the link to a menu of the various DEP bureaus and from there to each bureau's final technical guidance documents. The "Draft Technical Guidance" heading is the link to DEP's draft technical guidance documents.

DEP will continue to revise its nonregulatory documents, as necessary, throughout 2001.

Ordering Paper Copies of DEP Technical Guidance

DEP encourages the use of the Internet to view guidance documents. When this option is not available, persons can order a bound paper copy of the latest inventory or an unbound paper copy of any of the final documents listed on the inventory by calling DEP at (717) 783-8727.

In addition, bound copies of some of DEP's documents are available as DEP publications. Check with the appropriate bureau for more information about the availability of a particular document as a publication.

Changes to Technical Guidance Documents

Following is the current list of recent changes. Persons who have any questions or comments about a particular document should call the contact person whose name and phone number is listed with each document. Persons who have questions or comments in general should call Joe Sieber at (717) 783-8727.

Changes to Existing Technical Guidance Identification Numbers—Division of Storage Tanks

In response to Departmental reorganization approved in March 2001, the Division of Storage Tanks was transferred from the Bureau of Watershed Conservation to the Bureau of Land Recycling and Waste Management (BLRWM). As a result of this reorganization, it is necessary to transfer those technical guidance documents under the Division of Storage Tanks to the BLRWM's technical guidance document inventory. To accomplish this task, the first three digits of each document's identification number will simply be changed from "393" to "257." The remaining 7 digits of the document's identification number do not have to be changed and will remain the same. These documents are on DEP's website (www.dep.state.pa.us) at the Public Participation Center page, see Final Technical Guidance, BLRWM.

Draft Technical Guidance

DEP ID: 254-5400-001 Title: Best Management Practices for Storage, Processing or Disposal of Land-Clearing, Grubbing and Excavation Wastes Description: The Commonwealth's Municipal Waste Regulations, amended and published as final on December 23, 2000, retained the permit exemption for activities relating to the use of waste from land clearing, grubbing and excavation, including trees, stumps and vegetative materials. However, due to problems associated with mismanagement of these materials, the final regulations include mandatory implementation of best management practices (BMPs).

This manual discusses the BMPs that should be followed for the storage, processing and disposal of land clearing, grubbing and excavation wastes, including the environmental concerns that precipitated the need for these practices. The performance-based BMPs vary depending on the location, size and ultimate disposition of the clearing, grubbing and excavation wastes. Anticipated Effective Date: February, 2002 This document is now available for a 60-day public comment period. Comment Period Ends: November 30, 2001 Contact: Habib Sharifi at (717) 787-7564 or e-mail: HSharifiho@state.pa.us.

Revenue-Neutral Reconciliation Rate Notice for the Tax Year Beginning January 1, 2002

Title 66 Pa.C.S. § 2810(a) provides "It is the intention of the General Assembly that the restructuring of the electric industry be accomplished in a manner that allows Pennsylvania to enjoy the benefits of competition, promotes the competitiveness of Pennsylvania's electric utilities and maintains revenue neutrality to the Commonwealth. This section is not intended to cause a shift in proportional tax obligations among customer classes or individual electric distribution companies. It is the intention of the General Assembly to establish this revenue replacement at a level necessary to recoup losses that may result from the restructuring of the electric industry and the transition thereto."

Title 66 Pa.C.S. § 2810(c) requires the Secretary of Revenue to publish the rate of the revenue-neutral reconciliation (RNR) tax in the form of a notice in the Pennsylvania Bulletin by December 1, 1998, and each October 1 thereafter until and including October 1, 2002. The tax rate established in 66 Pa.C.S. §§ 2810(c) shall be imposed upon gross receipts as provided in 66 Pa.C.S. § 2810(b) for the period beginning the next January 1. In the event the RNR tax rate is negative, a credit is provided under 66 Pa.C.S. § 2810(c)(5). This credit is available only to a taxpayer upon which tax is imposed under 66 Pa.C.S. § 2810(b).

The result of the revenue-neutral reconciliation calculation provided in 66 Pa.C.S. § 2810 is +0.016 for tax periods beginning on or after January 1, 2002. Therefore, the combined utility gross receipts tax rate for electric distribution companies and electric generation suppliers is effectively 0.060 for tax periods beginning on or after January 1, 2002, rather than 0.044.

The utility gross receipts tax rate, however, remains 0.050 for all gross receipts taxable under 72 P. S. § 8101(a).

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Bureau of Driver Licensing; Increase of Cost of the Photograph for Photo Driver's License or Photo Identification Card

The Department of Transportation, Bureau of Driver Licensing, pursuant to the authority contained in 67 Pa. Code 73.5(d) hereby gives notice that, effective November 5, 2001, the cost of the photograph associated with the issuance of a photo driver's license or photo identification card will be $5.00.

Although the cost of producing the Pennsylvania driver's license and identification card has increased during the past six (6) years, the photo fee has remained constant (i.e., $4.00). Additionally, the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation recently has deployed a new generation of Photo License Systems across the Commonwealth. This new generation of equipment features the first significant technological and product improvements in more than seven (7) years. Several features have been added to increase durability while taking added steps toward preventing tampering and fraud. These improvements and added steps have increased production costs.

Since the overall cost of producing the drivers' licenses and identification cards has increased, there will be a $1.00 increase in the photo fee, effective November 5, 2001.

At its September 18, 2001, meeting, the Environmental Quality Board (EQB) accepted a rulemaking petition for study under 25 Pa. Code Chapter 23 (relating to Environmental Quality Board policy for processing petitions—statement of policy).

The petition requests redesignation of Furnace Run in Lancaster and Lebanon Counties from the current existing use designation of Cold Water Fishes (CWF) to High Quality—Cold Water Fishes (HQ-CWF) or Exceptional Value (EV) status. INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

Arson and Insurance Fraud Reporting; Notice 2001-08

This notice is issued to advise and remind insurers of their obligations under Pennsylvania law in the reporting of suspected arson and insurance fraud.

Arson and insurance fraud are recognized in Pennsylvania as serious crimes. Pennsylvania law explicitly requires insurer reporting of suspected arson (40 P. S. § 1610.3(b)(1)) and suspected insurance fraud (75 Pa.C.S. § 1817 and 18 Pa.C.S. § 4117) to a law enforcement agency for consideration of criminal investigation and prosecution. Pennsylvania law provides immunity to encourage and protect persons in that reporting. Accordingly, the Insurance Department (Department) releases the following guidance to insurers seeking to meet their statutory obligation for reporting of suspected arson and insurance fraud:

1. Each insurer has the burden of determining through their investigation when the probable cause of a fire loss is arson or when a reasonable basis exists to believe that insurance fraud has occurred, is occurring or is to occur.
2. Upon reaching such a determination, insurers will within 30 days make a written report of the suspected arson or insurance fraud to a Federal, State or local criminal law enforcement agency.
3. An insurer's entry of the suspected arson or suspected insurance fraud matter to a claims database or other information system serving the insurance industry will not in and of itself be viewed by the department as satisfying that insurer's statutory obligation to report suspected arson or insurance fraud to a criminal law enforcement agency.
4. Examination of insurer fraud control programs will include a review of insurer determination of suspected arson and insurance fraud, and a confirmation of the insurer's written reporting to a criminal law enforcement agency.

Questions regarding this notice may be addressed to the Chief, Anti-fraud Compliance Division, Bureau of Enforcement, Insurance Department, 12th Floor, Strawberry Square, Harrisburg PA 17120 by letter or via e-mail at ra-in-fraud@state.pa.us.

STATE EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT BOARD

Late Retirement Actuarial Increase

Under section 5902(j) of the State Employees' Retirement Code (71 Pa.C.S. § 5902(j)), the State Employees' Retirement Board (Board) is to adopt by resolution the actuarial tables and factors used in the calculation of annuities and benefits, and the secretary of the Board is to have adopted tables published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

On September 19, 2001, the Board by resolution determined that the actuarial increase factor defined in 71 Pa.C.S. § 5102, definition of "Actuarial Increase Factor," shall be calculated by using the 1983 Group Annuity Mortality Unisex tables for all members of the State Employees' Retirement System to whom the factor is applicable. Table I contains the actuarial increase factors for ages 70 to 95.

The tables and factors adopted by the Board on September 19, 2001, shall be effective upon publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Underlying assumptions are as follows:

—Interest Rate: 4% compounded annually

—1983 Group Annuity Mortality Unisex Table

Note: The factor for any age is applicable to the 1-year period beginning upon attainment of that age. The increase factor for a partial year shall be determined by: (1) subtracting 1 from the table factor; then (2) dividing the difference by 12; then (3) multiplying the result by the number of whole months of service since the prior birthday; then (4) adding 1 to the result; and (5) rounding the result to the third decimal place.

GET A STEP AHEAD IN COMPETING FOR A STATE CONTRACT!

The Treasury Department's Bureau of Contracts and Public Records can help you do business with state government agencies. Our efforts focus on guiding the business community through the maze of state government offices. The bureau is, by law, the central repository for all state contracts over $5,000. Bureau personnel can supply descriptions of contracts, names of previous bidders, pricing breakdowns and other information to help you submit a successful bid on a contract. We will direct you to the appropriate person and agency looking for your product or service to get you "A Step Ahead." Services are free except the cost of photocopying contracts or dubbing a computer diskette with a list of current contracts on the database. A free brochure, "Frequently Asked Questions About State Contracts," explains how to take advantage of the bureau's services.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Title 28—HEALTH AND SAFETY

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

[28 PA. CODE CH. 23]

School Immunization

The Department of Health (Department), with the approval of the State Advisory Health Board (Board), amends § 23.83 (relating to immunization requirements) to read as set forth in Annex A.

I. Purpose and Background

This rulemaking promulgates immunization requirements that children seeking to enter and attend school in this Commonwealth shall meet, and is based upon recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP), an advisory committee of the Federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). It also reverses the order of subsections in § 23.83, adds new requirements for chickenpox (varicella) immunity, and expands requirements for hepatitis B immunization.

This rulemaking is intended to control the spread of diseases in schools, which are known to be ideal settings for the transmission of communicable diseases. Requiring immunity before a child enters school in first grade or kindergarten, or before the child is permitted to attend a school in this Commonwealth, protects that child before the child enters an environment which readily lends itself to the transmission of disease. Further, ensuring that children are appropriately immunized carries with it advantages for the public as a whole, including other high-risk populations, as well as for the child. There is less chance of other persons contacting a highly infectious disease if children are vaccinated, and less chance of outbreaks of contagious diseases occurring.

The Department published proposed rulemaking at 30 Pa.B. 4591 (September 2, 2000), and provided a 30-day public comment period. The Department received several comments to the proposed rulemaking. The comments and the Department's responses to them appear in the summary of this final rulemaking.

II. Summary

The Department received approximately 50 comments on its proposed rulemaking. Most of these comments were from individuals, parents and other concerned citizens, who feel strongly that the varicella vaccine should not be required. Some of these commentators oppose vaccination in general. Several blamed vaccination, specifically the measles, mumps and rubella (MMR) vaccine, for causing conditions such as autism in their own children. Other commentators, however, wrote to support the varicella vaccine, and to relate personal tragedies resulting from the failure to have a child immunized for chicken pox. The Department respects the personal viewpoints of all these commentators. The Department acknowledges, as several of these commentators noted, that there is no absolutely safe vaccine. The Department also understands that several commentators believe that the decision whether to vaccinate their children should be made by them alone, and that immunizations should not be mandated. The Department, however, is charged with protecting the health and safety of the citizens of this Commonwealth, and with choosing the most efficient and effective way of doing so. See section 2102(a) of The Administrative Code of 1929 (71 P. S. § 532(a)). After reviewing all the comments and its proposed rulemaking, the Department stands firm on its belief that the benefit of requiring varicella immunity outweighs the risks. Therefore, the Department has made no change to the proposal. Specific comments follow.

General Comments on Vaccination.

Several commentators opposing vaccination in general stated that the Department's rulemaking would make it illegal for parents to delay or not to give a vaccination at all, and that the rulemaking would put parents in the position of being criminals if they conscientiously object to the vaccine.

The rulemaking allows for exemptions from the required vaccines for medical or religious reasons. If a parent or guardian is objecting to a vaccine for these reasons, or believes that their objection rises to the level of a religious belief, they may attempt to obtain an exemption. It is not the Department's intention to hold a parent criminally liable for failing to ensure that a child has the required immunizations. The child would, however, be excluded from school until the immunization requirements can be met.

One commentator commented that scientists were concerned about long-term effects of viral DNA from live virus vaccines being incorporated into human genes.

The Department is unaware of any scientific studies that state that DNA from a live virus will have a deleterious effect on human genes.

Another commentator raised a concern that healthy children are given so many vaccines that their immune systems are becoming severely compromised.

The Department disagrees with this comment. Children are exposed to many foreign antigens every day. Eating food introduces new bacteria into the body, and numerous bacteria live in the mouth and nose, exposing the immune system to still more antigens. An upper respiratory viral infection exposes a child to from 4 to 10 antigens, and a case of "strep throat" exposes a child to from 25 to 50 antigens. According to Adverse Events Associated with Childhood Vaccines, a 1994 report from the Institute of Medicine, "In the face of these normal events, it seems unlikely that the number of separate antigens contained in childhood vaccines . . . would represent an appreciable added burden on the immune system that would be immunosuppressive." Available scientific data show that simultaneous vaccination with multiple vaccines has no adverse effect on the normal childhood immune system.

A number of studies have been conducted to examine the effects of giving various combinations of vaccines simultaneously. In fact, neither ACIP nor the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) would recommend the simultaneous administration of any vaccines until these studies showed the combinations to be both safe and effective. These studies have shown that the recommended vaccines are as effective in combination as they are individually, and that these combinations carry no greater risk for adverse side effects. Consequently, both the ACIP and AAP recommend simultaneous administration of all routine childhood vaccines when appropriate.

One commentator asked that the Department stop mandating unnecessary immunizations.

The Department disagrees that the required immunizations listed in § 23.83 are unnecessary. Vaccines have prevented millions of deaths each year from preventable infectious diseases. School settings are an ideal place for unprotected children to contract communicable and potentially dangerous diseases. Requiring immunity for school attendance protects that child and others from unnecessary illnesses.

One commentator asked that the Department create a medical exemption in the event a physician determines the immunization of a child may be detrimental to the health of a household contact. The Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) also raised this issue.

The Department has taken the exemption language included in § 23.84 (relating to exemption from immunization) from the statute. The Public School Code of 1949 (code) (24 P. S. §§ 1-101—27-2702) provides for exceptions in two instances: (1) when the parent or guardian of the child objects to the immunization in writing on religious grounds, under section 1303a(d) of the code (24 P. S. § 13-1303a(d)); and (2) when a child is deemed to have a medical contraindication which may contraindicate immunization and a physician certifies to that fact. Id. at subsection (c). It is the Department's opinion that if a physician believes the vaccination to be medically contraindicated for an individual in the child's household, that physician may certify an exemption under section 1303a(c) of the code. The certification should be unnecessary, however, since none of the vaccinations required by § 23.83 have contraindications for an immunocompromised person residing in the household of a vaccinated child.

Two commentators raised concerns that neither parents nor medical practitioners are adequately advised of the potential for adverse reaction to the currently mandatory vaccines. The commentators stated that in their experience, no doctor has ever discussed the risks associated with the vaccinations with the parent to help the parent determine the risks to the child of undergoing the vaccination.

The Department agrees that practitioners should, as a matter of prudent practice, discuss with parents and guardians the risks associated with the provision of a vaccine. The Department does not have the authority to set standards for health care practitioners in this Commonwealth. The Department's authority is to create a list of diseases for which a child must be immunized before attending school. See section 1303a(a) of the code. The assumption is that the practitioner will carry out his legal and ethical responsibilities to his patient.

The Department does note, however, that the National Vaccine Program (42 U.S.C.A. §§ 300aa-1—300aa-34) requires all health care providers in the United States who administer vaccines covered in the Injury Compensation Table, prior to the administration of each dose of the vaccine, to provide copies of the relevant Vaccine Information Statements (VIS). See 42 U.S.C.A. § 300aa-26(d). The vaccines included in § 23.83 are all included on the Injury Compensation Table. The required materials are produced by the CDC, the Committee on Childhood Vaccines, the Food and Drug Administration, and various health care provider and parent groups. Id. at subsection (b). The information to be included in the materials is set by statute, and includes the benefits and risks associated with the vaccine. Id. at subsection (c). The statute also requires that the materials be supplemented with visual presentations or oral explanations, as appropriate. Id. at subsection (d). If a parent or guardian has a question concerning a vaccination, the Department's Division of Immunization is available to provide information. That Division may be contacted at (717) 787-5681.

IRRC also questioned whether it was the Department's intention to follow ACIP guidelines in establishing requirements for school immunization, and, if so, recommended that the Department consider incorporating ACIP guidelines by reference into the regulation. IRRC noted that ACIP is recognized as the authority in this area by Pennsylvania law, citing section 2 of the Hepatitis B Prevention Act (35 P. S. § 630.2) which requires the Department to establish a program for the prevention of hepatitis B through immunization of children consistent with the recommendations of ACIP. Another commentator also suggested that allowing for automatic approval of ACIP updates would eliminate lag time between the recommendation and the regulation.

With respect to IRRC's comment regarding ACIP as the authority recognized by the General Assembly, the General Assembly has also recognized the Department and the Board as authoritative on the issue of immunizations. In the Disease Prevention and Control Law of 1955 (see section 16(a)(6) (35 P. S. § 521.16(a)(6)), The Administrative Code of 1929 (see section 2111(c.1) (71 P. S. § 541(c.1)) and the code (see section 1303a (24 P. S. § 13-1303a(a)), the General Assembly has authorized the Department, with the Board, without reference to ACIP, to create a list of diseases against which children must be immunized.

The Department does consider ACIP guidelines and recommendations in determining what immunizations to require for attendance at school. The Department is not, however, required by anybody to accept all ACIP recommendations, neither for the immunizations the Department will require, nor for the standards applicable to those immunizations. It is up to the Department, with the approval of the Board, to determine when and how to add required immunizations to the list. In some cases, ACIP's recommendations may not be readily applicable to school age children. Dosages may differ depending on the age the child begins the vaccine regimen. The Department, with the Board's approval, includes in its regulations the minimum dosages necessary for protection. Adopting ACIP recommendations would, among other things, be confusing for schools and school nurses. Further, ACIP recommendations could change in the middle of a school year. This, too, would be difficult for schools to track. The Department does not wish to be tied to ACIP's recommendations, since it requires the flexibility to apply its and the Board's expertise to the question of what immunizations to require.

Section 23.83(a)(1) and (8) and (c)

The Department received comments both in support of, and against, its proposed rulemaking requiring varicella immunity for school entry (see subsection (a)(1) and (8)), and hepatitis B and varicella immunity for entry into the seventh grade (see subsection (c)(1) and (2)). Opposition came from individual commentators. Support came from individuals, providers' professional associations and public interest groups.

One commentator expressed his support, and requested that the Department consider and encourage the incorporation of evolving technologies into the immunization information gathering process.

The Department agrees that utilizing advancing technology would make tracking immunization levels State-wide easier to accomplish. The Department is currently incorporating a Statewide immunization information system into public clinic sites. This system will enable certain approved health care providers to easily access a child's immunization history, hopefully preventing unnecessary vaccinations, and facilitating updating a child's immunizations. The Department is intending to extend this system Statewide in the private sector following implementation at all public sites.

IRRC questioned why the Department had included chickenpox and hepatitis B in subsection (a), which set out requirements for first-time entry into school at kindergarten and the first grade, but had not included them in subsection (b), which included requirements for attendance at school. IRRC asked what the impact would be if a child moved to this Commonwealth from another state and failed to have these two immunizations.

The Department has made the determination that hepatitis B and varicella immunization and immunity requirements should be phased into the school system. The Department has done so by requiring hepatitis B and varicella immunization or immunity at first-time entry into school at kindergarten and first grade, and then to include the requirement for entry into the seventh grade, or at the age of 12. See subsection (c). This is consonant with ACIP recommendations, and allows the school some flexibility in working out administrative arrangements to accomplish this requirement, as well as affords parents time to obtain the required vaccinations or provide the necessary history of immunity for an older child. Parents should be encouraged to have all children protected from these two diseases.

Because the Department is now requiring either immunization or immunity at school entry in the first grade or kindergarten, the number of children without immunity to these diseases should decrease over succeeding years. In the seventh year after the regulation's implementation, the number of children without these immunities should be close to zero. The entry of a child without immunity to hepatitis B and varicella into school after the first grade or kindergarten and prior to the seventh grade, will pose little problem since the chances of the child contracting the disease from a increasingly immunized student body will be small, and the child's ability to cause an outbreak if the child does succeed in contacting the disease will also be small.

Several individual commentators commented that varicella was a benign childhood disease that would give a child lifelong immunity. These commentators felt that it was unnecessary to force a vaccine on a healthy child for whom the disease would most likely be no more than an inconvenience, and that an adult could choose to be vaccinated if the adult chose. These commentators stated that varicella was not a public health threat. One commentator stated that the disease should not be labeled as severe since CDC statistics show that most cases are free from complication. In response to these comments, and others raising opposition to the vaccine, IRRC has asked that the Department provide additional explanation or documentation of the need to require varicella immunity as a prerequisite for school entry.

The Department is the State agency with the responsibility for preserving and protecting the health of the citizens of this Commonwealth. See section 2101(a) of The Administrative Code 1929. The General Assembly has recognized that the Department, in conjunction with the Board, has the expertise to determine what vaccinations and immunizations should be required to protect the public health. See section 1303a(a) of the Code; and section 2111(c.1) of The Administrative Code of 1929 (71 P. S. § 541(c.1)). In the opinion of the Department and the Board, varicella is a public health threat. The Department and the Board base their decision on the recommendations of ACIP. These recommendations are included in the following publications: CDC. Prevention of varicella. Recommendations of the Academy Committee on Immunization Practices. MMWR 1996;45(RR-11):1-36; CDC. Prevention of varicella. Recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP). MMWR 1996;45(RR-11):1-36; CDC. Prevention of varicella. Updated recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP). MMWR 1999;48(RR-6):1-5; CDC. Hepatitis B virus: a comprehensive strategy for eliminating transmission in the United States through universal childhood vaccination. Recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP). MMWR 1991;40(RR-13):1-25; CDC. Immunization of adolescents. Recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices, the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Academy of Family Physicians, and the American Medical Association. MMWR 1996;45(RR-13):1-16; CDC. Update: recommendations to prevent hepatitis B virus transmission—United States. MMWR 1995;44:574-5.

Prior to the availability of varicella vaccine, there were approximately 4 million cases of varicella a year in the United States. It is correct that most cases are free from complications. However, although varicella is frequently perceived as a disease that does not cause serious illness, especially among healthy children, 11,000 hospitalizations and 100 deaths from complications relating to varicella occurred every year in the United States before the varicella vaccine became available. The majority of deaths and complications occurred in previously healthy individuals.

Experience with vaccination programs, both in the United States and elsewhere, has consistently demonstrated that childhood vaccination programs are much more successful than those aimed at adolescents and adults. Finally, it is not possible to predict which child or adult will suffer serious complications from varicella. Now that a reasonably safe and effective vaccine is available, the benefits of that vaccination outweigh the risks.

The decision to vaccinate an individual child benefits both the individual and the wider community. Having school requirements for vaccination achieves high levels of protection in schools, preschools and child care centers, resulting in less illness and school time missed by healthy children (some of whom may have serious complications) and less danger of severe infection among children who cannot be vaccinated. Persons who are not able to receive chickenpox vaccine include children with leukemia and other cancers, persons taking high doses of steroid medications for a variety of medical conditions (including asthma), pregnant women and infants less than 1 year of age. These people have a higher risk of developing severe chickenpox with complications. The best way to protect them is to achieve high levels of vaccination among persons in the community so that they are less likely to come in contact with a person with chickenpox.

Two commentators mentioned that an AMA publication recommended exposing children to varicella, and asked what had changed over the last 6 years to invalidate that recommendation. Another commentator also mentioned an article in the Journal of the American Medical Association claiming it stated primary care physicians were not recommending the vaccine.

The varicella vaccine was licensed in 1995 in the United States. Prior to the availability of that vaccine, it would have been safer for a child to contract chickenpox than for an adult to run the risk of contracting the disease. Several physicians' organizations have indicated their support for the vaccination, both Nationally, and within this Commonwealth. The American Academy of Pediatrics has recommended the vaccine, along with ACIP, and the Pennsylvania Medical Society and the Pennsylvania Academy of Family Physicians have written the Department in support of the Department's proposed varicella immunity requirement.

Several commentators commented that there is insufficient data to show that the administration of the varicella vaccine with other vaccines is safe. Several commentators stated there was not sufficient data to show that administering the vaccine individually is safe. One commentator also raised the question of "break through" cases of varicella (cases of disease that occur in vaccinated persons are almost always less severe) and asked whether deaths from the vaccine were comparable to deaths from the disease Nationwide.

The Department disagrees that the varicella vaccine is not sufficiently safe to be required. The CDC has recommended the use of the vaccine because, based on the testing done, the benefits of the vaccine outweigh the risks of its use. The Department has discussed the dangers of the disease previously mentioned. Further, there are more deaths Nationwide from the disease than can be attributed to the varicella vaccine.

Available scientific data show that simultaneous vaccination with multiple vaccines has no adverse effect on the normal childhood immune system. The study cited by two commentators in their comments was intended to detect potential hazards, including rare events associated with the varicella vaccine, and to assess case reports for clinical and epidemiological implications. Wise, Postlicensure Safety Surveillance for Varicella Vaccine, 284 JAMA 1271, 1271 (Sept. 13, 2000). In giving case backgrounds of case reports, the article made mention of other vaccinations provided the individual, but the study was not intended to review the effect of the combination of vaccinations, and reaches no conclusion on that matter. In conclusion, the article states the following:

Chickenpox can be serious and even deadly, but varicella vaccine can now prevent serious varicella infections with a high degree of reliability. (Footnotes omitted). Safety surveillance through [the Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System] confirms that most of the vaccine's adverse effects are minor. Although reports to VAERS provide either tentative or clear evidence for a variety of serious vaccine risks, all appear to be rare, and the majority, while plausible, lack confirmation of causation by [the vaccine given].

Id. at p. 1278.

A number of studies have been conducted to examine the effects of giving various combinations of vaccines simultaneously. These studies have shown that the recommended vaccines are as effective in combination as they are individually, and that such combinations carry no greater risk for adverse side effects. Consequently, both the ACIP and AAP recommend simultaneous administration of all routine childhood vaccines when appropriate.

Another commentator specifically raised the concern that vaccines include mercury.

The varicella vaccine does not contain mercury. Mercury has been eliminated from most of the routine childhood vaccines, and the CDC projects that totally mercury-free vaccines will be available within the next year.

One commentator commented that the manufacturer of the varicella vaccine has admitted that immunization is only temporary, and several other commentators questioned the long term effectiveness of the varicella vaccine. One commentator suggested that the vaccine could require continuous "booster shots" to create lifetime immunity. The commentator suggested that since the vaccine could fail in adults and the disease is more serious in adults, the vaccine should not be required, but children should be allowed to get the disease naturally.

The length of protection or immunity from any new vaccine is never known when it is first introduced. Available data from following up children vaccinated in prelicensure clinical trials indicate that protection from varicella vaccine lasts for at least 25 years (Japanese data) and 14 years (United States data). The vaccine has been licensed in the United States since 1995, and clinical trials were occurring prior to that time. The vaccine has been in use in Japan for a longer period of time. Experience with other live viral vaccines (such as, measles, rubella) has shown that, postvaccination, immunity remains high throughout life. For these vaccines, second doses are needed to cover the small percentage of people who fail to seroconvert (that is, whose systems fail to create antibodies as protection against the disease) after the first dose. This is known as primary vaccine failure. Follow-up studies continue to assess levels of immunity in persons who have been vaccinated as disease incidence declines. The CDC's advisory committee, ACIP, taking into account all the available information relating to the varicella vaccine, has made the determination that the vaccine is sufficiently effective to recommend its use.

Further, the Department believes that it is precisely because of the serious complications for adults that the vaccine should be given to children.

With respect to manufacturer's labels, manufacturers of products warn users of products of possible problems with products in part out of concern for liability. Because a manufacturer cannot prove that a vaccine is effective for a lifetime, it cannot say so without the possibility of legal difficulties. The studies previously discussed show sufficient longevity for ACIP and the AAP to determine that the vaccine's benefits outweigh its risks. The Department has accepted, and the Board has approved, these recommendations.

Several commentators commented that there was evidence that the varicella vaccine, along with other vaccines, could be responsible for the increasing incidence of rare childhood conditions. A few commentators suggested that the vaccine could be a cause of infertility, behavioral problems and increases in other rare childhood conditions.

The currently available scientific evidence does not support the hypothesis that vaccines cause autism, or any other syndrome, infertility or behavioral problems. There is considerable parent interest in these issues, and research regarding these concerns is ongoing by National and private entities. The Department does not believe these scientifically unsupported suspicions outweigh the benefit to the child or the public from requiring varicella immunization.

Commentators also raised concerns about potentially carcinogenic materials in the varicella vaccine. Some also objected to the vaccine, stating that it contained formaldehyde and aluminum.

Millions of doses of vaccines are administered to children in this country each year. Ensuring that those vaccines are potent, sterile and safe requires the addition of minute amounts of chemical additives. Chemicals are added to vaccines to inactivate a virus or bacteria and stabilize the vaccine, helping to preserve the vaccine and prevent it from losing its potency over time. The amount of chemical additives found in vaccines is very small. Again, the Department does not believe this concern necessitates the deletion of the regulation. The possibility that the small amount of additives may cause a serious allergic response is outweighed by the efficacy of the vaccine in preventing serious disease and disease outbreaks. Formaldehyde is used to inactivate toxic properties in vaccines that contain toxins (for example, tetanus). It is also used to kill unwanted viruses and bacteria that might be found in cultures used to produce vaccines. Aluminum gels or salts of aluminum are added as adjuvants to help the vaccine stimulate production of antibodies to fight off diseases and aid other substances in their action. In vaccines, adjuvants may be added to help promote an earlier response, more potent response or more persistent immune response to disease.

Several commentators objected to the varicella vaccine stating that it was manufactured from human fetal cells.

The Department has not changed the rulemaking in response to this comment. Fetal tissue is not currently used to produce vaccines; cell-lines generated from a single fetal tissue source are used. Vaccine manufacturers obtain human cell-lines from FDA-certified cell banks. Some vaccines, including varicella vaccine, are made from human cell-line cultures. No new fetal tissue will be needed to produce cell-lines to make these vaccines, now or in the future.

One commentator raised the concern that a "black and white" rule requiring the varicella vaccine for school entry in kindergarten or first grade and for entry into the seventh grade would mean that children who had had the disease would need an unnecessary injection or laboratory test to prove immunity.

The Department's regulation requires chickenpox immunity. This is demonstrated by proof of having received varicella vaccine (see subsections (a)(8)(i) and (c)(2)), or a history of chickenpox immunity proved by laboratory testing or a written statement of history from a parent, guardian or physician. See subsections (a)(8)(ii) and (c)(2)(iii). Therefore, a child is neither required to undergo an unnecessary vaccination, or have blood drawn for a laboratory test unless the parent, guardian or physician is unable to provide a history of immunity.

Several commentators focused on the Department's statement in the preamble to the proposed rulemaking that part of the cost associated with not requiring varicella immunity for children entering or attending school is the cost resulting from a parent or guardian taking time off from work to care for the child. The commentators stated that it was not the function of a health agency to determine how much work a parent was allowed to miss to care for children, and that children belong to the parent, and not the State. According to these commentators, this was solely a parental decision.

The commentators have misconstrued the Department's statement. The Department is required to address the fiscal impact of a regulation when it proposes or adopts the regulation. The Department's reason for requiring varicella immunity is not to have less work disruption due to illness. This is not the main reason for proposing this requirement. It is a statement of parental and societal economic impact. The major reason for vaccination with chickenpox vaccine is the reduction of serious complications from an otherwise preventable disease, or has been previously discussed.

Further, the Department's statement in the preamble to proposed rulemaking was not intended to set a standard for how much work a parent may miss to care for a child, nor does the regulation set a standard. The Department is required, by law, to assess the costs and benefits of the proposed rulemaking to the regulated community, to State and local government, to the private sector and to the public. See section 5(a)(4) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. § 745.5(a)(4)). Part of the cost-savings of requiring varicella immunity is, in the Department's opinion, the reduction of lost time and productivity on the part of parents and guardians required to miss work to care for their children. This is not to say that parents and guardians may not or should not stay home from work to care for their sick children, it merely projects that the need of parents and guardians to do so will diminish as the requirements of the Department's regulation are implemented.

One commentator raised the issue of reimbursement, but noted the Department had no jurisdiction to resolve that issue. The Department has no need to address that comment.

C. Affected Persons

This final-form rulemaking affects those children entering school for the first time in kindergarten or first grade in this Commonwealth, and those entering the seventh grade, who have not yet been vaccinated for hepatitis B or chickenpox (varicella). This rulemaking also affects their parents or guardians.

The final-form rulemaking also affects school districts and their employees, since school districts are required to ensure that children attending school have the appropriate vaccinations. To the extent that physicians may be requested by parents and guardians to provide vaccination histories or other proof of vaccination, physicians could also be affected tangentially.

D. Cost And Paperwork Estimate

1. Cost

a. Commonwealth

The Commonwealth would incur some costs for the purchase and administration of the additional vaccines. The savings, however, in terms of the amount of funds that would not be needed to coordinate disease outbreak investigations and control measures, would outweigh the additional program and vaccine costs.

b. Local Government

There would be no additional cost to local governments. Local governments should see some cost savings from the prevention of disease outbreaks, since local governments do bear some of the cost of disease outbreak investigations and control measures.

c. Regulated Community

Families whose children's vaccinations are covered by their insurance plans (public or private) under State law should not see any out-of-pocket cost for the vaccinations. Families whose insurance plans do not cover these vaccinations, or who do not have insurance, will need to seek other assistance to pay for vaccinations, or pay out-of-pocket. In general, there is other assistance provided for vaccinations from the Department, if no third party payer is available. The Department provides vaccinations either free of charge, or charges a fee based on a sliding fee scale according to the family's income. The savings in prevention of childhood illness would outweigh the minimal cost of the vaccine.

School districts already have mechanisms in place for determining whether or not children have been appropriately immunized, and taking action based on that determination. This final-form rulemaking would add two additional immunizations to review, which should not add to the school districts' current cost of ensuring immunizations are up to date. Again, the savings in prevention of an outbreak of a childhood illness in a school district should outweigh the minimal cost in staff time to review two additional immunizations.

d. General Public

The general public should not see an increase in cost.

2. Paperwork Estimates

a. Commonwealth and the Regulated Community

There are minimal additional paperwork requirements for the Commonwealth and the regulated community. There is a requirement that school districts report the number of children with up-to-date immunizations, the number of children in the process of obtaining the required immunizations and the number of children not meeting the immunization requirement. The final-form regulation adds two additional immunization requirements to the current list of required immunizations.

Although physicians could be requested by a parent or guardian to provide an immunization history for varicella, the Department does not mandate that physicians provide an immunization history. The final-form regulation merely states that the Department will accept such a history in lieu of the actual vaccination requirement.

Parents and guardians will need to present information relating to varicella immunity when children enter school for the first time in this Commonwealth in kindergarten or the first grade. Parents, guardians and emancipated children will need to present information relating to hepatitis B and varicella immunity when children enter the seventh grade.

b. Local Government

There is no additional paperwork requirement for local government.

c. General Public

There is no additional paperwork requirement for the general public.

E. Statutory Authority

The Department obtains its authority to promulgate regulations relating to immunizations in schools from several sources. Generally, the Disease Prevention and Control Law of 1955 (35 P. S. §§ 521.1—521.21) (act) provides the Board with the authority to issue rules and regulations on a variety of issues relating to communicable and noncommunicable diseases, including what control measures are to be taken with respect to which diseases, provisions for the enforcement of control measures, requirements concerning immunization and vaccination of persons and animals, and requirements for the prevention and control of disease in public and private schools. Section 16(b) of the act (35 P. S. § 521.16(b)) gives the Secretary of Health (Secretary) the authority to review existing regulations and make recommendations to the Board for changes the Secretary considers to be desirable.

Section 2102(g) of The Administrative Code of 1929 (71 P. S. § 532(g)), gives the Department this general authority. Section 2111(b) of The Administrative Code of 1929 (71 P. S. § 541(b)) provides the Board with additional authority to promulgate regulations deemed by the Board to be necessary for the prevention of disease, and for the protection of the lives and the health of the people of this Commonwealth. That section further provides that the regulations of the Board shall become the regulations of the Department.

The Department's specific authority for promulgating regulations relating to school immunizations is found in The Administrative Code of 1929 and in the code. Section 2111(c.1) of The Administrative Code of 1929 provides the Board with the authority to make and revise a list of communicable diseases against which children are required to be immunized as a condition of attendance at any public, private or parochial school, including kindergarten. The section requires the Secretary to promulgate the list, along with any rules and regulations necessary to insure the immunizations are timely, effective and properly verified.

Section 1303a of the code provides that the Board will make and review a list of diseases against which children must be immunized, as the Secretary may direct, before being admitted to school for the first time. The section provides that the school directors, superintendents, principals or other persons in charge of any public, private, parochial or other school including kindergarten, shall ascertain whether the immunization has occurred. It further provides that certificates of immunization will be issued in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the Secretary with the sanction and advice of the Board.

The Hepatitis Prevention Act (35 P. S. §§ 630.1—630.3) provides the Department with authority to implement a program for the prevention of hepatitis B through immunization of children consistent with ACIP's recommendations. See section 2 of the Hepatitis Prevention Act (35 P. S. § 630.2).

F. Effectiveness/Sunset Dates

The final-form regulation will become effective upon final publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. No sunset date has been established. The Department will continually review and monitor the effectiveness of this regulation.

G. Regulatory Review

Under section 5(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. § 745.5(a)), on August 23, 2000, the Department submitted a copy of the notice of proposed rulemaking published at 30 Pa. B. 4591 to IRRC and the Chairpersons of the House Health and Human Services Committee and the Senate Public Health and Welfare Committee for review and comment. In compliance with section 5(c) of the Regulatory Review Act, the Department also provided IRRC and the Committees with copies of all comments received, as well as other documentation.

In compliance with section 5.1(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. § 745.5a(a)), the Department submitted a copy of the final-form rulemaking to IRRC and the Committees on April 9, 2001. In addition, the Department provided IRRC and the Committees with information pertaining to commentators and a copy of a detailed regulatory analysis form prepared by the Department in compliance with Executive Order 1996-1, "Regulatory Review and Promulgation." A copy of this material is available to the public upon request.

In preparing this final-form regulation, the Department has considered all comments received from IRRC, the Committees and the public.

This final-form rulemaking was deemed approved by the House Health and Human Services Committee and the Senate Public Health and Welfare Committee on April 30, 2001. IRRC met on May 3, 2001, and approved the regulation in accordance with section 5.1(e) of the Regulatory Review Act. The Attorney General approved the final-form rulemaking on May 16, 2001.

I. Findings

The Department, with the approval of the Board, finds that:
