Absolutely 'Nova Law

There are many facets to Villanova University. Over in Bartley one can find the Commerce and Finance majors discussing economics and financing, while in Mendel the aspiring doctors and engineers study the vast areas of the physical sciences. However, is anyone aware of what goes on in Garey Hall? For those of you who didn't know, Garey Hall holds the distinguished Villanova School of Law.

For decades, the law school has graduated individuals prepared to tackle an ever-changing legal environment. While attending the school, students cover various of law, such as civil procedure, criminal law, computer law, and corporate law. Thanks to a dedicated and caring faculty, the opportunity for growth and achievement is immeasurable.

The School of Law at Villanova offers many doors to bright and profitable futures. These doors, however, can only be opened through the hard work, determination, and ingenuity of interested students. So, if you feel qualified, go pay a visit to Garey Hall and its inhabitants.
