READER'S GUIDE TO THE PENNSYLVANIA BULLETIN AND PENNSYLVANIA CODE

Pennsylvania Bulletin

The Pennsylvania Bulletin is the official gazette of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It is published every week and includes a table of contents. A cumulative subject matter index is published quarterly.

The Pennsylvania Bulletin serves several purposes. First, it is the temporary supplement to the Pennsylvania Code, which is the official codification of agency rules and regulations and other statutorily authorized documents. Changes in the codified text, whether by adoption, amendment, repeal or emergency action must be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. Further, agencies proposing changes to the codified text do so in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Second, the Pennsylvania Bulletin also publishes: Governor's Executive Orders; State Contract Notices; Summaries of Enacted Statutes; Statewide and Local Court Rules; Attorney General Opinions; Motor Carrier Applications before the Public Utility Commission; Applications and Actions before the Department of Environmental Protection; Orders of the Independent Regulatory Review Commission; and other documents authorized by law.

The text of certain documents published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin is the only valid and enforceable text. Courts are required to take judicial notice of the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Adoption, Amendment or Repeal of Regulations

Generally an agency wishing to adopt, amend or repeal regulations must first publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. There are limited instances where the agency may omit the proposal step; they still must publish the adopted version.

The Notice of Proposed Rulemaking contains the full text of the change, the agency contact person, a fiscal note required by law and background for the action.

The agency then allows sufficient time for public comment before taking final action. An adopted proposal must be published in the Pennsylvania

Bulletin before it can take effect. If the agency wishes to adopt changes to the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to enlarge the scope, they must re-propose.

Citation to the Pennsylvania Bulletin

Cite material in the Pennsylvania Bulletin by volume number and page number. Example: Volume 1, Pennsylvania Bulletin, page 801 (short form: 1 Pa.B. 801).

Pennsylvania Code

The Pennsylvania Code is the official codification of rules and regulations issued by Commonwealth agencies and other statutorily authorized documents. The Pennsylvania Bulletin is the temporary supplement to the Pennsylvania Code, printing changes as soon as they occur. These changes are then permanently codified by the Pennsylvania Code Reporter, a monthly, loose-leaf supplement.

The Pennsylvania Code is cited by title number and section number. Example: Title 10 Pennsylvania Code, § 1.1 (short form: 10 Pa.Code § 1.1).

Under the Pennsylvania Code codification system, each regulation is assigned a unique number by title and section. Titles roughly parallel the organization of Commonwealth government. Title 1 Pennsylvania Code lists every agency and its corresponding Code title location.

How to Find Documents

Search for your area of interest in the Pennsylvania Code.

The Pennsylvania Code contains, as Finding Aids, subject indexes for the complete Code and for each individual title, a list of Statutes Used As Authority for Adopting Rules and a list of annotated cases. Source Notes give you the history of the documents. To see if there have been recent changes, not yet codified, check the List of Pennsylvania Code Chapters Affected in the most recent issue of the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

The Pennsylvania Bulletin also publishes a quarterly List of Pennsylvania Code Sections Affected which lists the regulations in numerical order, followed by the citation to the Pennsylvania Bulletin in which the change occurred.

Printing Format

Material proposed to be added to an existing rule or regulation is printed in bold face and material proposed to be deleted from such a rule or regulation is enclosed in brackets [] and printed in bold face. Asterisks indicate ellipsis of Pennsylvania Code text retained without change. Proposed new or additional regulations are printed in ordinary style face.

Fiscal Notes

Section 612 of The Administrative Code of 1929 (71 P. S. § 232) requires that the Office of Budget prepare a fiscal note for regulatory actions and administrative procedures of the administrative departments, boards, commissions or authorities receiving money from the State Treasury stating whether the proposed action or procedure causes a loss of revenue or an increase in the cost of programs for the Commonwealth or its political subdivisions; that the fiscal note be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin at the same time as the proposed change is advertised; and that the fiscal note shall provide the following information: (1) the designation of the fund out of which the appropriation providing for expenditures under the action or procedure shall be made; (2) the probable cost for the fiscal year the program is implemented; (3) projected cost estimate of the program for each of the five succeeding fiscal years; (4) fiscal history of the program for which expenditures are to be made; (5) probable loss of revenue for the fiscal year of its implementation; (6) projected loss of revenue from the program for each of the five succeeding fiscal years; (7) line item, if any, of the General Appropriation Act or other appropriation act out of which expenditures or losses of Commonwealth funds shall occur as a result of the action or procedures; (8) recommendation, if any, of the Secretary of the Budget and the reasons therefor.

The required information is published in the foregoing order immediately following the proposed change to which it relates; the omission of an item indicates that the agency text of the fiscal note states that there is no information available with respect thereto. In items (3) and (6) information is set forth for the first through fifth fiscal years; in that order, following the year the program is implemented, which is stated. In item (4) information is set forth for the current and two immediately preceding years, in that order. In item (8) the recommendation, if any, made by the Secretary of Budget is published with the fiscal note. See 4 Pa. Code § 7.231 et seq. Where “no fiscal impact” is published, the statement means no additional cost or revenue loss to the Commonwealth or its local political subdivision is intended.

Reproduction, Dissemination or Publication of Information

Third parties may not take information from the Pennsylvania Code and Pennsylvania Bulletin and reproduce, disseminate or publish such information except as provided by 1 Pa. Code § 3.44. 1 Pa. Code § 3.44 reads as follows:

§ 3.44. General permission to reproduce content of Code and Bulletin.

Information published under this part, which information includes, but is not limited to, cross references, tables of cases, notes of decisions, tables of contents, indexes, source notes, authority notes, numerical lists and codification guides, other than the actual text of rules or regulations may be reproduced only with the written consent of the Bureau. The information which appears on the same leaf with the text of a rule or regulation, however, may be incidentally reproduced in connection with the reproduction of the rule or regulation, if the reproduction is for the private use of a subscriber and not for resale. There are no other restrictions on the reproduction of information published under this part, and the Commonwealth hereby consents to a reproduction.

THE GOVERNOR

Notice of Veto

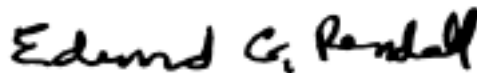

November 9, 2006

*To the Honorable, the Senate
of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:*

I am returning Senate Bill 157 without my approval. I regret doing so since this bill provides for the installment payments of the Local Services Tax. This tax which is capped at $52 is collected by employers. Under this bill, employers would be required to apportion the deduction of the $52 over the full period of employment, thereby decreasing the one time impact of the deduction on the taxpayer. I strongly support the installment requirement provided for in this bill. I also believe that the standard requirement that those earning under $12,000 per year be exempted from this tax is good public policy and effectively mirrors the state's progressive Tax Back program for the payment of Personal Income Tax.

Notwithstanding the improvements provided for in this bill, the timeline for implementation of these changes is simply not reasonable. The bill, sent to me on October 30, requires that every municipality that currently collects the Emergency Municipal Services Tax at a rate higher than $10 advertise its intention to pass an ordinance to comply with this legislation no later than November 24th, and pass the ordinance by December 31st. The bill also requires municipalities that intend to begin collecting this tax in 2007 for the first time to advertise their intention to pass an ordinance by November 17th, and to pass the ordinance by December 1st. Likewise, businesses across the state will have very little time to adjust their payroll systems to ensure the appropriate collection of this tax.

I am also deeply concerned that due to the short window permitted for the passage of these local ordinances municipalities across the state will lose revenues already planned for in their annual budgets, which have already been adopted. My concerns are echoed by the Pennsylvania League of Cities and Municipalities, the Pennsylvania Association of Township Supervisors, and the Pennsylvania Association of Boroughs in their letter urging a veto. In addition to their letter and the seven others I received from localities and associations urging a veto, I received a letter from the City of Altoona which provided clear evidence of the problems this bill will create for municipal budgets in the current fiscal year. As a result, I am returning this legislation without my signature. I urge the legislature to pass legislation that permits the important taxpayer benefits provided for in SB 157 in a bill that also ensures reasonable time periods for implementation of these changes.

Notice of Veto

November 9, 2006

To the Honorable House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I am returning House Bill 2202 without my approval. Pennsylvania already pays for home infusion therapy for over 52,000 Commonwealth residents. For the bulk of those receiving Medicaid-based services, the Commonwealth covers the cost of the drugs and the cost of the nurse to come to the home to assist the patient and monitor the therapy. With respect to those Medicaid recipients who are covered in the fee-for-service system, this bill would require the Commonwealth to absorb the cost of a new service offered by pharmacies regardless of whether the pharmacy service is medically appropriate or necessary. There is also the potential that as drafted this bill will result in cost shifting from the Federal government to the Commonwealth for the home infusion services provided to those individuals known as "dual eligibles."

The Department of Public Welfare manages regulatory and administrative processes that establish Medicaid payment protocols. This legislation is an attempt to go around those established systems and add a new unfunded mandated payment to the budget and thus a new unfunded obligation for the taxpayers of the Commonwealth. Throughout the drafting of this bill the Department of Public Welfare urged the parties to engage in the Commonwealth's routine administrative processes to determine the appropriate payment protocols for these medical services. I am disappointed that this offer was refused and as a result there may be instances where the pharmacy services may be warranted but payment for those services will still not be appropriately defined and paid.

Finally this bill includes a troubling drafting error that, were it to become law, would have the unfortunate consequence of making it illegal for the Department of Public Welfare to pay for home infusion therapy for some of the sickest residents who are under 65 years old and destitute. Under current eligibility rules, not all Medical Assistance recipients are eligible for prescription drug coverage. However, the language in Section 443.9 of the bill could be interpreted to prohibit the payment for home nursing services required for home infusion therapy since the Commonwealth is not also the payer for the prescribed medicine.

I have proven over the past four years that the Commonwealth can be fiscally responsible, maintain a balanced budget and still make steady progress toward meeting the needs of our most vulnerable Pennsylvanians. This bill will result in a $7 million increase in costs to the Department of Public Welfare without the identification of a compensating cut or provision of additional revenue to pay for this increase in expenditures. I have in the past, and will continue, in the future to provide additional funding for critically needed health care. But I have consistently enforced a "pay as you go policy" when it comes to the state budget—expenditure increases must not be legislated on an ad-hoc basis during the fiscal year. I will not sign legislation that either significantly increases spending or reduces revenue without a specific plan to pay for it.

For these reason I must withhold my signature from House Bill 2202.

Notice of Veto

November 9, 2006

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I am returning House Bill 2282 without my approval. I regret doing so since this bill offers a tax benefit to National Guard members enabling them to exempt from their income active duty pay earned during the period of deployment for national or international emergencies. This element of the bill was part of my original Support Our Troops package that I proposed on Memorial Day in 2005. Unfortunately, the bill that provided this benefit for our National Guard members was hijacked as a vehicle to resolve litigation pending between internet hotel booking services and the City of Philadelphia.

In addition to using a bill intended to benefit the National Guard to respond to the request of internet hotel reservation services seeking to cap what they must pay for local hotel taxes, this bill also includes substantive drafting errors which would require, if House Bill 2282 were enacted, new corrective legislation or costly litigation to resolve. The Chief Counsel for the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue confirms that as written the bill may be understood to cap the hotel occupancy tax rate and/or it may mean to narrow the base of the locally defined hotel room rental tax rate—it's impossible to know what the intent or impact of the bill will really be. Beyond my substantive opposition to measures that would roll-back the hotel tax in the two major tourism centers of our state, the lack of precision of the language alone gives me cause to veto this bill

Finally I veto this bill, and would do so if subsequent legislation came to me again, because it will result in a substantial loss of revenue to localities. In Philadelphia, over the next five years the City could have to forego anywhere from $55 million to more than $200 million depending on how the bill is interpreted. Likewise, Allegheny County could lose at least $28 million in local revenues in the same time period. In both counties the proceeds of these taxes are pledged to pay the debt on their convention center bonds. As such, rolling back and capping this tax will require each municipality to tap other revenues that are pledged to local services, their school districts and other capital expenditures to pay the shortfall in hotel taxes caused by this bill.

I recognize that the introduction of internet hotel reservation services raised new questions for our state and local tax codes. I strongly believe that we must ensure that local and state government as well as Pennsylvania businesses are not adversely affected by internet based companies who seek legislation to avoid duly imposed taxes.

For the reasons stated above I am returning HB 2282 without my signature. I urge the legislature to pass legislation that offers our active duty National Guard members the tax benefits intended for them when this bill was first introduced on December 5th, 2005. If that legislation comes to me without other objectionable and unrelated provisions I will sign it immediately.

Title 231—RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

PART I. GENERAL

[231 PA. CODE CH. 1910]

Order Amending Rules 1910.13-1 and 1910.13-2;
No. 467 Civil Procedural Rules; Doc. No. 5

Order

Per Curiam:

And Now, this 8th day of November, 2006, Rules 1910.13-1 and 1910.13-2 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure are amended as follows.

This order shall be processed in accordance with Pa. R.J.A. 103(b) and shall be effective on February 6, 2007.

Annex A

TITLE 231. RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

PART I. GENERAL

CHAPTER 1910. ACTIONS FOR SUPPORT

Rule 1910.13-1. Failure or Refusal to Appear Pursuant to Order of Court. Bench Warrant.

(a) If a party fails to appear at a conference and/or hearing as directed by order of court, the court may issue a bench warrant for the arrest of the party if it finds

(1) following a hearing on the record that the party had actual notice that the party was [required] ordered to attend the conference and/or hearing, or

(2) upon the affidavit of a hearing officer or conference officer that

(i) the order of court scheduling the conference and/or hearing was served by ordinary mail with the return address of the domestic relations section appearing thereon, that the mail was not returned to the domestic relations section within fifteen days after mailing, and that, at a date after the order of court was mailed, the United States Postal Service has verified that mail for the party was being delivered at the address to which the court order was mailed; or

(ii) the party signed a receipt indicating acceptance of a copy of the court order; or

(iii) an employee of the court handed a copy of the order to the party; or

(iv) a competent adult handed a copy of the court order to the party, and filed an affidavit of service.

Official Note: See Rule 76 for the definition of "competent adult."

(b) The request for a bench warrant shall be made by the domestic relations office within sixty days following the party's failure to appear. The request shall be in the form provided by Rule 1910.13-2(b), and shall include the hearing officer or conference officer's certification that the party has not appeared for any domestic relations matter involving the same parties since the date the party failed to appear.

(c) Upon appearance in court by a party on the matter underlying the bench warrant, the bench warrant shall be vacated forthwith and the notice shall be given to all computer networks into which the bench warrant has been entered.

(d) [The bench warrant shall direct that if the court is unavailable at the time of the party's arrest, the party shall be lodged in the county jail until such time as court is opened for business. The authority in charge of the county jail must promptly notify the sheriff's office and the director of the domestic relations section that defendant is being held pursuant to the bench warrant. Under no circumstances shall the party remain in the county jail longer than seventy-two hours prior to hearing.] When a bench warrant is executed, the case is to proceed in accordance with the following procedures.

(1) When an individual is arrested pursuant to a bench warrant, he or she shall be taken without unnecessary delay for a hearing on the bench warrant. The hearing shall be conducted by the judicial officer who issued the bench warrant, or, another judicial officer designated by the president judge or by the president judge's designee to conduct bench warrant hearings. As used in this rule, "judicial officer" is limited to the common pleas court judge who issued the bench warrant, or common pleas court judge designated by the president judge or by the president judge's designee to conduct bench warrant hearings.

(2) In the discretion of the judicial officer, the bench warrant hearing may be conducted using two-way simultaneous audio-visual communication.

(3) When the individual is arrested in the county of issuance, and the bench warrant hearing cannot be conducted promptly after the arrest, the individual shall be lodged in the county jail pending the hearing. The authority in charge of the county jail promptly shall notify the sheriff's office and the director of the domestic relations section that the individual is being held pursuant to the bench warrant.

(4) When the individual is arrested outside the county of issuance, the authority in charge of the county jail in the arresting county promptly shall notify the proper authorities in the county of issuance that the individual is being held pursuant to the bench warrant.

(5) The bench warrant hearing shall be conducted without unnecessary delay after the individual is lodged in the jail of the county of issuance of that bench warrant. The individual shall not be detained without a hearing on the bench warrant longer than 72 hours, or the close of the next business day if the 72 hours expires on a non-business day.

(6) At the conclusion of the bench warrant hearing following the disposition of the matter, the judicial officer immediately shall vacate the bench warrant.

(7) If a bench warrant hearing is not held within the time limits in paragraph (d)(5), the bench warrant shall expire by operation of law.

Explanatory Comment—1994

In 1988, Section 4342 of the Domestic Relations Code, 23 Pa.C.S. § 4342, was amended to require establishment of procedures for expedited contempt in support. Those procedures are set forth in new Rules 1910.13-1, 1910.13-2, and 1910.21-1 through 1910.21-7.

Former Rule 1910.13 provided for the issuance of a bench warrant for failure of a person to obey a court order other than an order for support. It is replaced with new Rule 1910.13-1 which sets forth detailed procedures for the issuance of a bench warrant, and new Rule 1910.13-2 which provides the associated forms. The new rules apply only to a party who fails to appear at a support conference or hearing as directed by an order of court.

An individual arrested pursuant to a bench warrant can be incarcerated for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours prior to hearing as set forth in new Rule 1910.13-1(d). Under the old rules, if the court was unavailable at the time of arrest, the individual could not be held. Therefore, law enforcement officials were unable to execute bench warrants in the evenings or on weekends, when their efforts were most likely to be successful. By limiting the possible period of incarceration to seventy-two hours, new Rule 1910.13-1(d) balances the need to bring parties before the court with the desire to avoid lengthy pre-hearing detention. Bail can be set by the court where appropriate, providing additional protection for the respondent.

[Former Rule 1910.21 is replaced by new Rules 1910.21 through 1910.21-7. New Rule 1910.21-1 replaces the notice to appear before the court with a court order, thus eliminating the need for two essentially identical documents attached to a single petition. It also eliminates the old requirement that a copy of the support order underlying the contempt petition and an "official statement" of support arrearages be attached to the petition. Instead, the petition need only set forth the amount of the arrearages, as well as any other allegations which constitute the alleged failure to comply with the support order. As with a support complaint, an answer is permitted, but not required, unless specially ordered by the court.

Former Rule 1910.21(c) provided for service of a contempt petition only by regular mail. If the respondent failed to appear for the conference or hearing, the matter had to be continued for personal service or issuance of a bench warrant, sometimes creating lengthy delays. New Rule 1910.21-1(d) permits service of the contempt petition by first class mail. If the respondent fails to appear, the domestic relations section can request issuance of a bench warrant after certifying that the order was not returned by the post office within fifteen days, and that the postal authorities verified that the party was receiving mail at the address to which the order was sent on a date after the order was mailed. Thus, under the new rule, service can be accomplished with relative ease and little expense, but also with reasonable certainty that the respondent actually received notice of the proceedings.

New Rule 1910.21-1 addresses situations both where the payor is chronically a few dollars short, or a few days late by requiring that contempt proceedings be initiated when arrearages in any amount have existed for fifteen days.

The procedures for expedited contempt after service of the petition are set forth in new Rules 1910.21-2 through 1910.21-7. Pursuant to new Rule 1910.21-2, the respondent can be required to attend a conference, or can go directly before a judge for hearing, if the court permits. In all cases where the respondent does not go directly before a judge, there is an office conference as set forth in new Rule 1910.21-3. If an agreement is reached, the court may then enter the order without hearing on the basis of the conference officer's recommendation. If no agreement is reached, the matter proceeds as described in new Rule 1910.21-4 or, if an individual county adopts it by local rule, as set forth in new Rule 1910.21-5.

If no agreement is reached, new Rule 1910.21-4 requires the conference officer to prepare a summary of the conference. Upon consideration of the conference summary, the court may enter an order without hearing the parties. Either party has the right to file a written request for a de novo hearing within ten days after the order is mailed. If the court does not enter an order within five days, a de novo hearing is automatically scheduled before the court. The contempt order is stayed if either party demands a de novo hearing. The hearing de novo must be held no later than seventy-five days after the date the petition for contempt was filed. The time limitation is for the benefit of the plaintiff, and is intended to ensure speedy resumption of support payments.

New Rule 1910.21-5 provides the alternative procedure where no agreement is reached at the office conference. At the conclusion of a conference, the hearing officer must file a report containing a proposed order and the hearing officer's recommendations. If either party files exceptions within ten days, the court must either hear argument on the exceptions or hold a hearing de novo within seventy-five days. If no exceptions are filed within ten days, the court may enter an order on the basis of the hearing officer's report.

New Rule 1910.21-4 makes clear that a respondent cannot be incarcerated without a full evidentiary hearing before a judge. The court's order committing the respondent to jail must name the conditions that the respondent must fulfill in order to be released.

Pursuant to new Rule 1910.21-7, motions for post trial relief are not permitted to be filed to any order entered under new Rules 1910.21-1 through 1910.21-6.]

Explanatory Comment—1999

The rules of civil procedure governing service of original process and other legal papers have used the term "competent adult." In certain circumstances, the term has been used with the restrictive language "who is not a party to the action."

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has amended Definition Rule 76 by adding the following definition: "competent adult" means an individual eighteen years of age or older who is neither a party to the action nor an employee or a relative of a party." In view of this new definition, the rules of civil procedure which used the term "competent adult who is not a party to the action" have been amended by deleting as unnecessary the restrictive language "who is not a party to the action."

These rules using the term "competent adult" will be governed by the new definition. The rules which used the term "competent adult" without the restrictive language have been amend by deleting the word "competent," thus continuing to permit service by an adult without further restriction.

Explanatory Comment—2006

Beginning in 2006, bench warrants issued for failure to obey a court order to appear in a support matter will be available through the Judicial Network ("JNET") system. JNET expands the capacity of law enforcement officers throughout the commonwealth to be informed of outstanding bench warrants issued by both the criminal and civil courts. The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has promulgated new Pa.R.Crim.P. 150, effective August 1, 2006, which sets forth the procedure related to criminal bench warrants. The amendments to Rule 1910.13-1 and 1910-13-2 track the new criminal procedural rule so that bench warrant procedures will be uniform throughout the commonwealth. For additional information see the Criminal Procedural Rules Committee's Final Report explaining new Pa.R.Crim.P. 150, published with the promulgation order at 36 Pa. B. 184 (January 14, 2006).

Explanatory Comment—1994

The domestic relations office conference provided by Rule 1910.11 constitutes the heart of the support procedure. There are two primary advantages to the inclusion of a conference. First, in many cases the parties will agree upon an amount of support and a final order will be prepared, to be entered by the court, thus dispensing with a judicial hearing. Second, those cases which do go to hearing can proceed more quickly because the necessary factual information has already been gathered by the conference officer.

Subdivision (a)(2) prohibits certain officers of the court from practicing family law before fellow officers of the same court. These officers are the conference officer who is an attorney (Rule 1910.11), the hearing officer (Rule 1910.12), and the standing or permanent master who is employed by the court (Rule 1920.51). The amendments are not intended to apply to the attorney who is appointed occasionally to act as a master in a divorce action.

Subdivision (e)(3) makes clear that even if the parties agree on an amount of support, the conference officer is still empowered to recommend to the court that the agreement be disapproved. This provision is intended to protect the destitute spouse who might out of desperation agree to an amount of support that is unreasonably low or which would in effect bargain away the rights of the children. The officer's disapproval of the agreement serves to prevent an inadequate order being entered unwittingly by the court.

The provision for [a temporary] an interim order in subdivision [(g)(2)] (f) serves two purposes. First, it ensures that the obligee will receive needed support for the period during which the judicial determination is sought. Second, it eliminates the motive of delay in seeking a judicial determination.

Because the guidelines are income driven, the trier of fact has little need for the expense information required in the [income and expense statement] Income and Expense Statement. Therefore in guideline cases, the rule no longer requires that expense information be provided. If a party feels that there are expenses so extraordinary that they merit consideration by the trier of fact, that party is free to provide the information. In cases decided according to Melzer v. Witsberger, 505 Pa. 462, 480 A.2d 991 (1984), living expenses are properly considered, and therefore must be presented on the [income and expense statement] Income and Expense Statement.

Explanatory Comment—1995

Rule 1910.11(e) is amended to eliminate the need for a party to request a copy of the conference summary.

[In conformity with the amendment of Pa.R.C.P. 236, subdivision (f) is amended to require that the parties be served with a copy of the order, rather than notice that it has been filed. In addition, subdivision (f) is amended to require the court to enter an interim order on the basis of the conference summary, expediting the commencement of support payments. The language of subdivisions (g) and (i) is also changed to conform with the amended language of subdivision (f).]

Because the court is required to enter a guideline order on the basis of the conference officer's recommendation, there is no need for (g)(2), which provided for a hearing before the court where an order was not entered within five days of the conference. It is eliminated accordingly.

Pursuant to subdivision (g), support payments are due and owing under the interim order which continues in effect until the court enters a final order after the hearing de novo. The provision for an interim order serves two purposes. First, it ensures that the obligee will receive needed support for the period during which the judicial determination is sought. Second, it eliminates the motive [in] of delay in seeking a judicial determination. Therefore, the plaintiff and the dependent children are not prejudiced by allowing the court sixty days, rather than the original forty-five, in which to enter its final order.

Explanatory Comment—2006

The time for filing a written demand for a hearing before the court has been expanded from ten to twenty days. The purpose of this amendment is to provide ample opportunity for litigants and counsel to receive notice of the entry of the order, to assure commonwealth-wide consistency in calculation of time for filing and to conform to applicable general civil procedural rules.

The amendments reflect the separated Income Statement and Expense Statements in Rule 1910.27(c).

Explanatory Comment—1994

The support complaint and [expense statement] Income and Expense Statements contain a verification which states that the documents are subject to the penalties of the Crimes Code relating to unsworn falsification to authorities. A notary public is not needed.

Explanatory Comment—2006

Rule 1910.27(c) is amended to separate income and expense information and to elicit the expense information relevant in cases that fall within the guidelines, as well as those that do not. In cases which can be determined under the guidelines, no expense information need be provided unless a party is claiming unusual needs and expenses that may warrant a deviation pursuant to Rule 1910.16-5 or an apportionment of expenses pursuant to Rule 1910.16-6. If a party is claiming such expenses, the form at subsection (c)(2)(A) should be submitted. A separate expense form for cases in which the parties' combined monthly net income exceeds $20,000 is set forth at subsection (c)(2)(B).

Rule 1910.11(c) was amended, effective in March 1995, to provide that only income and extraordinary expenses need be shown on the Income and Expense Statement in cases which can be determined pursuant to the guidelines. The Explanatory Comment—1994 explained the rationale for the amendment.

Nevertheless, because space for both income and expense information was provided on the same form Income and Expense Statement, parties often needlessly expended time and effort to provide expense information that was not relevant at the conference. The amendments are intended to clarify and simplify the submission of expense information.

CHAPTER 1920. ACTIONS OF DIVORCE OR FOR ANNULMENT OF MARRIAGE

Rule 1920.31. Joinder of Related Claims. Child and Spousal Support. Alimony. Alimony Pendente Lite. Counsel Fees. Expenses.

(a)(1) Within thirty days after the service of the pleading or petition containing a claim for child or spousal support, alimony, alimony pendente lite or counsel fees, costs and expenses, each party shall file a true copy of the most recent federal income tax return, pay stubs for the preceding six months [and], a completed [income and expense statement] Income Statement in the form required at Rule 1910.27(c)(1) and a completed Expense Statement in the [manner and] form required by [Rules 1910.11 and] Rule 1910.27(c)(2)(B).

(2) If a party fails to file the documents as required by subdivision (a)(1), the court on motion may make an appropriate order under Rule 4019 governing sanctions.

(3) [When] In those counties in which the prothonotary's office does not automatically forward a divorce complaint containing claims for support or alimony pendente lite to the domestic relations section or other appropriate office, if a claim for support or alimony pendente lite is filed as a count in a divorce rather than as a separate action, the award shall be retroactive to the date [of the written demand for hearing unless the order states otherwise] the moving party delivers a copy of the complaint to the domestic relations section or other appropriate office with a demand for hearing. [If a demand for hearing appears conspicuously on the front of the divorce pleading, support or alimony pendente lite shall be awarded retroactive to the date of filing of that pleading and the matter shall be set promptly for hearing.

Official Note: At the time a hearing is demanded on the issue of support, a copy of the divorce pleading which contains that count must be delivered to the domestic relations section.]

[Explanatory Note—1983

Subdivision (a) as originally promulgated required each party to file a completed income and expense statement within thirty days after service of the pleading or petition containing a related claim for relief. That requirement remains unchanged. However, the rule is conformed to Support Rule 1910.11(c) by also requiring each party to file within the same thirty day period a copy of his or her most recent income tax return and the pay stubs for the preceding six months.

New subdivision (a)(2) incorporates by reference Discovery Rule 4019 governing sanctions. When there is a failure to file the documents required by subdivision (a)(1), the broad spectrum of sanctions which is available under Rule 4019(c) will permit the court to impose the sanction appropriate to the facts of the case.

Explanatory Comment—1991

The Divorce Code of 1980 has been modified by two recent Acts of Assembly. First, the Divorce Code was codified as part of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes by Act 1990-206. Second, the Divorce Code was substantially amended by Act 1988-13. Many of the rules of civil procedure covered by Recommendation 5 have been amended as a result of this legislation.

I. Codification. Old Rules 1920.1 through 1920.92 were promulgated in 1980 to implement the then recently enacted Divorce Code. The old rules contain many references to the Divorce Code which was enacted as part of the Unconsolidated Statutes, 23 P. S. § 101 et seq.

Act 206 of 1990, effective March 19, 1991, repealed the Divorce Code as enacted in 1980 and re-enacted it as Part IV of the Domestic Relations Code, 23 Pa.C.S. § 3101 et seq. Part IV of the Domestic Relations Code continues to be known as the Divorce Code. All statutory references in the new rules refer to the Divorce Code as it is now codified.

For more than ten years, the term "Section 201(c) or (d)" divorce has meant a "no-fault" divorce. Under the new codification, the grounds for a no-fault divorce will be found in Section 3301(c) and (d) of the Divorce Code, 23 Pa.C.S. § 3301(c) and (d). This is one example of the revisions to the divorce rules necessitated by the codification. These revisions merely correct obsolete references and effect no change in practice or procedure. The Committee is developing a proposal to review all of the domestic relations rules to include the new statutory references.

II. Spousal Support. Section 3104 (formerly Section 301) of the Divorce Code, which enumerates the various claims that may be joined in an action of divorce, was amended by Act 1988-13 to include "spousal support." Old Rule 1920.31, governing the joinder of related claims, has been amended to include the reference to spousal support in conformity with the Divorce Code as amended.

III. Living Separate and Apart. Section 3301(d) (formerly Section 301(d)) of the Divorce Code, providing for a no-fault divorce where the marriage is irretrievably broken and the parties have lived separate and apart, was amended by Act 1988-13 to reduce the waiting period from three years to two years. Old Rule 1920.72(c), governing the form of the plaintiff's affidavit, makes reference to this three year period. New Rule 1920.72(c) refers to the two year period of separation.

Old Rule 1920.42(a), governing the procedure in a divorce under Section 3301(d) of the Divorce Code, referred to "the plaintiff" filing an affidavit. Old Rule 1920.72(c) provides the form of the "Plaintiff's" affidavit. However, the Divorce Code uses the phrase "an affidavit has been filed." Consequently, there is no reason why a defendant may not file the affidavit to initiate the procedure for entering the decree. Old Rules 1920.42(a)(2) and (c)(2) and 1920.72(c) and (d) have been revised to allow filing of the affidavit by either party.

IV. Establishing Grounds for Divorce. New Section 3301(e) (formerly Section 201(e)) of the Divorce Code was added by Act 1988-13, and provides that, if grounds are established under the no-fault provisions of Sections 3301(c) or (d), "the court shall grant a divorce without requiring a hearing on any other grounds." A note has been added to old Rule 1920.51 referring to this provision.

V. Inventory; Pre-trial Statement. Section 3505(b) (formerly Section 403(b)) of the Divorce Code was enacted in 1980 provides for "an inventory and appraisal of all property owned or possessed at the time the action was commenced." Old Rule 1920.33 was adopted to implement this provision. The rule did not work very well. The inventory and appraisal were seldom filed within sixty days after a claim for determination and distribution of property is filed, as required by the rule. The old rule further required that the parties use the date the action was commenced as the valuation date. In most instances, the date the action was commenced was irrelevant for valuation purposes.

Section 3505(b)(1) of the Divorce Code, as amended by Act 1988-13, requires that the inventory and appraisal contain a list of property owned or possessed by either or both parties as of both the date of separation and a date thirty days prior to the date of the hearing on equitable distribution. There are three problems with this Divorce Code provision. First, the date of separation is frequently unclear and is itself a disputed issue in the action. Second, an inventory which contains values and liabilities as of a date thirty days prior to trial must be filed very late in the proceedings. Third, even if the date of separation is undisputed, a valuation as of that date is frequently irrelevant.

New Rules 1920.33 and 1920.75 rescind old Rules 1920.33 and 1920.75, and suspend Section 3505(b) as amended by Acts 1988-13 and 1990-206. New Rule 1920.33 substitutes the devices of an inventory and a pre-trial statement. New Rule 1920.75 provides a form for the inventory.

New Rule 1920.33(a) requires that each party file an inventory within ninety days after the filing of a claim for the distribution of property. The inventory must include "all property owned or possessed at the time the action was commenced," including all marital property, as well as all non-marital property. At this point in the action, a valuation of the property need not be provided.

New Rule 1920.75 provides for a form of inventory which is consistent with the requirements of new Rule 1920.33(a). For the most part, the only information that is required is a description of the property involved in the claim and the identification of the owners. The form of inventory retains the checklist of property found in the old rule.

New Rule 1920.33(b) requires each party to file and serve a pre-trial statement within the time specified by court order or the written direction of the master, or, if none, at least sixty days before the hearing on the claim for distribution of property. Eleven subparagraphs specify the content of the pre-trial statement. Preparation of the pre-trial statement requires the parties to prepare their cases well before trial, thus facilitating the presentation of evidence at the trial, and enhancing the prospect of early settlement.

Section 3505(b)(2) of the Divorce Code provides for the inventory and appraisal to contain a valuation of the property as of three dates: the date of acquisition, the date of separation and the date thirty days prior to the date of the hearing on equitable distribution. New Rule 1920.33(b)(1) does not specify a date for valuation. It provides that the pre-trial statement shall include a list of assets specifying "(i) the marital assets, their value, the date of valuation . . . and (ii) the non-marital assets, their value, the date of valuation . . ." It is incumbent upon each party to show why property should or should not be valued as of a certain date. Consequently, each party needs to provide the value as of the date he or she intends to prove at the hearing. Three valuations are generally unnecessary.

Section 3505(b)(3) of the Divorce Code provides for the inventory and appraisal to contain a list of liabilities of either or both parties as of thirty days prior to the date of the hearing on equitable distribution. New Rule 1920.33(b)(6) requires the pre-trial statement to include the current expense statement required in an action for support if the party filing the statement intends to offer testimony concerning his or her expenses. Subparagraph (10) of the new rule requires that the pre-trial statement includes "a list of marital debts including the amount of each debt as of the date of separation" and specified additional information concerning that debt. New Rule 1920.33 is therefore more comprehensive than the Divorce Code because it requires a current expense statement and a history of marital debt.

New Rule 1920.33(c) provides for sanctions as authorized by Discovery Rule 4019(c) for failure to file either the inventory or the pre-trial statement.

New Rule 1920.33(d) provides two evidentiary sanctions relating only to the pre-trial statement. Under subparagraph (1), a party may be barred from offering any testimony or introducing any evidence with regard to a matter not included in the statement. Subparagraph (2) provides that a party may not offer testimony or introduce evidence which "is inconsistent with or which goes beyond the fair scope of the information in the pre-trial statement."

The evidentiary sanctions set forth in new Rule 1920.33(d) do not apply to the inventory. Because the inventory is filed within ninety days after a claim has been made for equitable distribution, there may be insufficient time for the parties to learn of all of the property which may be subject to that claim. Consequently, the rule contemplates that any omissions will be corrected in the pre-trial statement.

Act 1988-13 added new Section 3502(e) (formerly Section 401(k)) to the Divorce Code relating to enforcement of an order or an agreement of equitable distribution. New Rule 1920.33(e) states that orders for equitable distribution entered pursuant to the Divorce Code may be enforced as provided by the rules governing actions for support and divorce, and under the Divorce Code. Remedies available for enforcement for equitable distribution orders are set forth in Divorce Code Sections 3323(b) (formerly Section 410(b)) and 3505(a) (formerly 403(a)), as well as Section 3502(e).

It should be noted that 23 Pa.C.S. § 3105(a) (formerly Section 401.1(a)) states that an agreement is enforceable by any means available pursuant to the Divorce Code for enforcement of an order, as though the agreement were an order of court, except as otherwise provided in the agreement. Thus, although new Rule 1920.33(e) refers only to enforcement of orders, it also applies to enforcement of agreements.

Explanatory Comment—1994

In its opinion in McKeown v. McKeown, 612 A.2d 1060 (Pa. Super. 1992), the court indicates that spousal support cannot be converted automatically to alimony pendente lite. However, in many cases there is a need for alimony pendente lite after the decree is entered, just as there is spousal support before. Because of the recent change in Rule 1910.16-1, which states that the amount of alimony pendente lite is determined according to the guidelines, there is little difference between the two. Although the entitlement defense continues to be available, if the dependent spouse is already receiving spousal support, the amended rule permits automatic conversion to alimony pendente lite upon entry of the decree.

Explanatory Comment—1995

New subdivision (a)(3) is added because, unlike a separate action for support, a count in a divorce which requires support is often filed in the interest of preserving every possible claim rather than because either party wishes to have that claim heard. Where a support claim is not pursued for months, or even years, allowing retroactivity to the date of filing in accordance with Rule 1910.17 can create massive and unjust arrearages.

This amendment permits retroactivity only for the period of time during which the support claim has been actively pursued. Thus, if a demand for support hearing appears on the front of a divorce pleading, support is available retroactive to the date of filing. However, where the demand does not appear on the front of the divorce pleading, retroactivity will be allowed only from the date upon which the hearing is eventually demanded.]

Rule 1920.33. Joinder of Related Claims. Distribution of Property. Enforcement.

* * * * *

(b) Within the time required by order of court or written directive of the master or, if none, at least sixty days before the scheduled hearing on the claim for the determination and distribution of property, each party shall file and serve upon the other party a pre-trial statement. The pre-trial statement shall include the following matters, together with any additional information required by special order of the court:

(1) a list of assets, which may be in chart form, specifying:

(i) the marital assets, their value, the date of the valuation, whether any portion of the value is non-marital, and any liens or encumbrances thereon[,]; and

(ii) the non-marital assets, their value, the date of the valuation, and any liens or encumbrances thereon;

(2) the name and address of each expert whom the party intends to call at trial as a witness. A report of each expert witness listed shall be attached to the pre-trial statement. The report shall describe the witness's qualifications and experience and state the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion;

(3) the name, address and a short summary of the testimony of each person, other than the party, whom the party intends to call at trial as a witness;

(4) a list of all of the exhibits which the party expects to offer in evidence, each containing an identifying mark. Any exhibits that do not exceed three pages shall be attached to the pre-trial statement, and any exhibits which exceed three pages shall be described;

(5) the party's gross income from all sources, each payroll deduction, and the party's net income, including the party's most recent state and federal income tax returns and pay stubs;

(6) if the party intends to offer any testimony as to his or her expenses, [a current expense statement] an Expense Statement in the form required by [the practice and procedure governing an action in support] Rule 1910.27(c)(2)(B);

* * * * *

(e) An order distributing property under Section 3502 of the Divorce Code may be enforced as provided by the rules governing actions for support and divorce, and in the Divorce Code.

[Official Note: See, inter alia, Section 3323(b) of the Divorce Code relating to enforcement of the rights of any party under a decree, Section 3505(a) relating to injunction against disposition of property pending suit, and Section 3502(e) providing remedies for failure to comply with an order of equitable distribution or the terms of an agreement between the parties.]

Explanatory Comment—1994

23 Pa.C.S. § 3105(a) states that an agreement is enforceable by any means available pursuant to the Divorce Code for enforcement on an order, as though the agreement were an order of court, except as otherwise provided in the agreement. Thus, although Rule 1920.33 refers only to enforcement of orders, it also applies to enforcement of agreements.

Rule 1920.54. Hearing by Master. Report. Related Claims.

(a) If claims for child support, alimony pendente lite, or counsel fees and expenses have been referred to a master pursuant to Rule 1920.51(a), the master's report shall contain separate sections captioned "Child Support," "Alimony Pendente Lite," or "Counsel Fees and Expenses" as appropriate. The report may be in narrative form stating the reasons for the recommendation and shall include a proposed order stating:

(1) the amount of support or alimony pendente lite[,];

(2) by and for whom it shall be paid[,]; and

(3) the effective date of the order.

The [income and expense statements] Income and Expense Statements shall be attached to the report.

TITLE 231. RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

PART I. GENERAL

CHAPTER 1915. ACTIONS FOR CUSTODY, PARTIAL CUSTODY AND VISITATION OF MINOR CHILDREN

Rule 1915.8. Physical and Mental Examination of Persons.

(a) The court may order the [child or a party] child(ren) and/or either and/or both parties to submit to and fully cooperate in an evaluation by an appropriate expert or experts. The order, which shall be substantially in the form set forth in Rule 1915.18, may be made upon the court's own motion or [on] upon the motion of a party with reasonable notice to the person to be examined, [and] or by agreement of the parties. The order shall specify the place, manner, conditions and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it [is to] shall be made and to whom distributed. In entering an order directing an evaluation pursuant to this rule, the court shall consider all appropriate factors including the following, if applicable:

(1) the allocation of the costs, including insurance coverage, if any, attendant to the undertaking of the evaluation and preparation of the resultant report and court testimony of any appointed expert;

(2) the execution of appropriate authorizations to facilitate the examination;

(3) any deadlines imposed regarding the completion of the examination and payment of costs;

(4) the production of any report and of underlying data to counsel and/or any unrepresented party upon the completion of the examination;

(5) whether the expert shall be deemed an independent court-appointed expert and, if so, whether such expert shall be subject to cross-examination by all counsel and any unrepresented party.

(b) [Where the expert is appointed upon the court's motion] Unless otherwise directed by the court, the expert shall deliver to the court [and], to the attorneys of record[, or to the parties if there are no attorneys of record] and to any unrepresented party, copies of [a detailed written report] any reports arising from the evaluation setting out the findings, results of all tests made, diagnosis and conclusions [within the time provided in subdivision (d) of this rule]. No reports shall be filed of record. Any report which is prepared at the request of a party, with or without a court order, and upon which a party intends to rely at trial, must be delivered to the court and the other party at least thirty days before trial.

(c) [Where the expert evaluation is obtained upon motion of a party, the expert shall deliver to that party a detailed written report setting out the findings, results of all tests made, diagnosis and conclusions within the time provided in subdivision (d) of this rule.

(d) Each expert's report shall be filed and/or served

(1) within sixty days of the entry of the order where the county pays the expert, or

(2) within sixty days after full payment of the expert fee(s) where one or both parties are directed to pay.

(e) The court may assess the cost of the examination and report on any or all of the parties or as otherwise permitted by law.

(f) The order shall require that payment be made within twenty days of the date of the order.

(g) [If a party refuses to obey an order of court made under subdivision (a) of this rule, the court may make an order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting the party from introducing in evidence designated documents, things or testimony, or from introducing evidence of physical or mental condition, or such other order as is just. The willful failure or refusal of a party to comply with an order entered pursuant to this rule may also give rise to a finding of contempt and the imposition of such sanctions as may be deemed appropriate by the court, including, but not limited to, an adverse inference against the non-complying party.

[(h)] (d) A petition for contempt alleging failure to comply with an order entered pursuant to subdivision (a) of this rule shall be treated in an expedited manner.

[(i) Any report which is prepared at the request of a party, with or without a court order, and upon which a party intends to rely at trial, must be served upon the court and the opposing party thirty days before trial.

Explanatory Comment—1981

A child custody determination may often involve consideration of the mental and physical condition of both the parties to the proceeding and the child. Rule 1915.8 provides a procedure for the mental and physical examination of persons, similar to that provided by Discovery Rule 4010. One major difference between this rule and the Discovery Rule is the express statement that "the order may be made upon the court's own motion or on motion of a party . . ."

The power of the court to order a physical or mental examination on its own motion is a concrete example of the direction which custody law has taken. As expressed by Judge Lawrence W. Kaplan, "The Child Advocate in Custody Litigation," in PBI publication No. 1980-140, p. 86, supra:

The Superior Court, in exercising its actual adjudicative responsibility and perceived administrative stewardship over the custody law of Pennsylvania, has taken the unprecedented step of requiring the trial judge to develop the record where it is deficient for the parties' failure to fully explore the relevant issues. Lewis v. Lewis, 267 Pa. Super. 235, 406 A.2d 781 (1979). By imposing this requirement, Pennsylvania's custody law challenges bench and bar in a fashion unmatched in other areas of the law.

This challenge was noted by the editors of the Pennsylvania Family Lawyer, Vol. 1, No. 1, p. 3 (January 1980):

An increased substantial burden is being placed upon judges and attorneys to develop a custody case to its fullest potential to insure that a proper award will be made. There is an affirmative duty to develop a record and to conduct a thorough investigation with the aid of outside agencies.

The reason for the challenge imposed by the Superior Court is clearly stated by the Pennsylvania Family Lawyer, p. 7:

Custody cases are not akin to most other cases in the adversary process. The focus is not on parental rights but unrepresented children's rights.

The Superior Court has placed litigants to a custody dispute on notice that the court is bound to explore all facets of the action to determine the best interest of the child. Physical and mental condition of the parties and of the child is but one facet to be explored.

There are two additional points to be noted. First, subdivision (b) provides that the examining physician or psychologist is to deliver a copy of his report to both the court and the parties. Second, subdivision (b) provides sanctions which may be imposed upon a party who refuses to obey an order to submit to an examination.

Explanatory Comment—1994

In order to make a proper determination in a child custody case, the court often requires information which can only be supplied by an expert evaluation of the parties and the subject child. Rule 1915.8 provides a procedure for expert evaluation of persons. Unlike the civil discovery rule (R.C.P. 4010), Rule 1915.8 provides that expert evaluations may be ordered upon the court's own motion as well as the motion of a party.

The proposed revisions to Rule 1915.8 add definite time limits during which the cost of evaluations must be paid, the evaluation themselves completed, and the reports provided to the court and counsel. The time limits are imposed in response to complaints of unreasonable delays in the completion of evaluations. The rule also provides a range of sanctions which the court may impose for failure to comply with an order directing evaluations, and provides that a petition for contempt for failure to comply with an order entered under this rule is to be treated in an expedited fashion.]

Explanatory Comment—2007

This rule addresses the process for any number of expert evaluations a court may order in a custody case, including, but not limited to, physical, mental health, custody or drug and alcohol evaluations, and/or home studies. Since the initial promulgation of this rule in 1981, the frequency of utilizing professionals as expert witnesses in child custody litigation has increased considerably. Evaluations have served as a means to provide the court with a full and complete record and to facilitate settlement of the litigation.

The proposed revisions to Rule 1915.8 are intended to afford the trial court and the parties a more flexible and case-sensitive means of determining the scope and parameters of a physical and/or mental examination, including deadlines, costs, underlying data, etc. In many instances, the previous sixty-day deadline was impractical and ignored. While some cases demanded that the evaluation be completed in less than 60 days, others demanded far more time than that. The revisions to this rule also specifically permit the trial court to draw an adverse inference from one party's failure to comply with an order pursuant to this rule.

Rule 1915.18. Form of Order Directing Expert Examination and Report.

The order of court directing expert evaluation in a custody matter pursuant to Rule 1915.8 shall be in substantially the following form:

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Title 49—PROFESSIONAL AND VOCATIONAL STANDARDS

STATE BOARD OF OSTEOPATHIC MEDICINE [49 PA. CODE CH. 25] Respiratory Therapists

The State Board of Osteopathic Medicine (Board) amends §§ 25.502 and 25.509 (relating to definitions; and renewal of certification) and adds §§ 25.509a and 25.509b (relating to requirement of continuing education; and approved educational programs) to read as set forth in Annex A.

A. Effective Date

The final-form rulemaking will be effective upon publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

B. Statutory Authority

The final-form rulemaking implements the act of July 2, 2004 (No. 56, P. L. 486) (Act 56), which directs the Board to adopt, promulgate and enforce regulations that establish requirements for continuing education to be met by individuals holding certification as respiratory therapists in this Commonwealth.

C. Background and Purpose

Act 56, which became effective August 31, 2004, amended the Osteopathic Medical Practice Act (act) (63 P. S. § 271.1—271.18) by adding section 10.2(f) of the act (63 P. S. § 271.10b(f)) to provide for the continuing education of respiratory therapists. The Board is amending its regulations to establish requirements for completion of continuing education for the practice of respiratory therapists.

D. Summary of Comments and Responses to Proposed Rulemaking

Proposed rulemaking was published at 35 Pa.B. 5523 (October 8, 2005). The Board received comments from the House Professional Licensure Committee (HPLC), the Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) and the Pennsylvania Society for Respiratory Care (PSRC).

The HPLC and IRRC requested that the Board clearly state its intention that the continuing education requirements, as set forth in § 25.509a, would be effective starting with the biennial period that begins on November 1, 2006. For ease of administration, however, the Board, in final-form rulemaking, is requiring applicants for biennial renewal to complete 20 hours of continuing education beginning January 1, 2007, through December 31, 2008. Also, the commentators suggested that the Board allow nontraditional continuing education methods for a portion of the 20-hour continuing education requirement. The Board agreed with this suggestion and has amended the language to permit up to 10 of the 20 credits to be completed through nontraditional means such as pre-recorded presentations and Internet-based presentations.

The HPLC recommended that the Board substitute the language in section 10.2(f)(3) of the act for the language in proposed § 25.509a(b). The Board agreed and made this change. The HPLC and IRRC suggested adding the words “all or a portion” after the word “waive” in § 25.509a(c) so that the language accurately tracks section 10.2(f)(4) of the act. The Board agreed with this suggestion and amended the language accordingly. Also, the HPLC and IRRC suggested that the Board include in § 25.509a(c) specific language from section 10.2(f)(4) of the act pertaining to waiver of continuing education. The Board agreed with this suggestion and added language accordingly.

The HPLC asked the Board to consider clarifying the meaning of “advanced course work in respiratory care” in § 25.509b(b). The Board agreed and added language clarifying that advanced course work is course work beyond the academic requirements necessary for certification as a respiratory care practitioner.

The PSRC asked that the Board consider requiring at least 1 continuing education credit hour be completed in the category of ethics and 1 credit hour be completed in the category of patient safety. The Board agreed and added this requirement in § 25.509a(a).

E. Fiscal Impact and Paperwork Requirements

The final-form rulemaking will have a fiscal and paperwork impact on the Commonwealth in that the Board will incur costs related to reviewing and approving continuing education courses for respiratory care practitioners.

F. Sunset Date

The Board continuously monitors its regulations. Therefore, no sunset date has been assigned.

G. Regulatory Review

Under section 5(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. § 745.5(a)), on September 26, 2005, the Board submitted a copy of the notice of proposed rulemaking, published at 35 Pa.B. 5523, to IRRC and the Chairpersons of the HPLC and the Senate Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure Committee (SCP/PLC) for review and comment.

Under section 5(c) of the Regulatory Review Act, IRRC, the HPLC and the SCP/PLC were provided with copies of the comments received during the public comment period, as well as other documents when requested. In preparing the final-form rulemaking, the Department has considered all comments from IRRC, the HPLC, the SCP/PLC and the public.

Under section 5.1(j.2) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. § 745.5a(j.2)), on October 3, 2006, the final-form rulemaking was approved by the HPLC. On October 18, 2006, the final-form rulemaking was deemed approved by the SCP/PLC. Under section 5.1(e) of the Regulatory Review Act, IRRC met on October 19, 2006, and approved the final-form rulemaking.

H. Contact Person

Interested persons may obtain information regarding the final-form rulemaking by writing to Beth Sender Michlovitz, Board Counsel, State Board of Osteopathic Medicine, P. O. Box 2649, Harrisburg, PA 17105-2649, bmichlovit@state.pa.us.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

[22 PA. CODE CH. 49]

Certification of Professional Personnel

The State Board of Education (Board) proposes to amend Chapter 49 (relating to certification of professional personnel) to read as set forth in Annex A. The Board is acting under the authority of Article XII and section 2603-B of the Public School Code of 1949 (code) (24 P. S. §§ 12-1201—12-1215 and 26-2603-B) and the act of May 29, 1931 (P. L. 210, No. 126) (24 P. S. §§ 1224—1231).

Purpose

Chapter 49 sets forth requirements for certification of professional personnel in public schools. The proposed rulemaking changes the scope of grade level certification requirements for new teachers of prekindergarten through grade three; grades four through eight; and for all grade levels for special education teachers to ensure that preparation is aligned with the academic content and developmental needs of students they will be teaching. The proposed rulemaking also focuses existing requirements for induction programs and continuing professional education to provide both new and current teachers with the knowledge and skills necessary to effectively provide instruction to diverse learners in inclusive classroom settings.

Background

At the September 21 and 22, 2005, meetings of the Board and its councils and committees, the Department of Education (Department), after considerable research and consultation with over 600 stakeholders, presented its recommendations to restructure teacher preparation and certification requirements. Most significant of these recommendations was a requirement that all new teachers hold dual certification in both their academic area and in special education. The Department also called for splitting the current elementary certificate into an early childhood certificate that would cover prekindergarten through grade three and an elementary certificate that would cover grades four through six.

Using the Department’s proposal as a starting point, the Board’s Chapter 49 Committee conducted three regional public roundtable meetings in Pittsburgh, Harrisburg and Allentown to provide interested individuals and organizations an opportunity to discuss the proposal with members of the Board. Interested individuals and organizations were also encouraged to provide written comments to the Board.

Based on discussions at the roundtables, written comments received and individual discussions among members of the Board and interested individuals, the Board developed its own new proposal. An invitational roundtable meeting was held in Harrisburg where individuals who attended one of the previous roundtable meetings were invited to discuss the new proposal. Based on these discussions, additional revisions were made to the Board's draft proposal. These were discussed at the November 2005 and January 2006 Board meetings. In March 2006, the chairperson of the Chapter 49 Committee and staff met with representatives of teacher education programs from about 20 independent colleges and universities to discuss the latest proposal.

Throughout this period, the chairperson of the Chapter 49 Committee and other members of the Board engaged in numerous discussions with individuals and organizational representatives. Additional refinements to the proposal were made and shared at the March 2006 Board meeting. Interested individuals and representatives of numerous organizations presented formal testimony at the hearings held in Downingtown, Harrisburg and Monroeville. Based on this testimony, additional refinements were made to the proposal. The Board announced its intention to adopt the regulations at its June 28-29, 2006 meetings.

Requirements of the Proposed Rulemaking

The proposed rulemaking amends the following sections.

Section 49.1 (relating to definitions) is amended by adding definitions for "community provider," "core academic subject" and "inclusive setting." The definitions of "diverse learner," "educational specialist" and "prekindergarten" are amended.

Section 49.13(b) (relating to policies) is amended to require that on or before January 1, 2010, teacher education programs include at least 9 credits or 270 hours of instruction on accommodations and adaptations for students with disabilities in an inclusive setting and at least 3 credits or 90 hours of instruction to address the instructional needs of English language learners. The content of the 9 credits or 270 hours of instruction would have to include instruction in literacy skills development and cognitive skill development for students with disabilities.

Section 49.14 (relating to approval of institutions) is amended to add language requiring institutions to demonstrate how instructional and clinical activities prepare candidates for teaching certificates to enable the achievement of all students, including diverse learners in an inclusive setting.

Section 49.16 (relating to approval of induction plans) is amended to add a requirement that induction programs include teachers in prekindergarten programs. The proposed rulemaking also directs the Department to establish guidelines for induction plans. This language puts long-standing practice into regulation. In addition, the Board proposes to add language that requires induction activities to address teaching diverse learners in inclusive settings.

Section 49.17 (relating to continuing professional development) is amended to add language directing the Secretary to establish guidelines for submission of the professional education plan. This proposed language puts long-standing practice into regulation. Proposed language also requires the plan to describe how all professional employees will participate in continuing education focused on teaching diverse learners in inclusive settings. In addition, proposed language directs school districts that operate prekindergarten programs through community providers to offer professional education opportunities to teachers in the prekindergarten program.

Section 49.18 (relating to assessment) is amended to add a requirement that candidates for a certificate in special education be assessed in the area of general knowledge.

Section 49.62b (relating to Program Endorsement Certificate) is amended to amend, for purposes of clarity and illustration, language regarding the Program Endorsement Certificate.

Section 49.83 (relating to Instructional II) is amended to use the term "credits." Also, language is added directing the Department to issue a Certification and Staffing Policy Guideline that establishes up to 6 credit requirements of the 24 required for each certificate.

Section 49.85(a) (relating to limitations) is amended to require that instructional certificates issued before January 1, 2012, adhere to the certificate structure outlined in paragraphs (1)–(6).

Section 49.85(b) is amended to require that instructional certificates issued on or after January 1, 2012, follow the new grade level limitations outlined as follows: Early Childhood—prekindergarten through grade three; Elementary/Middle—grades 4 through 8; Secondary—grades 7 through 12; Specialized Areas—prekindergarten through 12; Special Education/Primary—prekindergarten through 3; Special Education/Elementary/Middle—grades 4 through eight; Special Education Secondary—grades 7 through 12; and Special Education—hearing impaired, visually impaired and speech/language impaired—grades prekindergarten through 12.

Section 49.85(d) is added to grant the Secretary authority to grant exceptions between the Early Childhood and Early Childhood/Special Education and Elementary/Middle and Elementary/Middle/Special Education certificates for individual teachers on a case-by-case basis when requested by a school entity, based on guidelines established by the Secretary.

Section 49.85(e) is added to require that community provided prekindergarten services be provided by teachers certified in early childhood within 5 years for programs in place prior to the effective of adoption of this proposed rulemaking and 5 years from the start of services for newly contracted prekindergarten programs.

Section 49.85(f) is added to authorize the Secretary to grant Statewide exceptions to specific provisions in this section that address Statewide shortages of certified personnel when necessary to facilitate the transition to the revised provisions scheduled to be effective on January 1, 2012.

Section 49.86 (relating to accelerated program for Early Childhood and Elementary/Middle level certificateholders) would be added to direct the Department to establish standards for the establishment of accelerated programs of study to permit an Early Childhood certificateholder to earn an Elementary/Middle certificate and an Elementary/Middle certificateholder to earn an Early Childhood certificate through an approved Commonwealth institution.

Section 49.131 (relating to basic requirements for baccalaureate and nonbaccalaureate programs) is amended to add special education to content that must be included in teacher preparation programs for candidates for Vocational Education certificates.

Section 49.142 (relating to Vocational Instructional I) is amended to require, for Vocational I certificates issued on or after January 1, 2012, that at least 3 credits or 90 hours of the required 18 credits address accommodations and adaptations for diverse learners in an inclusive setting.

Section 49.143 (relating to Vocational Instructional II) is amended to add requirements that, of the 60 credits required for a holder of an Vocational I certificate to obtain the Vocational II certificate, at least 6 credits or 180 hours must address accommodations and adaptations for students with disabilities in an inclusive setting and at least 3 credits or 90 hours in teaching English language learners must be completed.

Miscellaneous

For purposes of teacher education programs and related requirements in §§ 49.13(b)(4)(i), 49.142(a)(3) and 49.143(2), 1 credit equals 30 hours of coursework. Applicable hours are limited to a combination of seat hours of classroom instruction, field observation experiences, major research assignments, and development and implementation of lesson plans with accommodations and adaptations for diverse learners in an inclusive setting.

Affected Parties

The proposed rulemaking will affect professional educators, public schools, teacher education programs and professional employees of the public schools of this Commonwealth (including intermediate units, area vocational-technical schools, public charter and alternative schools).

Cost and Paperwork Estimates

It is estimated that costs for implementation and compliance with the proposed rulemaking would total $3.23 million. These costs would be incurred by the 95 colleges and universities that offer Department-approved teacher education programs. The bulk of these costs represent staffing costs to programs currently without instructional resources with content expertise in providing instruction to diverse learners. The remaining costs would be for review and revision of degree course requirements and for the rewriting of certain course curricula.

Effective Date

The proposed rulemaking will become effective upon final-form publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Sunset Date

In accordance with its policy and practice respecting all regulations that it promulgates, the Board plans to review the effectiveness of Chapter 49 after 4 years. Therefore, no sunset date is necessary.

Regulatory Review

Under section 5(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. § 745.5(a)), on November 8, 2006, the Board submitted a copy of this proposed rulemaking and a copy of a Regulatory Analysis Form to the Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) and to the Chairpersons of the House and Senate Committees on Education. A copy of this material is available to the public upon request.

Under section 5(g) of the Regulatory Review Act, IRRC may convey any comments, recommendations or objections to the proposed rulemaking within 30 days of the close of the public comment period. The comments, recommendations or objections must specify the regulatory review criteria which have not been met. The Regulatory Review Act specifies detailed procedures for review, prior to final publication of the rulemaking, by the Board, the General Assembly and the Governor of comments, recommendations or objections raised.

Public Comments and Contact Person

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments, suggestions or objections regarding this proposed rulemaking to Jim Buckheit, Executive Director, State Board of Education, 333 Market Street, Harrisburg, PA 17126-0333, jrbuckheit@state.pa.us within 30 days following publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. Persons with disabilities who need an alternative means of providing public comment may make arrangements by calling Jim Buckheit, (717) 787-3787 or TDD (717) 787-7367.

LAND RECYCLING AND ENVIRONMENTAL REMEDIATION

UNDER ACT 2, 1995

PREAMBLE 1

Acknowledgment of Notices of Intent to Remediate Submitted under the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (35 P. S. §§ 6026.101—6026.908).

Sections 302—305 of the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (act) require the Department of Environmental Protection (Department) to publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin an acknowledgment noting receipt of Notices of Intent to Remediate. An acknowledgment of the receipt of a Notice of Intent to Remediate is used to identify a site where a person proposes to, or has been required to, respond to a release of a regulated substance at a site. Persons intending to use the Background Standard, Statewide Health Standard, the Site-Specific Standard or who intend to remediate a site as a special industrial area must file a Notice of Intent to Remediate with the Department. A Notice of Intent to Remediate filed with the Department provides a brief description of the location of the site, a list of known or suspected contaminants at the site, the proposed remediation measures for the site and a description of the intended future use of the site. A person who demonstrates attainment of one, a combination of the cleanup standards or who receives approval of a special industrial area remediation identified under the act will be relieved of further liability for the remediation of the site for any contamination identified in reports submitted to and approved by the Department. Furthermore, the person shall not be subject to citizen suits or other contribution actions brought by responsible persons not participating in the remediation.

Under sections 304(n)(1)(ii) and 305(c)(2) of the act, there is a 30-day public and municipal comment period for sites proposed for remediation using a Site-Specific Standard, in whole or in part, and for sites remediated as a special industrial area. This period begins when a summary of the Notice of Intent to Remediate is published in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the site. For the sites identified, proposed for remediation to a Site-Specific Standard or as a special industrial area, the municipality within which the site is located may request to be involved in the development of the remediation and reuse plans for the site if the request is made within 30 days of the date specified. During this comment period, the municipality may request that the person identified as the remediator of the site develop and implement a public involvement plan. Requests to be involved and comments should be directed to the remediator of the site.

For further information concerning the content of a Notice of Intent to Remediate, contact the environmental cleanup program manager in the Department regional office before which the notice appears. If information concerning this acknowledgment is required in an alternative form, contact the community relations coordinator at the appropriate regional office. TDD users may telephone the Department through the AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

PLAN APPROVAL AND OPERATING PERMIT APPLICATIONS

NEW SOURCES AND MODIFICATIONS

The Department of Environmental Protection (Department) has developed an "integrated" plan approval, State operating permit and Title V operating permit program. This integrated approach is designed to make the permitting process more efficient for the Department, the regulated community and the public. This approach allows the owner or operator of a facility to complete and submit all the permitting documents relevant to its application one time, affords an opportunity for public input and provides for sequential issuance of the necessary permits.

The Department has received applications for plan approvals and/or operating permits from the following facilities.

Copies of the applications, subsequently prepared draft permits, review summaries and other support materials are available for review in the regional office identified in this notice. Persons interested in reviewing the application files should contact the appropriate regional office to schedule an appointment.

Persons wishing to receive a copy of a proposed plan approval or operating permit must indicate their interest to the Department regional office within 30 days of the date of this notice and must file protests or comments on a proposed plan approval or operating permit within 30 days of the Department providing a copy of the proposed document to that person or within 30 days of its publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin, whichever comes first.

Interested persons may also request that a hearing be held concerning the proposed plan approval and operating permit. Comments or protests filed with the Department regional offices must include a concise statement of the objections to the issuance of the Plan approval or operating permit and relevant facts which serve as the basis for the objections. If the Department schedules a hearing, a notice will be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin at least 30 days prior the date of the hearing.

Persons with a disability who wish to comment and require an auxiliary aid, service or other accommodation to participate should contact the regional office identified before the application. TDD users should contact the Department through the Pennsylvania AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

Final plan approvals and operating permits will contain terms and conditions to ensure that the source is constructed and operating in compliance with applicable requirements in 25 Pa. Code Chapters 121–143, the Federal Clean Air Act and regulations adopted under the act.

PLAN APPROVALS

Plan Approval Applications Received under the Air Pollution Control Act (35 P. S. §§ 4001–4015) and 25 Pa. Code Chapter 127, Subchapter B that may have special public interest. These applications are in review and no decision on disposition has been reached.

Northcentral Region: Air Quality Program, 208 West Third Street, Williamsport, PA 17701, David Aldenderfer, Program Manager, (570) 327-3637.

19-304-008E: Benton Foundry, Inc. (5297 SR 487, Benton, PA 17814-9550) for construction of a new 100 ton per hour sand muller, one mold making system and three PUCB core machines to be controlled by a packed bed amine scrubber at their facility in Sugarloaf Township, Columbia County. The plan approval application also proposes to modify existing sources at the foundry to increase production from 30,000 tons of metal to 45,000 tons of metal used to produce metal castings in any 12-consecutive month period. Additionally, the company proposes to install three new fabric collectors to control particulate emissions. The new fabric collectors will replace three existing fabric collectors, which used to control particulate emissions at the facility. The facility is a State-only facility.

The Department of Environmental Protection's (Department) review of the information contained in the application submitted by Benton Foundry indicates that the sources and the air-cleaning devices will comply with all applicable air quality requirements pertaining to air contamination sources and the emission of air contaminants, including the best available technology (BAT) requirements of 25 Pa. Code §§ 127.1 and 127.12, the fugitive air contaminant emission requirement of 25 Pa. Code § 123.1, the PM emission limitation of 25 Pa. Code § 123.13 and the visible emission limitation of 25 Pa. Code § 123.41. The plan approval, if issued, will subsequently be incorporated in an operating permit by means of an administrative amendment in accordance with 25 Pa. Code § 127.450 at a later date.

Based upon this finding, the Department proposes to issue plan approval for the construction of a new 100 ton per hour sand muller, one mold making system and three PUCB core machines to be controlled by a packed bed amine scrubber, the installation of the three new fabric collectors, and the modification of the existing foundry sources to increase the production at the foundry. LAND RECYCLING AND ENVIRONMENTAL REMEDIATION

PREAMBLE 2

The following plans and reports were submitted under the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (35 P. S. §§ 6026.101—6026.908).

Provisions of Chapter 3 of the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (act) require the Department of Environmental Protection (Department) to publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin a notice of submission of plans and reports. A final report is submitted to document cleanup of a release of a regulated substance at a site to one of the act's remediation standards. A final report provides a description of the site investigation to characterize the nature and extent of contaminants in environmental media, the basis for selecting the environmental media of concern, documentation supporting the selection of residential or nonresidential exposure factors, a description of the remediation performed and summaries of sampling analytical results which demonstrate that remediation has attained the cleanup standard selected. Submission of plans and reports, other than the final report, shall also be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. These include the remedial investigation report, risk assessment report and cleanup plan for a site-specific standard remediation. A remedial investigation report includes conclusions from the site investigation, concentration of regulated substances in environmental media; benefits of refuse of the property and, in some circumstances, a fate and transport analysis. If required, a risk assessment report describes potential adverse effects caused by the presence of regulated substances. If required, a cleanup plan evaluates the abilities of potential remedies to achieve remedy requirements.

For further information concerning plans or reports, contact the Environmental Cleanup Program manager in the Department regional office after which the notice of receipt of plans or reports appears. If information concerning plans or reports is required in an alternative form, contact the Community Relations Coordinator at the appropriate regional office. TDD users may telephone the Department through the AT&T Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

UNDER ACT 2, 1995

PREAMBLE 3

The Department has taken action on the following plans and reports under the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (35 P. S. §§ 6026.101—6026.908).

Provisions of 25 Pa. Code § 250.8, administration of the Land Recycling and Environmental Remediation Standards Act (act), require the Department of Environmental Protection (Department) to publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin a notice of final actions on plans and reports. A final report is submitted to document cleanup of a release of a regulated substance at a site to one of the remediation standards of the act. A final report provides a description of the site investigation to characterize the nature and extent of contaminants in environmental media, the basis of selecting the environmental media of concern, documentation supporting the selection of residential or nonresidential exposure factors, a description of the remediation performed and summaries of sampling methodology and analytical results which demonstrate that the remediation has attained the cleanup standard selected. Plans and reports required by provisions of the act for compliance with selection of remediation to a site-specific standard, in addition to a final report, include a remedial investigation report, risk assessment report and cleanup plan. A remedial investigation report includes conclusions from the site investigation, concentration of regulated substances in environmental media, benefits of refuse of the property and, in some circumstances, a fate and transport analysis. If required, a risk assessment report describes potential adverse effects caused by the presence of regulated substances. If required, a cleanup plan evaluates the abilities of potential remedies to achieve remedy requirements. The Department may approve or disapprove plans and reports submitted. This notice provides the Department's decision and, if relevant, the basis for disapproval.

For individuals who wish to challenge an action, appeals must reach the Board within 30 days. A lawyer is not needed to file an appeal with the Board.

Important legal rights are at stake, however, so individuals should show this notice to a lawyer at once. Persons who cannot afford a lawyer may qualify for free pro bono representation. Call the Secretary to the Board at (717) 787-3483 for more information.

Project Description: The Pennsylvania Infrastructure Investment Authority, which administers the Commonwealth's State Revolving Fund, is intended to be the funding source for this project. The Easton Suburban Water Authority proposes to increase permitted production capacity at the City of Easton's WTP to 16 mgd and upgrade all facilities necessary to reliably produce potable water. The project, known as the Easton WTP Phase Nos. 2—4 Improvement Project, is identified by Pennvest Project No. 480150300507-CW. The Department of Environmental Protection's (Department) review of the project and the information received in the Environmental Report for the project has not identified any significant, adverse environmental impact resulting from this proposal. The Department hereby approves the Environmental Assessment.

Settlement of NPDES Permit Appeal Pursuant to 25 Pa. Code § 92.61(g)

Borough of Etna v. Department of Environmental Protection; EHB Docket No. 2006-102-R

This matter involved the appeal of the National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System Permit No. PAG 066119 (NPDES General Permit) issued by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Environmental Protection (Department) to the Borough of Etna (Etna) to operate a combined sewer system and to discharge, under certain conditions, a combination of sewage and stormwater runoff from nine combined sewer overflows (CSOs) into Pine Creek, Little Pine Creek and the Allegheny River.

The Department's final action to resolve this NPDES General Permit appeal was a settlement as reflected by an October 13, 2006, Consent Order and Agreement (Agreement) entered into by the Department and Etna. The major provisions of the settlement require Etna to apply to the Department for an individual NPDES Permit and the Department to issue a draft individual NPDES Permit with a tailored condition that recognizes that one of the nine CSOs within Etna, Outfall A-68, is operated by the Allegheny County Sanitary Authority (Alcosan). The individual NPDES Permit will recognize that Etna conveys combined sewage flows to Outfall A-68 and that Etna has responsibilities to implement nine minimum controls and to participate in area-wide CSO control activities. In addition, Etna agreed to withdraw its appeal before the Environmental Hearing Board.

Copies of the full Agreement are in the possession of Bruce M. Herschlag, Assistant Counsel, Department of Environmental Protection, 400 Waterfront Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15222-4745, (412) 442-4262 and David G. Ries, Esquire, Thorp, Reed & Armstrong, One Oxford Center, 301 Grant Street, 14th Floor, Pittsburgh, PA 15219-1425, (412) 394-7787 and may be reviewed by any interested person on request during normal business hours.

Persons believing to be aggrieved by this Agreement have a right to appeal the Environmental Hearing Board (Board), Second Floor, Market Street State Office Building, 400 Market Street, P. O. Box 8457, Harrisburg, PA 17105-8457. Appeals must be filed within 30 days of this publication.

If information concerning this notice is required in an alternative form, contact the Secretary to the Board at (717) 787-3483. TDD users may telephone the Board through the AT&T Pennsylvania Relay Service at (800) 654-5984.

Availability of Technical Guidance

Technical guidance documents are available on the Department of Environmental Protection's (Department) website at www.depweb.state.pa.us (DEP Keywords: "Technical Guidance"). The "Final Documents" heading is the link to a menu of the various Department bureaus where each bureau's final technical guidance documents are posted. The "Draft Technical Guidance" heading is the link to the Department's draft technical guidance documents.

The Department will continue to revise its nonregulatory documents, as necessary, throughout 2006.

Ordering Paper Copies of Department Technical Guidance

The Department encourages the use of the Internet to view and download technical guidance documents. When this option is not available, persons can order a paper copy of any of the Department's draft or final technical guidance documents by contacting the Department at (717) 783-8727.

In addition, bound copies of some of the Department's documents are available as Department publications. Check with the appropriate bureau for more information about the availability of a particular document as a publication.

Changes to Technical Guidance Documents

Following is the current list of recent changes. Persons who have questions or comments about a particular document should call the contact person whose name and phone number is listed with each document.

Final Technical Guidance:

DEP ID: 563-2504-001 Title: Conventional Bonding for Land Reclamation—Coal. Description: This guidance, issued under the authority of the Surface Mining Conservation and Reclamation Act (52 P. S. §§ 1396.1—1396.19a) and the Coal Refuse Disposal Control Act (52 P. S. §§ 30.51—30.66), describes the regulatory and statutory requirements for determining bond amounts. It also establishes bond rates and the process for determining the bond for land reclamation. Substantive revisions to the guidance relating to the Annual Review requirement were advertised for public comment at 36 Pa.B. 3166 (June 24, 2006). During the 30-day public comment period, comments were received from one commentator, which were addressed by the Department in a separate Comment and Response document that is available on the Department's website (see web address). Since the advertisement of the draft substantive revisions to the guidance on June 24, 2006, the Department modified the guidance further. These changes, which are reflected in the final document, concern instructions for "Backfilling" which appear in Appendix C, under "Grading." Concerning the measurement of pit length and width, the Department clarified that these parameters may be measured at the coals to be mined. This revision was made because there are circumstances where measuring at the coal is not appropriate. Contact: William S. Allen, Jr., Department of Environmental Protection, Bureau of Mining and Reclamation, P. O. Box 8461, Rachel Carson State Office Building, 5th Floor, Harrisburg, PA 17105-8461, (717) 787-5103, wallen@state.pa.us. Effective Date: November 25, 2006.

Draft Technical Guidance

DEP ID: 392-0900-001 Title: Trading of Nutrient and Sediment Reduction Credits—Policy and Guidelines. Description: This guidance provides revisions to the Interim Final Trading of Nutrient and Sediment Reduction Credits—Policy and Guidelines (Interim Final Policy), published at 35 Pa.B. 5451 (October 2005). Public participation resulted in the following key revisions to the Interim Final Policy:

- Definitions have been made analogous to those in existing regulations and applicable program areas.
- The baseline for agriculture compliance and the standards thereof have been better defined.
- The application of trading ratios has been revised.
- A section on managing and tracking credits has been added.
- The use of credits for NPDES permits to meet effluent limits and sewage facilities planning requirements has been clarified.
- A section on water quality and Total Maximum Daily Loads has been added.
- Language on the conversion of farmlands for credits has been clarified.
- The approval procedure for credit-generating projects and trade proposals has been further refined.

The Department has engaged in extensive public participation and stakeholder workgroups generating significant input on implementation of the Chesapeake Bay tributary strategies and trading policy. Public participation included comments on the Interim Final Policy and input received at venues such as the Listening Sessions held in State College, Dauphin County and Lancaster County. Additionally, the Chesapeake Bay Tributary Strategy Steering Committee was expanded and reconvened in January 2006, to address the Tributary Strategy and potential revisions to the Department's nutrient and sediment trading program. Several workgroups were formed to address specific issues related to agriculture, stormwater, legacy sediment, trading, development and point sources. Proceedings from the workgroups can be found at www.dep.state.pa.us (DEP Keywords "Chesapeake Bay").

Appendix A provides nutrient trading criteria specific to the Chesapeake Bay Watershed. The attachments to Appendix A are implementation concepts derived from the proceedings from the point source and agriculture workgroups, which include the Point Source Allocation Strategy, Overview of Wastewater Planning Program Procedures, and the Overview of the Agriculture Sectors Participation in Nutrient Trading.

The Department seeks comment from the broader public on the draft revisions to the policy and on the implementation approaches contained in the attachments.

The Department notes that it is disinclined to adopt subsection b of the document entitled Overview of Point Source Allocation Strategy. This provision would allow a point source which has reduced nutrient levels to 8 mg/l Total Nitrogen (TN) and 1 mg/l Total Phosphorous (TP) to make an annual cash payment to the Department in lieu of directly purchasing nutrient reduction credits for the remaining reductions needed to meet the lower 6 mg/l TN and .8mg/l TP limits recommended by the Point Source Work Group. The Department questions the need for it to act as an intermediary for the purchase of credits, now that the web-based nutrient trading marketplace is functional. The approach runs counter to the strong recommendations from the Steering Committee and other experts, in favor of allowing the free market to achieve the most cost effective reductions.

It is the Department's responsibility to assure compliance with Federal and State water quality standards and may implement measures different from, or beyond those set forth in this policy, as may be necessary or appropriate. Written Comments: Interested persons may submit written comments on this draft document by December 15, 2006. Please note that the Interim Final Policy was previously open for public comment. Comments and proceedings from the previous comment period have been reviewed and posted on the Department's website at www.dep.state.pa.us. (DEP Keywords: Chesapeake Bay.) As all previous comments remain under consideration by the Department please limit submissions to new comments not previously submitted. Notice of availability of this draft document for public comment was posted on the Department's website at www.depweb.state.pa.us (DEP Keywords: "Update") on November 15, 2006. Comments submitted by facsimile will not be accepted. The Department will accept comments submitted by e-mail. A return name and address must be included in each e-mail transmission. Written comments should be submitted to the Department of Environmental Protection, Water Planning Office, P. O. Box 2063, Harrisburg, PA 17105-2063, or e-mail Ann Smith, annsmith@state.pa.us Effective Date: Upon publication of notice as final in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. DEPARTMENT OF MILITARY AND VETERANS AFFAIRS

Admissions of Nonveterans to State Veterans' Homes

The Department of Military and Veterans Affairs (Department) hereby issues this interpretation and guidance for managing admissions of applicants who are not recognized as veterans by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to the Commonwealth's six State veterans' homes. Nonveteran applicants may include spouses and unmarried surviving spouses of eligible veterans in certain circumstances.

In establishing the priorities for admission to State veterans' homes and in implementing admission policies and procedures, the Bureau for Veterans' Affairs is mindful of various requirements for State veterans' homes, including a limit on the percentage of nonveteran residents of the homes. Under VA guidelines, no more than 25% of the beds at a State veterans' home may be occupied by nonveterans at any time. Federal funding that supports the construction and operation of State veterans' homes depends on compliance with this limit.

Because the population of any one of six veterans' homes is variable, a shift in the proportion of veterans to nonveterans in the population of a particular home can occur in a variety of circumstances in a relatively short time. Accordingly, in managing the priorities of admissions to State veterans' homes, the Department will defer action on the admission of any nonveteran to any home where the nonveteran population at the time of the possible admission equals or exceeds 12%.

The applicants will be maintained in their place on the waiting list and may be offered admission after the nonveteran population stabilizes below 12% of the total capacity of the home.

Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board Regulation #125-45 (IRRC #2561)

General and Operative Provisions; Board Procedures

November 9, 2006

We submit for your consideration the following comments on the proposed rulemaking published in the September 9, 2006 Pennsylvania Bulletin. Our comments are based on criteria in Section 5.2 of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. § 745.5b). Section 5.1(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P. S. § 745.5a(a)) directs the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board (Board) to respond to all comments received from us or any other source.

1. Determining whether the regulation is in the public interest.

The Pennsylvania Horse Race Development Act (Act) (4 Pa.C.S.A. §§ 1101—1904) allowed the Board to promulgate temporary regulations until July 5, 2006. The temporary regulations were not subject to two statutes that guide agencies when promulgating regulations. Those statutes are the Commonwealth Documents Law (CDL) (45 P. S. §§ 1201—1208) and the Regulatory Review Act (RRA) (71 P. S. §§ 745.1—745.15). The Act requires all temporary regulations to be promulgated as permanent regulations by July 5, 2007. The conversion of temporary regulations to permanent regulations requires compliance with both the CDL and the RRA.

Section 5.2 of the RRA (71 P. S. § 745.5b) directs this Commission to determine whether a regulation is in the public interest. When making this determination, the Commission considers criteria such as economic or fiscal impact and reasonableness. To make that determination, the Commission must analyze the text of the proposed rulemaking and the reasons for the new or amended language. The Commission also considers the information a promulgating agency is required to provide under § 745.5(a) in the regulatory analysis form (RAF).

The Preamble to this rulemaking states that the Board proposes to replace four chapters of its temporary regulations with permanent regulations. The explanation of the regulations in the Preamble and the information contained on the RAF is not sufficient to allow this Commission to determine if the regulation is in the public interest. While we commend the Board for involving the regulated community in the development of the temporary regulations, we note that a complete explanation of the need for each chapter and section was not provided in that process. Furthermore, there is no detailed fiscal impact and cost benefit analysis in the RAF. Without this information, we cannot determine if this proposed regulation is in the public interest. In the Preamble and RAF submitted with the final-form rulemaking, the Board should provide more detailed information required under § 745.5(a) of the RRA.

CHAPTER 401. PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

2. Section 401.2. Construction.—Statutory authority; Implementation procedures.

Subsection (b) allows the Board to permit deviations from a requirement of Part VII of Title 58. Part VII pertains to all of the Board's regulations, both substantive and procedural. Under Subsection (c), 1 Pa. Code § 31.2 (relating to liberal construction) would be superseded by this section. 1 Pa. Code § 31.2 pertains only to rules of administrative practice and procedure. What is the Board's statutory authority for granting a waiver from a substantive requirement? Absent specific statutory authority, Subsection (b) should be deleted in its entirety and Subsection (c) should be amended to only reference Subsection (a).

If the Board has statutory authority to grant waivers of substantive requirements, the procedures for requesting and considering a waiver must be included in the final-form regulation. In addition, the final-form regulation must address who can request such a waiver and what criteria the Board will apply to determine if a waiver will be granted.

3. Section 401.3. Definitions.—Statutory authority; Implementation procedures; Clarity.

Gaming employee

Paragraph (i)(J) references personnel with SLOTS Link security administrator access and responsibilities. The term "SLOTS Link" is not clear. This term should be defined in the final-form regulation.

Under Paragraphs (ii) and (iii), certain employees of a manufacturer will be considered "gaming employees." The definition of "gaming employee" found in § 1103 of the Act (4 Pa.C.S.A. § 1103) references only slot machine and supplier licensees. What is the Board's statutory authority for including certain employees of licensed manufacturers in this definition?

Paragraph (iv) states that "other employees as determined by the Board" may be considered a "gaming employee." This provision lacks specificity and would make compliance with the regulation difficult for the regulated community. The final-form regulation should either delete this paragraph or list who the other employees are.

Key employee

This definition deviates from the statutory definition found in the Act in that paragraph (ii) of the regulatory definition includes manufacturer and supplier licensees. What is the Board's statutory authority for including these licensees in the definition of "key employee"?

In addition, the statutory definition (§ 1103 of the Act (4 Pa.C.S.A. § 1103)) of this term includes the position of “director of cage and or credit operations.” Under Paragraph (i), why was “credit operations” not included in the regulatory definition?

Licensed entity

This term is defined as: “A person, other than a natural person, licensed by the Board under this part.” The phrase “other than a natural person” is not included in the statutory definition. The statutory definition includes the phrase “other person” and the definition of “person” in the Statutory Construction Act (1 Pa.C.S.A. §§ 1901—1991) includes “natural person.” What is the Board’s statutory authority to exclude a “natural person” as a licensed entity?

Manufacturer’s serial number

This definition states that the manufacturer’s serial numbers will be affixed to the outside of the slot machine cabinet in a location approved by the Board. This is a substantive provision. Substantive provisions in definitions are not enforceable. We recommend that this provision be moved to a more appropriate section in the body of the regulation. The final-form regulation should also include the process the Board will use to approve locations of numbers affixed to slot machines.

Occupation permit

The statutory definition of this term is: “A permit authorizing an individual to be employed or work as a gaming employee at a licensed facility.” The regulatory definition excludes the phrase “at a licensed facility.” Will a gaming employee not working at licensed facility be required to obtain an occupation permit? If so, what is the Board’s statutory authority for imposing this requirement?

Vendor certification and vendor registration

The Board has explained that the difference between these terms is the amount of expected goods and services the vendor may annually provide to a facility. In order for the regulated community to know whether they should apply for registration or certification, we recommend that the final-form regulation include the monetary amounts that trigger the need to obtain vendor registration or vendor certification.

CHAPTER 403. BOARD OPERATIONS AND ORGANIZATION

4. Section 403.6. Temporary emergency orders.—Implementation procedures; Clarity.

Subsection (c)

This subsection lists specific circumstances when a temporary emergency order may be issued. Subsection (c)(1) states that a person “charged with or convicted of a felony, a criminal gaming offense, or crime of dishonesty or false statement or other disqualifying offense” may be subject to a temporary emergency order. The phrase “other disqualifying offense” lacks clarity. This phrase should be deleted or the offenses should be listed in the final-form regulation.

Subsection (g)

Subsection (g) references § 491.3 (relating to service by the Board). Section 491.3 is a temporary regulation. The temporary regulations will cease to exist as of July 5, 2007, unless they are promulgated as permanent regulations by that date. We recommend that the Board delete references to temporary regulations unless the pertinent temporary regulations have been promulgated as permanent regulations prior to the Board’s submittal of this final-form regulation. Other sections of this rulemaking that contain references to temporary regulations are: §§ 403.5(k)(2); 403.5(q); 403.5(r)(3) and 405.6(a).

Subsection (j)

This subsection pertains to the procedure for an informal hearing before the Executive Director or designee. Under Subsection (j)(5), how much time does the Executive Director have to render a decision and how will the person be notified of the decision? We recommend that the final-form regulation include provisions that address both of these concerns. This would allow a person that is the subject of a temporary emergency order to have a clear understanding of how this process works.

Subsection (m)

Under Subsection (m)(1), the Board may adopt a resolution ratifying or modifying the temporary emergency order. The Board has explained that the appeal process is contained in Chapter 494. The fact that a person has appeal rights and the procedure for filing an appeal should be referenced in the final-form regulation.

CHAPTER 405. BUREAU OF INVESTIGATIONS AND ENFORCEMENT

5. Section 405.1. General duties and powers.—Statutory authority; Clarity.

Paragraph (2) allows the Bureau of Investigation and Enforcement (Bureau) to investigate “licensees, permittees, registrants, certified vendors and other persons for potential violations of the act.” Section 1517(a)(1) of the Act (4 Pa.C.S.A § 1517(a)(1)) allows the Board to investigate “all licensees, permittees and applicants.” We question the Board’s statutory authority to investigate a person not subject to some form of Board approval. This should be explained in the Preamble to the final-form regulation.

6. Section 405.2. Information.—Statutory authority; Clarity.

Subsection 405.2(c) states that other state and local law enforcement agencies “shall” provide information requested by the Bureau relating to an applicant. Section 1517(f) (4 Pa.C.S.A. § 1517(f)) of the Act states that these agencies “may” obtain or provide that information. To be consistent with the Act, the word “shall” should be changed to “may.”

7. Section 405.6. Enforcement action.—Clarity.

This section allows the Office of Enforcement Counsel to initiate an enforcement action against a person holding a license, permit certification or registration issued by the Board. The term “enforcement action” is not defined. This term should be explained in the final-form regulation.

CHAPTER 407. PUBLIC ACCESS TO BOARD FILES

8. Section 407.1. Case files.—Reasonableness; Implementation procedures.

This section establishes the procedures the Board will follow when a request for confidential information has been made. A commentator has requested that a provision be added to this chapter that would require the Board to notify the applicant or holder of a license, permit, certification or registration of the request prior to the release of that holder’s confidential information. We believe this is a reasonable request that would allow the holder to better manage its business interests and recommend that the Board consider adding language that would allow for proper notification.

9. Miscellaneous clarity.

To be consistent with the rest of § 403.6, the phrase “or designee” should be added to § 403.6(h).

Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board Regulation #125-46 (IRRC #2562)

Recordkeeping and Fees

November 9, 2006

We submit for your consideration the following comments on the proposed rulemaking published in the September 9, 2006 Pennsylvania Bulletin. Our comments are based on criteria in Section 5.2 of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. § 745.5b). Section 5.1(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. § 745.5a(a)) directs the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board (Board) to respond to all comments received from us or any other source.

9. Determining whether the regulation is in the public interest.

The Pennsylvania Horse Race Development Act (Act) (4 Pa.C.S.A. §§ 1101—1904) allowed the Board to promulgate temporary regulations until July 5, 2006. The temporary regulations were not subject to two statutes that guide agencies when promulgating regulations. Those statutes are the Commonwealth Documents Law (CDL) (45 P.S. §§ 1201—1208) and the Regulatory Review Act (RRA) (71 P.S. §§ 745.1—745.15). The Act requires all temporary regulations to be promulgated as permanent regulations by July 5, 2007. The conversion of temporary regulations to permanent regulations requires compliance with both the CDL and the RRA.

Section 5.2 of the RRA (71 P.S. § 745.5b) directs this Commission to determine whether a regulation is in the public interest. When making this determination, the Commission considers criteria such as economic or fiscal impact and reasonableness. To make that determination, the Commission must analyze the text of the proposed rulemaking and the reasons for the new or amended language. The Commission also considers the information a promulgating agency is required to provide under § 745.5(a) in the regulatory analysis form (RAF).

The Preamble to this rulemaking states that the Board proposes to replace two chapters of its temporary regulations with permanent regulations. The explanation of the regulation in the Preamble and the information contained on the RAF is not sufficient to allow this Commission to determine if the regulation is in the public interest. While we commend the Board for involving the regulated community in the development of the temporary regulations, we note that a complete explanation of the need for each chapter and section was not provided in that process. Furthermore, there is no detailed fiscal impact and cost benefit analysis in the RAF. Without this information, we cannot determine if this proposed regulation is in the public interest. In the Preamble and RAF submitted with the final-form rulemaking, the Board should provide more detailed information required under § 745.5(a) of the RRA.

10. Section 471.1. Fees generally.—Implementation procedures; Fiscal impact.

Subsection (d) states that each application submitted to the Board must be accompanied by a fee to cover the cost of the initial investigation and processing of the application. Subsection (e) states that an applicant may be subject to additional fees, which are based on the actual expenses incurred by the Board in conducting the background investigations. The procedures for determining the additional fee amount and for requesting the additional fee are not included in the regulation. We recommend that these procedures be included in the final-form rulemaking.

11. Section 471.2. Schedules of fees and Section 471.3. Adjustment of fees.—Implementation procedures.

Section 1208(1) of the Act (4 Pa.C.S.A. § 1208(1)) provides the Board the power to levy and collect fees. These fees are in addition to the fees set by §§ 1208, 1209 and 1305 of the Act (4 Pa.C.S.A. §§ 1208, 1209 and 1305). Section 1208(2) of the Act (4 Pa.C.S.A. § 1208(2)) states the following:

Two years following enactment of this part, the board shall have the authority to increase each year any fee, charge, cost or administrative penalty, but not any criminal fine or penalty, provided in this part by an amount not to exceed an annual cost-of-living adjustment calculated by applying the percentage change in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (CPI-U) for the Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland area for the most recent 12-month period for which figures have been officially reported by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, immediately prior to the date the adjustment is due to take effect. (Emphasis added.)

Under § 471.2, the Board proposes to establish fees and publish those fees in the Pennsylvania Bulletin and on its website. Those fees are not set by regulation. Section 471.3 allows the Board to adjust fees, charges, costs or administrative penalties specified in the Act by an amount not to exceed an annual cost-of-living calculation provided in the Act.

We have three suggestions. First, we question how the Board will increase the fees under § 471.2. All fees, whether established by the Act or set by the Board, can only be increased by the mechanism found in § 1208(2) of the Act. To avoid any confusion on how the fees in § 471.2 will be increased, we recommend that § 471.3 be amended to state that all fee increases will be calculated using the mechanism contained in § 1208(2) of the Act. Second, the final-form regulations should indicate when the fee schedule will be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. Third, the Board’s website should be included in the final-form regulation.

Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board Regulation #125-47 (IRRC #2563)

Diversity

November 9, 2006

We submit for your consideration the following comments on the proposed rulemaking published in the September 9, 2006 Pennsylvania Bulletin. Our comments are based on criteria in Section 5.2 of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. § 745.5b). Section 5.1(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. § 745.5a(a)) directs the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board (Board) to respond to all comments received from us or any other source.

12. Determining whether the regulation is in the public interest.

The Pennsylvania Horse Race Development Act (Act) (4 Pa.C.S.A. §§ 1101—1904) allowed the Board to promulgate temporary regulations until July 5, 2006. The temporary regulations were not subject to two statutes that guide agencies when promulgating regulations. Those statutes are the Commonwealth Documents Law (CDL) (45 P. S. §§ 1201—1208) and the Regulatory Review Act (RRA) (71 P. S. §§ 745.1—745.15). The Act requires all temporary regulations to be promulgated as permanent regulations by July 5, 2007. The conversion of temporary regulations to permanent regulations requires compliance with both the CDL and the RRA.

Section 5.2 of the RRA (71 P. S. § 745.5b) directs this Commission to determine whether a regulation is in the public interest. When making this determination, the Commission considers criteria such as economic or fiscal impact and reasonableness. To make that determination, the Commission must analyze the text of the proposed rulemaking and the reasons for the new or amended language. The Commission also considers the information a promulgating agency is required to provide under § 745.5(a) in the regulatory analysis form (RAF).

The Preamble to this rulemaking states that the Board proposes to replace two chapters of its temporary regulations with permanent regulations. The explanation of the regulation in the Preamble and the information contained on the RAF is not sufficient to allow this Commission to determine if the regulation is in the public interest. While we commend the Board for involving the regulated community in the development of the temporary regulations, we note that a complete explanation of the need for each chapter and section was not provided in that process. Furthermore, there is no detailed fiscal impact and cost benefit analysis in the RAF. Without this information, we cannot determine if this proposed regulation is in the public interest. In the Preamble and RAF submitted with the final-form rulemaking, the Board should provide more detailed information required under § 745.5(a) of the RRA.

13. Section 481.1. Statement of purpose, policy and applicability.—Statutory authority.

Subsection (b) states that it is the policy of the Board to promote and ensure that regulated entities conduct all aspects of their operations in a manner that assures diversity of opportunity. This would include the provisions of goods and services utilized by regulated entities. Under Section 1212(a) of the Act (4 Pa.C.S.A. § 1212(a)), only slot machine licensees are required to meet the “provisions of goods and services” requirement. What is the Board’s statutory authority for requiring all regulated entities to assure diversity of opportunity “through the provisions of goods and services”?

14. Section 481.3. Diversity participation.—Clarity.

This section states that a regulated entity may use the list of minority and women’s business enterprises certified by the Department of General Services to establish the eligibility of an enterprise for the purpose of promoting and ensuring minority and women’s business participation. The inclusion of the word “may” in this provision implies that other methods for establishing the eligibility of a business would be acceptable. If other methods are available, they should be listed in the regulation. If other methods are not available, the word “may” should be changed to “shall.”

15. Section 481.4. Establishment of diversity plan.—Statutory authority; Possible conflict with or duplication of statutes or regulations; Implementation procedures; Reasonableness; Clarity.

Subsection (a)

This subsection states the following:

Each regulated entity shall include in its application for licensure or certification a diversity plan that establishes a separate goal of diversity in the ownership, participation and operation of, and employment at the regulated entity. The Board will determine whether the stated goals set forth in each diversity plan are reasonable and represent a good faith effort to assure that all persons are accorded equality of opportunity in contracting and employment by the regulated entity and its contractors, subcontractors, assignees, lessees and agents.

We have two concerns. First, we question why the Board is deviating from the language of the Act and the temporary regulations that allow an applicant to agree to develop a diversity plan. Section 1325(b)(1) of the Act (4 Pa.C.S.A. § 1325(b)(1)) states that a license or permit shall not be granted or renewed unless the Board finds that the applicant has developed and implemented or agreed to develop and implement a diversity plan. Section 423.3(a)(1)(i) of the Board’s temporary regulations contains similar language to Section 1325 (b)(1) of the Act.

Second, what criteria will the Board use to determine if the diversity plan is reasonable? The criteria should be included in the final-form regulation.

Subsection (b)

This subsection states that a regulated entity may demonstrate achievement of its “diversity goals” through one of two methods. One method is contracting or transacting directly with minority and women’s business enterprises. The other is contracting with a nonminority business enterprise under terms and conditions that establish a participation plan. We have three concerns. First, the term “diversity goal” should be defined in the final-form regulation.

Second, this section does not establish criteria that would allow the regulated entity to determine if they are satisfying the Board’s requirement of contracting or transacting enough business with the appropriate enterprises. In order for the regulated entity to know what the Board expects, the final-form regulation should include provisions that specify how the Board will determine if the entity has achieved its diversity goals.

Third, Subsection (b)(1) uses the phrase “contracting or transacting.” Subsection (b)(2) only uses the term “contracting.” For consistency, we recommend that one phrase or term be used.

16. Section 481.6. Diversity audits.—Implementation procedures; Clarity.

This section allows the Board to perform audits to ensure compliance with this chapter. We recommend that the final-form regulation include procedures that will be used to notify the regulated entity of the audit.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Title 55—PUBLIC WELFARE

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE

[55 PA. CODE CH. 41]

Medical Assistance Provider Appeal Procedures

The Department of Public Welfare (Department) adopts Chapter 41 (relating to Medical Assistance provider appeal procedures) to read as set forth in Annex A. This final-form rulemaking is adopted under the authority of 67 Pa.C.S. § 1106 (relating to regulations). The act of December 3, 2002 (P. L. 1147, No. 142) (Act 142) created 67 Pa.C.S. Chapter 11 (relating to Medical Assistance hearings and appeals). The proposed rulemaking was published at 34 Pa.B. 4447 (August 14, 2004).

Purpose of the Final-Form Rulemaking

The purpose of this final-form rulemaking is to ensure the just and speedy determination of Medical Assistance (MA) provider appeals.

Affected Organizations and Individuals

The final-form rulemaking affects the Department, the Bureau of Hearings and Appeals (Bureau), MA providers, private law firms and government attorneys who practice before the Bureau.

Accomplishments/Benefits

Parties who appear before the Bureau will be better informed of their rights, responsibilities and expectations in MA provider appeals and proceedings that are litigated before the Bureau.

Fiscal Impact

Public Sector

The final-form rulemaking will not impose additional costs on State and local governments.

Private Sector

The final-form rulemaking will not impose additional costs on the public sector.

General Public

The final-form rulemaking will not impose additional costs on the general public.

Paperwork Requirements

The final-form rulemaking will not require the completion of additional forms, reports and other paperwork.

Cross References

Part II of 1 Pa. Code (relating to the General Rules of Administrative Practice and Procedure) (GRAPP) and other applicable Departmental regulations apply to the practice and procedures in MA provider appeals, except as specifically superseded in relevant sections of the final-form rulemaking.

Effective Date

This final-form rulemaking will be effective upon publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Discussion of Comments and Major Changes

Following is a summary of the major comments received following publication of the proposed rulemaking and the Bureau's response to those comments. A summary of major changes from the proposed rulemaking is also included.

General—Regulations

A commentator suggested that the regulations do not achieve the intended statutory purpose, and that the regulations unreasonably and unnecessarily favors the Department's interest over those of providers.

Response

Consistent with 67 Pa.C.S. § 1106, Chapter 41 expressly guarantees the independence and impartiality of the Bureau hearing officers in deciding appeals. In considering the comments and drafting Chapter 41, the Bureau balanced the complexity of the adjudicative process against the time and expense associated with adjudicating appeals. Several changes, which are addressed as follows, were made in furtherance of balancing the interests and equities of the parties. For instance, proposed § 41.153(a) (relating to burden of proof and production) would have assigned the burden of proof to providers in all instances. However, after considering the comments, the Bureau has concluded that it is appropriate in some instances that the Department should bear the burden of proof, and § 41.153(a) has been amended to reflect that determination.

General—Regulations

A commentator suggested that Chapter 41 should require the Bureau to resolve provider payment and reimbursement decisions within a specific time period.

Response

Act 142 requires the Bureau to promptly adjudicate timely filed requests for hearing and to establish deadlines for interim and final actions by the Bureau and parties to any proceeding before the Bureau. Although Chapter 41 places no specific time limit for hearings, it does establish deadlines for pleadings, discovery and briefs, and for the Bureau to rule on dispositive motions and issue its determinations. Specific or numeric time limits for hearings do not take into account the unique or the complex nature of each appeal. In certain classes of appeals, § 41.92 (relating to expedited disposition procedure for certain appeals) provides for expedited appeal procedures. As written, the regulation contemplates that, unless the time frame is expanded due to joint case management motions, adjudications resolving the ordinary appeals generally will be adjudicated by the Bureau within 2 to 3 years of the time that the appeals are filed.

General—Regulations

One commentator requested clarification of the jurisdiction of the Bureau to resolve disputes.

Response

A Department action or decision is appealable only if the provider is "aggrieved" under 67 Pa.C.S. § 1102(a). For a provider to be aggrieved, the underlying adverse action must be adjudicative in character under 67 Pa.C.S. § 1101 (relating to definitions). "Adjudicative agency actions are those that affect one individual or a few individuals, and apply existing laws or regulations to facts that occurred prior to the adjudication." Small v. Horn, 585 Pa. 600, 722 A.2d 664 (1998). Act 142 specifies that hearings under the act only involve "adjudications of the Department relating to the administration of the [MA] Program” and that encompass “action[s] relating to a provider’s enrollment in, participation in, claims for payment or damages under or penalties imposed under the program.”

When the Department undertakes an adjudicative action, Act 142 and this regulation apply and the aggrieved provider must file a timely and proper request for hearing to contest the action. Because an adjudicative agency action may be undertaken by a subordinate official, Act 142 and this regulation supersede 1 Pa. Code § 35.20 (relating to appeals from actions of the staff), which would otherwise permit a provider to appeal the action of a subordinate officer directly to the Secretary of the Department (Secretary). Under Act 142 and this regulation, an appeal must be filed with the Bureau.

Adjudicative actions do not include agency actions that are legislative in character—that is, actions that result in rules of prospective effect and bind all, or at least a broad class of, citizens. Small v. Horn. Under existing Pennsylvania law, the issuance of regulations is a legislative act, not an “adjudication.” Laurel Lake Ass’n v. Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Comm’n, 710 A.2d 129, 132 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1998); Insurance Co. of North America v. Insurance Dept., 15 Pa.Cmwlth. 462, 327 A.2d 411 (1974). Consequently, a petition requesting the issuance, amendment or repeal of regulations does not involve an appealable adjudicative action and, therefore, would not fall within the scope of Act 142. Thus, the Bureau has no jurisdiction to consider these petitions, which should be filed under 1 Pa. Code § 35.18 (relating to petitions for issuance, amendment, waiver or deletion of regulations) and the GRAPP would apply in these matters.

The Bureau recognizes that a provider may request a waiver of a regulation or request declaratory relief without an underlying appealable action having been taken by the Department. As discussed as follows, these requests fall outside the scope of the jurisdiction conferred by Act 142. Instead, these requests must be made by petition under 1 Pa. Code § 35.18 and the GRAPP, which would apply in these matters.

So long as there is no underlying appealable “agency action,” the procedures governing petitions for relief are those in the GRAPP. When an appealable action is taken, however, Act 142 and the regulation will apply. Thus, the regulation requires that all issues and requests for relief relating to an appealable agency action, including requests for waiver of a regulation or a dispute over the applicability or meaning of a regulation or policy, must be set forth in a proper and timely request for hearing.

General—Regulations

Various commentators suggested that the Bureau possesses the power to waive the application of the Department’s regulations. In addition, the Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) suggested that 67 Pa.C.S. § 1105(a) (relating to determinations, review, appeal and enforcement) could be construed to grant these powers to the Bureau and stated that “the Department should clarify its rationale” for limiting the power to waive program requirements to the Secretary. Similarly, in commenting on § 41.191(b) (relating to determinations and recommendations by the Bureau), IRRC stated that the Department should either “delete language which restricts the Bureau’s authority to adjudicate waiver requests presented in a request for hearing, or explain its rationale for this restriction in the final-form regulation.”

Response

The Secretary is specifically vested under 67 Pa.C.S. § 1105(b)(3) with the discretionary authority to “waive compliance with program requirements, [in order] to promote fairness and the proper administration of the program.” While Act 142 grants various powers to the Bureau, it does not confer the power to waive regulations on Bureau. Since Act 142 expressly empowers the Secretary, but not the Bureau, with waiver authority, it demonstrates the General Assembly’s determination that the Bureau should not possess this authority. Moreover, that Act 142 mentions the Secretary’s waiver power as part of the appeal process that occurs only after the Bureau has concluded its work underscores the legislative intent that the waiver power should not be exercised by the Bureau in prior stages of the appeal proceedings.

The Department disagrees with IRRC’s view that the Bureau’s general authority to “adjudicate[e] . . . contested issues of fact and law,” and to issue “any appropriate order, decree or decision” implicitly and necessarily includes the power to waive compliance with the Department’s regulations. Regulations are rules of general applicability, adopted by an agency under its policymaking discretion and have the force and effect of law. They are binding on all providers and “substantial” but less-than-complete compliance with them is generally inadequate. Ashton Hall, Inc. v. Department of Public Welfare, 743 A.2d 529 (Pa. Cmwlth 1999). Thus, a waiver effectively excuses a provider from complying with a regulations with which all other providers are bound to comply.

The legislature’s decision to repose the exclusive authority to grant extraordinary relief in the Secretary is entirely reasonable and consistent with the preeminent role the legislature has assigned to the Secretary in administering the Commonwealth’s public health and welfare programs. Specifically, under section 403(a) of the Public Welfare Code (62 P.S. § 403(a)), the General Assembly has designated the Secretary as “the only person authorized to . . . interpret, or make specific the law administered by the department,” and has charged the Department which the Secretary manages with the duty to “maintain[] uniformity in the administration of public welfare . . . throughout the Commonwealth.” See also Pelton v. Department of Public Welfare, 514 Pa. 323, 330, 523 A.2d 1104, 1107 (1987) (“[I]t is the secretary alone who is authorized to establish and interpret rules, regulations and standards for eligibility [under the Public Welfare Code]”).

Further, the decision to grant or deny a waiver arises only after a determination is made that a provider is subject to the requirements of a regulation. Thus, it does not involve the determination of contested issues or fact or law. Rather, it is an issue involving the discretion and judgment of the policymaker. Conceptually, it is a post-hoc version of “prosecutorial discretion,” a power not possessed by adjudicative tribunals. See, for example, Commonwealth v. Kratsas, 564 Pa. 36, 764 A.2d 20 (1999). Unlike the Bureau, whose role is limited to serving as a quasi-judicial adjudicative tribunal, the Secretary has a multiplicity of roles and powers. Acting under quasi-judicial powers, the Secretary possesses the power to “affirm, reverse or modify the determination of the bureau” under 67 Pa.C.S. § 1105(b)(3). However, the Secretary’s power to “waive compliance with program requirements” is a discretionary power granted to the Secretary in the position as policymaker and, although Act 142 grants the Bureau the power to adjudicate disputed issues of fact and law, it does not grant the Bureau the power to overrule the discretionary policy judgments of the Secretary.

Similarly, the Department disagrees with IRRC's interpretation the Bureau's authority to enter "any appropriate order, decree or decision" includes the power to waive regulations. Preliminarily, the word "appropriate" is a term of limitation, not authorization. Moreover, this provision must be read in the context of the rest of the sentence, including the reference to "contested issues of fact and law." Because the question whether to grant a waiver is not a "disputed issue[] of fact [or] law," and because the Bureau has no jurisdiction to grant or deny a waiver request, an order that purported to do so would not be "appropriate."

General—Disparity of Sanctions

A commentator expressed concern that the sanctions that could be applied to providers were more severe than those that may be applied to the Department.

Response

The regulation is consistent with the allocation of the burden of proof in provider appeals, with Snyder Memorial Health Center v. Department of Public Welfare, 898 A.2d 1227 (Pa. Cmwlth 2006) and the rules of the Federal Provider Reimbursement Review Board. If the party that bears that burden is sanctioned and cannot present evidence, it follows that that party cannot carry its burden, in which case judgment must be entered for the other side. On the other hand, if the party that does not bear the burden of proof is sanctioned, the party with the burden of proof still bears that burden. Therefore, judgment can only be entered on behalf of the latter party if that party satisfies its burden. As discussed elsewhere, § 41.153(a) now establishes a limited exception to the general rule that the provider bears the burden of proof. In that limited exception, the sanction of dismissal applies to the Department, rather than to the provider, but only as to those issues on which the Department bears the burden of proof.

General—1 Pa. Code § 35.19. Petitions for declaratory orders.

A commentator has suggested that the preclusion of requests for declaratory relief, which would correct and prevent misinterpretation or misapplication of law, regulations, policies or other guidance or instructions by a program office, prevents the Bureau from making "any appropriate order, decree or decision" or to determine contested issues of facts and law and make a decision. The same commentator suggests that declaratory relief is often appropriate for the resolution of provider appeals, as contemplated by Act 142.

Response

Declaratory relief involves a determination of a justifiable controversy when the plaintiff is in doubt as to its legal rights and duties and is not (yet) aggrieved. If a provider is aggrieved by an adverse agency action, substantive relief on the merits is available, the order to resolve the issue is not declaratory, and declaratory relief is unnecessary and unavailable. If a nonaggrieved provider seeks declaratory relief, the provider must seek it through a petition for relief.

Declaratory relief is unavailable when an action is filed in anticipation of another proceedings. Department of General Services v. Frank Briscoe Co., Inc., 502 Pa. 449, 466 A.2d 1336 (1983). Therefore, if the provider has already been cited for a violation of the regulation, § 41.42(b) (relating to request for declaratory relief) requires that the issue raised in the petition must be set forth in the context of a request for hearing, and the petition for relief cannot be used to avoid or disrupt the Department's enforcement of the regulation.

Section 403(b) of the Public Welfare Code designates the Secretary as the sole person authorized to adopt orders that interpret or make specific the laws administered by the Department. Department of Public Welfare v. Presbyterian Medical Center of Oakmont, 877 A.2d 419 (Pa. 2005). The Department interprets this provision to mean that the power to grant declaratory relief is vested with the Secretary and not with the Bureau.

Several commentators and IRRC raised several concerns including that the effective date of the final-form rulemaking is contrary to law and inconsistent with the Secretary's expressed effective date and must be changed. They asserted that the regulation cannot be effective unless, and until, the Department amends the rulemaking to invoke its authority under 2 Pa.C.S. §§ 501—508 and 701—704 (relating to Administrative Agency Law) to adopt rules of procedure inconsistent with the GRAPP. They also asserted that the regulation does not result in an independent forum designed to hear other kinds of provider matters de novo.

Response

Chapter 41 is not exclusive and does not override current Departmental practice or regulations when Chapter 41 is silent. The Bureau is the statutorily mandated forum for hearing provider appeals under Act 142 and is charged by the same statute with the de novo hearing and adjudication of appeals in a fair and impartial manner. Chapter 41 has specifically been designed to advance the speedy and efficient adjudication of disputes. For due process reasons, Chapter 41 has been revised to be effective from the date of publication. Appeals filed prior to that date will be governed by the Bureau's standing practice order (SPO), published at 33 Pa.B 3053 (June 28, 2003) or by earlier rules of procedure in the GRAPP.

Act 142 grants to the Bureau the power to adopt these procedural regulations. The regulations are designed to address all types of provider appeals, including, but not limited to, the numerous appeals that are typically filed by nursing facility providers. The regulations strike an appropriate balance. Sections 501—508 and 701—704 of 2 Pa.C.S. do not limit or affect the authority granted by Act 142 and, to the extent that the regulations enacted under that authority expressly or implicitly supersede provisions in the GRAPP, these regulations necessarily prevail.

One commentator raised the concern that this provision is too vague and unfairly incorporates by reference unspecified Departmental regulations and this reference should be stricken.

Response

The individual sections of the regulation identify the provisions of the GRAPP and the Department's other regulations that are superseded. In the event that another regulation appears to conflict with provisions of Chapter 41, the Bureau will resolve these issues on a case by case basis.

One commentator raised the concern that this section may confuse providers or be used to preclude appeals brought by recipients of MA. The commentator further suggested the section be changed to show that appeals under Chapter 275 (relating to appeal and fair hearing and administrative disqualification hearings) remain unaffected by § 41.1(c). Another commentator suggested that § 41.1(c) conflicts with Act 142.

Response

Section 41.1(c) differentiates between the two classes of appeals: recipient appeals and provider appeals. Recipient appeals are filed under Chapter 275. Act 142 only pertains to provider appeals.

§ 41.2. Construction and application.

Two commentators stated that § 41.2 does not provide for conflicts between Act 142, the regulations and “other applicable Department regulations.” Another commentator found this section incomplete in that it fails to provide the Bureau with authority to waive strict compliance with procedures.

Response

Chapter 41 does not conflict with Act 142 but, if it were to conflict, the statutory provision in Act 142 would necessarily prevail. Chapter 41 governs practice and procedure in MA provider appeals. To the extent that other regulations of the Department also affect practice and procedure in those appeals, the Bureau will seek to harmonize those regulations with Chapter 41. In the event that a particular provision cannot be harmonized with Chapter 41 and does conflict, the provision of Chapter 41 will control, but only to the extent that it affects practice and procedure in provider appeals before the Bureau.

One commentator suggested § 41.3 redefines “hearing” as something different than Act 142. Another commentator and IRRC suggested that “senior Department official” is defined too broadly. A third commentator felt that the definitions excluded audit appeals from audits by the Attorney General.

Response

Act 142 uses “hearing” in a variety of ways. The definition of that term in § 41.3 reflects those uses.

Act 142 defines “hearing” to be a “proceeding” started by a provider under 67 Pa.C.S. § 1102(a). When used in this manner, the term is synonymous with terms such as “action,” “appeal” and “matter” used in 2 Pa.C.S. § 101 (relating to definitions). Subparagraph (i) of the definition of “hearing” in § 41.3 is consistent with that usage.

In some instances, Act 142 uses “hearing” to refer to parts of an action at which evidence is presented and interlocutory disputes are considered and resolved. For example, see 67 Pa.C.S. § 1102(e)(1) and (2) and 67 Pa.C.S. § 1104 (relating to subpoenas). Subparagraphs (ii) and (iii) of the definition of “hearing” reflect these uses. In addition, to improve the clarity of the regulation, the Bureau has retained the term “provider appeal” as a synonym for “hearing” as defined by 67 Pa.C.S. § 1101. As retained, the term does not encompass actions started by “petitions for relief.”

The term “senior Department official” has been amended to exclude clerical staff who work for the Secretary. To the extent that the Department uses an audit issued by the Auditor General to set rates or to take some other agency action from which a provider is aggrieved, the provider would be required to file a request for hearing with the Bureau contesting the findings in the audit. See Temple University v. Auditor General, 403 A.2d 1048 (Pa. Cmwlth 1979). Act 142 and Chapter 41 apply to these appeals.

Various commentators and IRRC expressed concerns about the apparent limitation of the Bureau’s jurisdiction in § 41.5(b) and (c). One commentator viewed § 41.5(e) as unnecessary and suggested the subsection should be deleted to avoid confusion and potential litigation with Medicaid providers over actions taken by Federal agencies.

Response

As previously discussed, the Bureau only has jurisdiction to hear a provider appeal if the provider aggrieved by an adjudicative act of the Department. Also as previously discussed, if an aggrieved provider files a request for hearing and, therein, asks that the application of a regulation or other program requirement be waived, 67 Pa.C.S. § 1105(b)(3) specifies that the relief may only be granted by the Secretary. Therefore, in a provider appeal, the role of the Bureau is limited in the manner in § 41.5(b). The process on waiver requests fulfills the requirements placed upon the Bureau by Act 142 to review independently, to make a record and to present a recommendation to the Secretary for final administrative action. Section 41.5(d) necessarily limits the jurisdiction of the Bureau to exclude proceedings which, although a Departmental action, require appeal to the Department of Health and Human Services under the Code of Federal Regulations.

IRRC questioned why a legal document could not be electronically submitted.

Response

The Bureau currently does not have the capacity to accept or to log large scale electronic filings. The Bureau will continually review technology and funding to see if and when electronic filings may be feasible.

One commentator suggested the verification requirement is unduly burdensome and overly broad and consequently should be eliminated.

Response

Courts routinely require litigants to verify facts in the documents that they file. See, for example, Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure (Pa.R.C.P.) 1024 (relating to verification). The Bureau has determined that verification should likewise be required in MA provider appeals. A fact contained in a pleading or legal document that has not been previously verified or stipulated by the parties must be verified in the specified form or in a form that substantially complies with this section. Therefore, § 41.15 imposes no more burden than would be required if 1 Pa. Code § 33.12 (relating to verifications) were applicable.

§ 41.15(c). Copies of documents.

One commentator suggested § 41.15(c) should be amended to provide a process by which protected information will be identified and redacted.

Response

Section 41.134 (relating to discovery motions) addresses the commentator’s concern. Section 41.134 allows for Motions in Limine to be entertained at any time, before, with or after filing if needed to protect information protected by law.

§ 41.21. Notice of agency actions.

Various commentators raised concerns of sufficiency of notice in § 41.21(a)(3), which permits notice in the Pennsylvania Bulletin of an agency action affecting a general class of providers.

Response

Generally, the Department notifies providers of agency action by first class mail. In some limited instances, however, the Department's regulations specify that the Department will notify providers of an appealable agency action by publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. For example, the Department annually publishes a public notice announcing the "peer group prices" for the nursing facilities enrolled in the MA Program and § 1187.141(a)(1) (relating to nursing facility's right to appeal and to a hearing) expressly permits the individual nursing facility providers to contest the peer group prices by filing appeals with the Bureau. In addition, this section permits the Department to provide notice by publication when other forms of notice are unavailable or impracticable.

§ 41.22. Service of pleadings and legal documents.

IRRC suggested changing the term "General Counsel" in § 41.22(1)(ii) and (2)(ii) to "Chief Counsel" to maintain consistency with § 41.112(b) (relating to filing of position paper).

Response

The subparagraphs were changed to correspond with IRRC's suggestion.

§ 41.25. Amendment or withdrawal of legal documents.

One commentator noted concern that § 41.25 may be interpreted as interfering with the right of a provider to withdraw its appeal and will generate unnecessary motion practice before the Bureau. Another commentator is concerned that § 41.25 incorrectly supersedes 1 Pa. Code §§ 33.41, 33.42 and 33.51 (relating to amendments; withdrawal or termination; and docket). The same commentator noted the Bureau has not followed the practice of other Commonwealth agencies in either adopting 1 Pa. Code § 33.51 or another, separate regulation with the same language which permits public access to docketing information.

Response

Section 41.25 does not concern the withdrawal of provider appeals. A separate section, § 41.83 (relating to withdrawal of provider appeals), provides a specific appeal procedure and does not generate motion practice. The Bureau is currently reviewing various methods of installing computers and software in the Bureau's main regional offices for the public to review docket information. Under 67 Pa.C.S. § 1102(E)(2)(viii), the Bureau has created a researchable electronic index of Act 142 decisions, which is accessible at www.dpw.state.pa.us/oa/bha/searchdecisions.asp.

§ 41.31(a). Request for hearing.

Two commentators raised a concern that, as presently worded, the section is too subjective as to what constitutes an appeal and that the section excludes the acts of Departmental subordinates as being appealable.

Response

Under 67 Pa.C.S. §§ 1101 and 1102(a) and (b)(2), the Department must have undertaken some affirmative action of an adjudicative nature for a right to a hearing to arise. Moreover, 67 Pa.C.S. § 1102(b)(2) requires that, for a provider's right to appeal to arise, the provider must have received a written notice "notice of departmental action" from the Department. An MA provider's right to appeal an agency action is not dependent on the management level at which the action was taken, but on whether the action was an "adjudication" and whether it has caused the provider to be "aggrieved."

§ 41.31(b). Request for hearing.

Several commentators asserted that the detail in pleading an appeal creates an onerous burden on a provider and suggested this subsection be amended to require that the Department answer hearing requests. One commentator indicated this subsection improperly restricts a provider's ability to seek declaratory relief before the Bureau.

Response

The Department's written notices of agency actions are required to and generally contain sufficient information for providers to determine if and why they disagree with an agency action. For example, when the Department issues a notice of termination under § 1101.77 (relating to enforcement actions by the Department), the notice states the basis for the action, the effective date of the action and whether and when the Department will consider re-enrolling the provider. See § 1101.77(d). Thus, providers are routinely provided with sufficient information to determine whether they are aggrieved and what issues they wish to pursue. The requirement for detailed pleadings and identification of specific issues arises from the technical nature of the subject matter and the need to narrow factual and legal issues for a quicker decision during the appeal process.

The requirement of detailed pleading by providers is not new. Department regulations have long required that all MA providers "explain in detail the reasons for [their] appeal" in their notices of appeal (§ 1101.84(a)(4) (relating to provider right of appeal)), and, since January 1996, have required that appeals by MA nursing facility providers "state in detail the reasons why the facility believes the [Department's] decision is factually or legally erroneous and the specific issues that the facility will raise in its appeal" (§ 1187.141(d)(2)).

Most providers know why they disagree with a Department determination when they file an appeal. In the relatively few instances when the reasons for the Department's actions may be unclear, the statute and the regulation allow providers an additional 90 days to evaluate the Department's determination. This additional period permits providers a sufficient amount of time to identify the bases for their appeals in the majority of cases.

The Department is not required to plead an answer to the appeal. This requirement would extend the adjudicatory timeline and is unnecessary, as the Department's answer would be duplicative of the notice of department determination, which announces the agency action being appealed. The unavailability of declaratory relief before the Bureau is previously explained.

§ 41.31(d)(4)(iii). Request for hearing.

IRRC suggested the subparagraph should include a reference to 1 Pa. Code § 35.19 (relating to petitions for declaratory orders).

Response

The Bureau changed § 41.31(d)(4)(iii) as suggested. § 41.31(e). Request for hearing.

Two commentators suggested it is unduly burdensome to require a provider to attach a copy of the entire written notice when there is no transmittal letter, the elimination of this requirement would reduce the amount of paperwork required of providers and that the Bureau should only require the attachment of those pages which indicate the rejection of the invoices.

Response

For the Bureau to determine whether it has jurisdiction to hear an appeal, the Bureau must examine the notice of departmental determination and, to facilitate the review, access to the entire notice is necessary. There is very little burden on providers to attach the adverse action notice. Since the SPO was promulgated in 2003, this requirement has not proven burdensome to providers. In most cases, the adverse action letter is one to three pages. In the limited cases of appeals that fall under § 41.92, the provider may provide the Remittance Advice Notice, the invoices and adverse action letter that indicates the rejection of the invoices.

§ 41.32. Timeliness and perfection of requests for hearing.

One commentator suggested the language should be revised to clarify that issues presented with sufficient specificity will not be dismissed.

Response

The provision is already sufficiently clear. Section 41.32(d) and (e) requires providers to identify the facts, issues and requested relief with specificity. By doing so, the Bureau and the opposing parties will understand why the appeal has been filed. If the provider meets the requirements of § 41.32(d) and (e), then the appeal will not be dismissed.

§ 41.32(a)(2). Timeliness and perfection of requests for hearing.

IRRC suggested the Department explain when and in what other manner would the Department give notice to the provider and when the Department would not contact a provider by mailing notice.

Response

The explanation of the Department's use of the Pennsylvania Bulletin to provide notice is set forth in the response to questions on § 41.21 (relating to notice of agency actions).

§ 41.32(c)(2)(ii). Timeliness and perfection of requests for hearing.

Two commentators suggested § 41.32(c)(2)(ii) should be deleted because there is no justification for precluding an amendment when the Department failed to provide a full and accurate disclosure and later discovered information contradicts the previously disclosed information.

Response

The statutory requirement that appeals be timely filed, and the limitation on amendments to those appeals as of right, is a jurisdictional requirement. J. C. v. Department of Public Welfare, 720 A.2d 193 (Pa. Cmwlth 1998); Divine Providence Hospital v. Department of Public Welfare, 463 A.2d 118 (Pa. Cmwlth 1983). When the Bureau published the proposed SPO, the 90-day amendment period would have made no allowance for amendments nunc pro tunc. Requiring the same nunc pro tunc showing for an amendment is consistent with Act 142 and adequately addresses the concerns of the commentators. By providing this exception, § 41.32(c)(2)(ii) reduces the likelihood of a need to reopen the record as provided for in § 41.201 (relating to reopening of record prior to adjudication).

§ 41.32(d). Timeliness and perfection of requests for hearing.

One commentator suggested this section is overly broad, divests the Bureau of its inherent discretion and should be revised to replace "shall" with "may."

Response

According to Act 142, the Bureau's jurisdiction is limited to appeals that are "timely filed" or appeals that satisfy the standard for being heard nunc pro tunc. In addition, the Bureau will only adjudicate the "factual and legal issues raised by a provider in the request for hearing . . ." See 67 Pa.C.S. § 1102(e)(2)(iii) and (vii). Under 67 Pa.C.S. § 1102(d), a provider can only amend its request for hearing as of right within 90 days of the date that it was originally filed. Section 41.33(d) (relating to appeals nunc pro tunc) reflects these limitations. The same limitations routinely appear in similar rules of court.

§ 41.32(e). Timeliness and perfection of requests for hearing.

One commentator and IRRC stated concerns that this section limits the inherent authority of the Bureau and compels the Bureau to dismiss an appeal without consideration of the relevant facts and circumstances.

Response

The Bureau's jurisdiction to hear providers' appeals exists under Act 142. Section 1102(e)(2)(iii) of 67 Pa.C.S. grants the Bureau the authority to "adjudicate timely filed requests for hearing." In addition, 67 Pa.C.S. § 1102(c) grants the Bureau the authority to hear appeals nunc pro tunc, but only if certain requirements are met. Read together, these provisions mean that, unless a provider makes a "written request . . . for a hearing nunc pro tunc," and satisfies the burden off "good cause shown," the Bureau has no jurisdiction to hear the untimely appeal. Therefore, it is the responsibility of the provider to present the Bureau with the "relevant facts and circumstances."

§ 41.32(f). Timeliness and perfection of requests for hearing.

One commentator suggested this section should be subject to the requirements of § 41.32(g), which requires the Bureau to issue a rule to show cause if the dismissal is based upon the Bureau's own motion. Another commentator and IRRC suggested this section limits the Bureau's inherent authority because it compels the Bureau to dismiss an appeal without consideration of the relevant facts and circumstances. One commentator suggested this section creates a potential for abuse by the Bureau because it does not require the Bureau to include a reason for the dismissal in its order.

Response

As previously discussed, the timeliness of an appeal is a jurisdictional requirement. Consequently, timeliness can be addressed by the Bureau sua sponte. Because a program office is required to serve its motions on the provider, after which the provider has the opportunity to file an appropriate response with the Bureau, § 41.32(f) and (g) only applies to a dismissal made by the Bureau on its own motion. If the Bureau believes the conditions of § 41.32(f) are met, the Bureau will issue a rule to show cause and allow the provider an opportunity to respond. Section 41.32(d) and (e) requires providers to identify the facts, issues and requested relief with specificity. By doing so, the Bureau and the opposing parties will understand why the appeal has been filed with the Bureau. If the provider meets the requirements of § 41.32(d) and (e), its appeal will not be dismissed. The Bureau's practice has always been to notify parties of the reasons for its orders.

One commentator suggested § 41.33 should include granting a hearing or an amendment nunc pro tunc when an intervening natural disaster or action of third parties make timely compliance impossible or unsafe. The commentator also suggested the Secretary may grant leave to a party to file a request for review of the Bureau when an intervening natural disaster or action of third parties makes timely compliance impossible or unsafe. The commentator also suggest that the section supersede §§ 1187.1(d) and 6210.14(b) (relating to policy; and time extensions).

Response

When considering the issue of appeals nunc pro tunc, the Bureau will apply the standards in Bass v. Commonwealth, 485 Pa. 256, 401 A.2d 113 (1979), and its progeny. These common law standards establish specific criteria to determine whether or not a delay in the filing of the appeal was caused by extraordinary circumstances involving fraud or some breakdown in the administrative process or non-negligent circumstances related to the appellant, his counsel or a third party. H.D. v. Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare, 751 A.2d 1216 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2000). The Bureau amended § 41.33 to supersede §§ 1187.1(d) and 6210.14, but only insofar as these sections affect the time for filing a provider appeal or for amending a provider appeal.

One commentator suggested this section precludes the beneficial effects of waiver requests. The commentator believes this section is inconsistent with the limitations on the Bureau's jurisdiction conceded in § 41.5(c) (relating to jurisdiction of the Bureau). Two other commentators suggested this section is beyond the scope of the rulemaking authority granted by Act 142 and this section improperly restricts the ability of a provider to obtain consideration of waivers. A fourth commentator suggested the Bureau should be required to provide notice to a provider of a nonconforming petition or request with the opportunity for revision rather than outright dismissal. IRRC suggested § 41.41(c) be clarified to specify the dismissal for failure to include the waiver petition will only occur in a given case.

Response

The Bureau's lack of jurisdiction to grant a waiver request and the process for addressing requests in the context of a request for hearing are previously discussed.

§ 41.42. Request for declaratory relief.

One commentator suggested this section fails to achieve a just, speedy and inexpensive resolution of issues and disputes, and it requires unnecessary procedures for the preservation of rights. The commentator proposed a change that sets up procedures when a request for declaratory order has been included in a request for hearing and the same request is also filed in a petition for relief. Another commentator suggested the section alters the nature of proceedings based on petitions for relief and declaratory relief that exceed the scope of Act 142.

Response

Declaratory relief involves a determination of a justifiable controversy when the plaintiff is in doubt as to its legal rights and duties and is not (yet) aggrieved. If a provider is aggrieved by an adverse agency action, substantive relief on the merits is available and declaratory relief is unnecessary and unavailable. If a nonaggrieved provider seeks declaratory relief, the provider must seek it through a petition for relief.

Declaratory relief is unavailable when an action is filed in anticipation of another proceeding. Department of General Services v. Frank Briscoe Co., Inc., 502 Pa. 449, 466 A.2d 1336 (1983). Therefore, if the provider has already been cited for a violation of the regulation, § 41.42(b) requires that the issue raised in the petition must be set forth in the context of a request for hearing and the petition for relief cannot be used to avoid or disrupt the Department's enforcement of the regulation.

§ 41.43. Request for issuance, amendment or deletion of regulations.

One commentator suggested this section conflicts with Act 142 by attempting to limit the Bureau's authority to conduct de novo review. IRRC suggested that clarity might be achieved if the section was amended to include citations to the GRAPP or other related regulations concerning procedures to filing for this type of relief.

Response

The decision to issue, amend or delete a regulation is a nonadjudicative policy decision and is not appealable. Laurel Lake Association, Inc. v. Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Commission, 710 A.2d 129 (Pa. Cmwlth 1998). This section merely declares a provider who seeks the issuance, amendment or deletion of a regulation needs to do so by filing a petition for relief. The section was changed to include reference citations to GRAPP.

IRRC commented that § 41.51(f) should include a list of examples from the Department as to what appropriate sanctions, other than costs, would be imposed on a party who files a petition for supercedeas in bad faith or on frivolous grounds.

Response

Other appropriate sanctions will be based on case law for similar sanctions within the judicial system and case law. One example is barring the attorney, who knowingly filed a bad faith or frivolous petition, from practicing before the Bureau. Several factors will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis such as the severity of the violation and the history of violations.

§ 41.53. Circumstances affecting grant or denial.

Three commentators suggested this section established an irrebuttable presumption that injury to the public health, safety or welfare "shall be deemed to exist" whenever State or Federal law or regulation requires that an action take effect prior to the final determination of an appeal. They also assert that this section unduly limits the authority of the Bureau to consider all relevant circumstances when determining whether a supercedeas should be issued. IRRC suggested the Department should clarify whether the elements in § 41.53(a) will always be considered or if a combination will be considered. IRRC also suggested the Department should include examples of or specific citations to State and Federal law that would be used as a basis for denying supersedeas.

Response

Except to the extent that case law indicates that less than all of the elements must be satisfied, a provider will be required to satisfy all of the elements in § 41.53(a) to obtain an order of supersedeas.

The second sentence of subsection (b) does not set forth a presumption. Rather, it encapsulates the well-established rule of law that a violation of law constitutes per se irreparable harm and that no further proof of harm is needed. Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission v. Israel, 356 Pa. 400, 52 A.2d 317 (1947). Likewise, if State or Federal law mandates a particular act, Act 142 does not grant the Bureau the power to bar or delay that act.

One commentator suggested this section should be revised to be consistent with 1 Pa. Code § 35.30 (relating to filing of petitions to intervene).

Response

To promote judicial economy, time constraints are necessary to provide a fair and expeditious hearing. Without a time constraint, a case could become delayed due to a last-minute intervention. This section allows the Bureau to extend the time period for an intervening party if good cause is shown and is similar to the process used in 1 Pa. Code § 35.30. Section 41.61 allows for filing of petitions to intervene after the deadline upon a showing of extraordinary circumstances and for good cause.

§ 41.71. Answers generally.

One commentator suggested the Department should be required to file answers to hearing requests in the same way a defendant answers a complaint. Several legislators noted the section should be amended because providers are required to file a detailed complaint, but the Department does not have to file an answer until discovery is complete.

Response

The Department previously will have notified the provider with an adverse action notice detailing the reasons for the Department's action. Requiring an answer by the Department to the request for a hearing would be unnecessary and redundant and would unnecessarily extend the timeline of the appeal process.

One commentator suggested this section should be revised to limit the discovery to both parties upon consolidation. Another commentator suggested this section should be amended to permit providers to consolidate requests for a hearing from the outset to ensure efficiency.

Response

This section does not limit the discovery available to providers under the regulation. This section compels the providers to comply with § 41.120 (relating to limitations on scope of discovery), which limits discovery for all of the parties involved in a particular case. If a provider is aggrieved by an action of the Department, the provider will be willing to file a request for a hearing by his own volition. Otherwise, one provider, who is truly aggrieved, may solicit other providers to join in the request for a hearing when the other providers are not truly injured by the action of the Department. This section ensures that providers will file appeals only when they are truly aggrieved by the actions of the Department. This section will prohibit providers from frivolously joining in hearing requests of other providers.

Two commentators suggested a voluntary withdrawal of an appeal should be without prejudice because this section is contrary to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a) (relating to voluntary dismissal; effect thereof). IRRC requested the Department explain why withdrawn appeals are with prejudice.

Response

A provider's power to withdraw an appeal is not the power to unilaterally suspend the matter until some later time of the provider's choosing. When a provider withdraws an appeal, the provider unilaterally terminates that appeal. Having abandoned the pursuit of its right to obtain quasi-judicial review of the Department's adverse action, the general rule is that the withdrawal is deemed to be with prejudice. Nonetheless, the Bureau has amended § 41.83(b) to allow for the possibility that, in certain instances, a withdrawn appeal might be reopened.

One commentator suggested revising this section to allow parties to opt into rather than opt out of the expedited procedures upon stipulation by the parties or upon motion with good cause shown. According to the commentator, good cause exists in utilization review cases when the payments were improper for either lack of medical necessity or lack of documentation demonstrating medical necessity or the recovery is based on provider misconduct. IRRC believes parties should be allowed to opt in rather than opt out with respect to expedited disposition.

Response

The section provides for an expedited procedure for provider appeals in these instances: the denial of claims for payment through the prior authorization process; the denial of requests for precertification; the recovery of overpayments or improper payments through the utilization review process; the denial of claims upon prepayment review; and the denial of claims for payment under § 1101.68 (relating to invoicing for services). This section facilitates the prompt resolution of disputes and permits an impartial hearing official from the Bureau to assess whether a case warrants a protracted proceeding. Otherwise, the provider would have too much authority to control the appeal process while the Department would not. The regulations do not preclude the Department or the provider from filing an appropriate motion with the Bureau if the facts of the case warrant. Forcing small providers to opt into the expedited proceeding would compel them to expend additional funds for the advice of legal counsel to make this judgment.

One commentator asserted that the disclosure process is not designed to assure a just, speedy and inexpensive determination of provider appeals and could be "subject to abuse" by the program office staff. The commentator also asserted that the burden rests upon the provider to find relevant information while not requiring the agency to produce it. IRRC suggests that both the Department and the provider must comply with § 41.111(f). One legislator noted that the section should be amended because the Department is not required to make the same specific disclosures as is required for the providers.

Response

To facilitate the expeditious disposition of cases, the section should equally apply to both the provider and to the Department. Otherwise, one party could obstruct the discovery process for its tactical advantage. Also, it protects the integrity and the fairness of the process. A party may file a motion with the Bureau if it perceives that the opposing party is in noncompliance and the Bureau will review each motion on a case-by-case basis. A party may file a motion under §§ 41.131—136 (relating to motions).

One commentator notes standards should be equal for both parties when filing prehearing position papers. Also, another commentator advised that both the Department and the provider should receive equivalent sanctions for failing to file position papers within a certain period (§ 41.112(a) and § 41.113(b) (relating to content of provider position paper)). IRRC believes equal penalties should be imposed for both providers and the program office for failing to file position papers timely.

Response

As set forth in § 41.153(a), the general rule is that the provider bears the burden of proving that the contested agency action is in error. Because the provider bears the burden of proof, if it fails to file its position paper without good cause within the time limits in the section, the Bureau will enter an order against that party. If the program office does not carry the burden of proof, its failure to file its position paper timely and without good cause does not create a situation when the provider is entitled to judgment in its favor as a matter of law. Therefore, in an instance such as this, the Bureau will bar the program office from presenting evidence and witnesses at the hearing.

In those situations when the Department bears the burden of proof, the effect of this rule is reversed and it is the Department that bears the risk of dismissal (but only as to those issues on which it bears the burden of proof). The section is revised to reflect the greater burden on the party carrying the burden of proof. Nothing in § 41.112 should be construed to disallow properly submitted impeachment evidence.

One commentator noted position papers cannot always quantify the amount in dispute because the Department has not published its database information. There was a suggestion the provider only be required to identify regulations that, if continued in effect, are applicable to determining amounts in the future.

Response

The position paper must state the relevant facts and present arguments setting forth the position of the party with the burden of proof. The section was amended to require the party carrying the burden of proof (as opposed to always being the provider) to state the relevant facts and present the appropriate arguments to set forth the party's position. That party must include the monetary amount in dispute. There are situations when the party carrying the burden of proof cannot specify the exact monetary amount in dispute but can identify regulations, which apply to ascertaining this amount at a future time. The section was amended to address situations when the failure to disclose is not the party's fault and must rely upon the opposing party or a third party to obtain this information.

One commentator noted §§ 41.113 and 41.114 fail to supersede the inconsistent requirements of 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.164 and 35.165 (relating to documents on file with agency; and public documents).

Response

Section 41.114 is amended to require the party that does not carry the burden of proof to present to the opposing party (that is, the party carrying the burden of proof) a copy of every document it will offer into evidence to support its position on each issue identified in its position paper. This section conflicts with 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.164 and 35.165, which do not require the party to produce and to copy documents which it will use at the hearing. Sections 41.113 and 41.114 were amended to supersede 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.164 and 35.165. This section was also amended to show it applies to the party that does not carry the burden of proof, referred to as the opposing party.

§ 41.115. Statement regarding expert opinions.

IRRC noted subsection (c) lists the requirements for expert opinion statements. This subsection should also include the expert's qualifications.

Response

The section delineates the requirements for expert opinion statements which include: an identification of the substance; the facts and the opinions to which the expert is expected to testify; the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify; an identification of the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify; summary of the grounds of the expert's opinion; and the signature of the expert. However, the section does not include the expert's qualifications. The section was revised to require the position paper to include a brief synopsis of the expert's qualifications or a current curriculum vitae. The expert's qualifications are essential in assessing whether one should consider the witness to be an expert or not.

One commentator noted parties should have the right to amend their witness lists for "good cause shown."

Response

As proposed, the section permitted the party to amend its position paper upon good cause shown, but the party would not have been allowed to amend less than 30 days before the hearing. The section was revised to permit amendments less than 30 days before the hearing if the party demonstrates good cause.

One commentator suggested good cause to permit the testimony of a witness not identified in a party's position paper should include instances such as the death of an identified witness or when an identified witness is no longer employed by the party and another individual functions in that capacity. Another commentator suggested § 41.117(b) should not apply if the party only uses the document solely for impeachment purposes. IRRC recommended there should be a good cause exception to offer testimony as well as documents and § 41.117(a) and (b) should not apply to documents and testimony solely used for impeachment purposes.

Response

The section was revised so that the parties do not need to identify documents or testimony which they are using for impeachment purposes or for rebuttal testimony. These documents are being used only to challenge or rebut the testimony of a witness and not as part of the party's substantive case.

IRRC suggested the Department should include specific citations to the relevant Pa.R.C.P. in the regulation.

Response

Section 41.119 was amended to include specific citations to the Pa.R.C.P.

§ 41.120. Limitations on scope of discovery.

One commentator noted there is no basis for a rule that automatically precludes the deposition of the Secretary if he is likely to have knowledge of discoverable information. Also, if a senior department official is likely to have discoverable information, then the senior department official should be obligated to appear for a deposition. Then, the Department would exercise complete control over this discovery process.

Response

The deliberations and policy decisions of the Secretary are protected by the deliberative process privilege. Commonwealth ex rel. Unified Judicial System v. Vartan, 557 Pa. 390, 733 A.2d 1258 (1999). Section 41.120(b) codifies that privilege and, under the rulemaking powers granted by Act 142, extends that privilege to encompass inquiries into purely factual matters. Therefore, unless the program office has named the Secretary to be one of its witnesses at the hearing, a provider cannot compel the Secretary to attend a deposition.

The protection afforded the Secretary is appropriate. First, it protects the Secretary's quasi-judicial role as the ultimate adjudicator in the case on review of the Bureau determination. In addition, lower-ranking Departmental officials are agents of the Secretary and those officials possess knowledge of procedures. Also, the provider could seek to depose the Secretary as a tool to intimidate the Department and to hinder the Secretary from performing other official duties. The same rationale applies to senior Department officials. If senior Department officials were involved in the agency action, there are provisions that will allow those individuals to be deposed.

One commentator and IRRC noted the word "or" should be inserted between "ordered by the Bureau" and "if the party learns."

Response

The section was revised to include the word "or" between "ordered by the Bureau" and "if the party learns."

§ 41.132. Actions on motions.

One commentator suggested this section should be revised to expressly supersede 1 Pa. Code § 35.180(a) (relating to action on motions).

Response

This section provides the Bureau will rule on dispositive motions within 60 days after receiving the moving party's reply to the nonmoving party's response if a reply is filed. If the moving party does not file a reply, the Bureau will rule on the dispositive motion within 60 days after the date on which the nonmoving party's response was due. Also, the Bureau will rule on all other motions within 30 days after the response is due. The Bureau will decide all prehearing motions within 20 days of the response. Chapter 41 only applies to MA provider appeals under § 41.1 (relating to scope). However, if the Bureau were to fail to rule on a motion within this time period, that failure is not deemed to be either a grant or a denial of the motion.

One commentator suggested amending the section to place the burden of proof on the Department in cases involving allegations of overpayment, violation of program regulations, imposition of sanctions or penalties and proposed termination of provider agreements. The same commentator suggested adding 2 Pa.C.S. §§ 501—508 and 701—704 to the statutory authority relied upon for these new rules. Two commentators suggested placing the burden of proof on providers in cases inconsistent with Act 142 and the Commonwealth's common law concerning the allocation of the burden of proof. One commentator requested the burden of proof be on the Department when the Department imposes a penalty. One commentator requested the program office should have the burden of proof. IRRC suggested the Department should describe if and when the shift in burden of proof occurs in any case. Three legislators requested amendments to the regulations because the regulations allegedly create a disparity between providers and the Department and the regulations are unfair if the providers always bear the burden of proof. One legislator suggested the party asserting the fact should carry the burden of proof instead of always placing the burden of proof on the MA providers. Several legislators noted that the section should be amended because they don't provide for de novo review for providers.

Response

Act 142 does not require that the burden of proof be borne by either the program office or the provider. Therefore, the Bureau possesses the discretion to allocate the burden of proof through the use of its rulemaking power. Augelli v. Department of Public Welfare, 468 A.2d 524, 525 (Pa. Cmwlth 1983). During the period that the SPO has been in effect, the burden of proof was invariably allocated to providers. This facilitated the expeditious resolution of appeals and it has worked well in practice.

Section 41.153(a) sets forth as a general rule that the provider bears the burden of proof on issues raised by it in its appeal. This comports with "the general rule . . . that the burden of proof is upon the party who, in substance, alleges that a thing is so, or, as it is more commonly put, the burden of proof rests upon the party having the affirmative of the issue as determined by the pleadings." Lincoln Intermediate Unit No. 12 v. Bermudian Springs School District, 65 Pa. Commw. 53, 441 A.2d 813 (1982). The acts of the Department are presumed to be valid and correct. Forbes Metropolitan Health System v. Department of Public Welfare, 558 A.2d 159 (Pa. Cmwlth 1988). In a provider appeal, the provider makes the affirmative assertion, that the contested agency action is invalid or incorrect.

However, after careful consideration of the comments, the section has been revised to reflect that the Department has the burden of proof if the notice of Departmental action asserts that the provider violated either of following provisions: section 1407(a)(1) of the Public Welfare Code (62 P. S. § 1407(a)(1)); or § 1101.75(a)(1) or (2) (relating to provider prohibited acts).

Generally, the laws and regulations administered by the Department do not include an element of scienter and, therefore, those laws and regulations can be enforced through administrative action without consideration of this element. Girard Prescription Center v Department of Public Welfare, 496 A.2d 83, 86 (Pa. Cmwlth 1985). Section 41.153(b) identifies the three provisions that are the exception to that general rule. To enforce these provisions through administrative action (as opposed to criminal prosecution or the beginning of a civil law suit), the Department must first make a determination that the provider acted with specific intent. In these instances, the Bureau finds that it is appropriate for the Department to bear the burden of proving that the provider violated the specified provisions. This shift of the burden of proof is consistent with the common law rule that fraud cannot be presumed, but must be proved. Section 41.153 was amended to account for this change in the burden of proof.

It is unnecessary to add specifically 2 Pa.C.S. §§ 501—508 and 701—704 to the statutory authority relied upon for these new rules because the regulation does not state that 2 Pa.C.S. §§ 501—508 and 701—704 is superseded by this regulation. The common law in this Commonwealth requires the application of 2 Pa.C.S. §§ 501—508 and 701—704 in cases involving Commonwealth agencies unless specifically superseded by regulation or statute. In addition, the powers enumerated in Act 142 provide sufficient authority.

One commentator asked whether this section expressly supersedes 1 Pa. Code § 35.137 (relating to oral examination).

Response

The section specifically supersedes 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.138 and 35.139 (relating to expert witnesses; and fees of witnesses). Section 41.161(a) concerns the admission of the written testimony of a witness, including expert witnesses instead of the witness testifying in person before the Bureau. The regulations do not supersede 1 Pa. Code § 35.137. The regulation at 1 Pa. Code § 35.137 refers to oral examination of a witness at a hearing and provides that “witnesses shall be examined orally unless the testimony is taken by deposition as provided in §§ 35.145—35.152 (relating to depositions) or the facts are stipulated in the manner provided in § 35.112 (relating to conferences to expedite hearings) or in § 35.155 (relating to presentation and effect of stipulations) or the testimony is submitted in prepared written form as provided in § 35.138 (relating to expert witnesses). Witnesses whose testimony is to be taken shall be sworn, or shall affirm, before their testimony shall be deemed evidence in the proceeding or any questions are put to them.” This section is in conformance with 1 Pa. Code § 35.137. However, this section adds to the provisions by specifying that a witness should be present for cross-examination or the parties must agree the witness’ presence at the hearing is not required.

IRRC asked that this section address the power which Act 142 granted to the Bureau to enforce subpoenas in Commonwealth Court, as specified in 67 Pa.C.S. § 1104(a).

Response

This section was not amended.

One commentator requested the definition of “presiding officer” be amended to indicate whether the appointed individual must be an employee of the Bureau or can be an employee of a program office. IRRC requested the Department explain the consequences resulting from non-compliance if a presiding officer engages in ex parte communication despite prohibition.

Response

The definition of “presiding officer” was added to § 41.3 (relating to definitions). A party who believes the presiding officer engaged in an inappropriate ex parte communication or is not acting in an independent manner from the Department may file a motion with supporting affidavits with the Director requesting the disqualification of the presiding officer from the specific appeal. The Director will review the facts and make an appropriate decision whether disqualification is appropriate.

§ 41.191(b). Determinations and recommendations by the Bureau.

One commentator suggests this section, in conjunction with § 41.5(b), creates a process inconsistent with Act 142 and requests the Department eliminate the section because Act 142 did not authorize a special waiver requests process. IRRC asked that the Department delete language restricting the Bureau’s authority to adjudicate waiver requests presented in a request for hearing, or that the Department provide a justification for this rule.

Response

As previously explained, only the Secretary possesses the power to waive the application of a regulation or other program requirement. Therefore, in the absence of a delegation of that power to the Bureau, the Bureau has no power to do this. When a provider includes a waiver request in its request for hearing, the Bureau’s role is to receive evidence from the parties on the question whether compliance with the program requirement should be waived, and to prepare a recommendation on that issue for the Secretary’s consideration.

One commentator requests the section be amended to specifically afford a complete remedy when justice requires reopening the record and considering previously unavailable material evidence. IRRC requested the Department explain if parties can file amended pleadings and position papers if the record is reopened.

Response

This section was amended to add an additional subsection. That subsection specifies that, if the Bureau elects to reopen the record, and upon written request or motion to the Bureau or sua sponte by the Bureau, a provider will be afforded the opportunity to file an amendment to its request for hearing and that both parties will be permitted to file amended position papers. If the submittal of amended position papers is allowed, they shall be submitted in the same order as provided for in § 41.112, although the Bureau may alter the timing of the submittals.

§ 41.212(f) and (i). Review of Bureau determinations.

One commentator requested clarification on subsections (f) and (i) as to when a request is deemed denied or approved by virtue of the Secretary's inaction.

Response

If a request for review of the Bureau's determination is not acted upon by the Secretary within 30 days of receipt, then the request to review the determination is denied. If, after requesting the review of a determination, the Secretary grants the request and begins a review process, that review will be completed within 180 days. If the Secretary fails to issue an order before the 180th day, then the review will be deemed denied as against the requestor.

§ 41.213. Review of the Bureau recommendations.

One commentator suggested Act 142 does not empower the Bureau to make recommendations under this section, which allows for differential treatment of waiver requests, as opposed to other types of requests for a hearing.

Response

As previously explained, the Bureau has no jurisdiction to grant or deny a provider's waiver request. Therefore, the most that the Bureau can do is create a record for the Secretary's consideration, and prepare a recommendation regarding the request.

One commentator noted Act 142 makes the Bureau's determination "binding upon" both parties unless the Secretary reviews the determination. Another commentator requested this section be amended to clearly enumerate the procedural requirements for judicial review.

Response

This section clearly indicates an aggrieved party who wishes to appeal for judicial review of either a final adjudication of the Bureau or the final order of the Secretary should refer to 2 Pa.C.S. Chapter 7 (relating to judicial review). If this section were altered or amended to specify the exact judicial body to which an appeal should be filed, then this section would work to supersede the statute. The statute more clearly specifies the procedural requirements for judicial review and a specification in this section would be redundant and potentially confusing.

Sunset Date

The Department is not establishing a sunset date for the regulations. The Department will continually monitor the regulations for effectiveness.

Regulatory Review Act

Under section 5(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. § 745.5(a)), on August 4, 2004, the Department submitted a copy of the notice of proposed rulemaking, published at 34 Pa.B. 4447, to IRRC and the Chairpersons of the House Committee on Health and Human Services and the Senate Committee on Public Health and Welfare for review and comment.

Under section 5(c) of the Regulatory Review Act, IRRC and the Committees were provided with copies of the comments received during the public comment period, as well as other documents when requested. In preparing the final-form rulemaking, the Department has considered all comments from IRRC, the House and Senate Committees and the public.

Under section 5.1(j.1) and (j.2) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. § 745.5a(j.1) and (j.2)), on October 3, 2006, the final-form rulemaking was deemed approved by the House and Senate Committees. Under section 5.1(e) of the Regulatory Review Act, IRRC met on October 19, 2006, and approved the final-form rulemaking.

Findings

The Department finds that:

(1) Public notice of proposed rulemaking has been given under sections 201 and 202 of the act of July 31, 1968 (P.L. 769, No. 240) (45 P.S. §§ 1201 and 1202) and the regulations promulgated thereunder, 1 Pa. Code §§ 7.1 and 7.2.

(2) Adoption of these regulations in the manner provided by THIS Order is necessary and appropriate for the administration and enforcement of 67 Pa.C.S. § 1106.

Order

The Department, acting under 67 Pa.C.S. § 1106, orders that:

(a) The regulations of the Department, 55 Pa. Code, are amended by adding §§ 41.1—41.7, 41.11—41.15, 41.21—41.25, 41.31—41.33, 41.41—41.44, 41.51—41.53, 41.61, 41.71, 41.72, 41.81—41.83, 41.91, 41.92, 41.101, 41.102, 41.111—41.123, 41.131—41.136, 41.141, 41.151—41.153, 41.161, 41.162, 41.171, 41.181, 41.191, 41.201 and 41.211—41.214 to read as set forth in Annex A.

(b) The Secretary shall submit this order and Annex A to the Office of General Counsel and Attorney General for approval as to legality and form as required by law.

(c) The Secretary shall certify and deposit this order and Annex A with the Legislative Reference Bureau as required by law.

ESTELLE B. RICHMAN,
Secretary

GENERAL PROVISIONS

(a) This chapter governs the practice and procedures in MA provider appeals commencing on November 25, 2006, or after the effective date of this chapter.

(b) In addition to this chapter, GRAPP and other applicable Departmental regulations apply to the practice and procedures in MA provider appeals, except as specifically superseded in relevant sections of this chapter.

(c) This chapter does not apply to appeals governed by Chapter 275 (relating to appeal and fair hearing and administrative disqualification hearings).

(a) This chapter shall be liberally construed to secure the just, speedy and inexpensive determination of provider appeals. At every stage of a provider appeal, the Bureau may disregard any error or defect of procedure which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties.

(b) To the extent that GRAPP applies in MA provider appeals:

(i) The term "agency" as used in 1 Pa. Code Part II means "Bureau."

(ii) The term "participant" as used in 1 Pa. Code Part II means "party."

(iii) The term "presiding officer" as used in 1 Pa. Code Part II means "presiding officer."

(a) The following words and terms, when used in this chapter, have the following meanings, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

Agency action—

(i) An adjudicative action of the Department or a program office that relates to the administration of the MA Program.

(ii) The term includes the actions identified in §§ 1101.84(a)—(c) and 1187.141(a) (relating to provider right of appeal; and nursing facility's right to appeal and to a hearing) and other actions relating to a provider's enrollment in, participation in, claims for payment or damages under or penalties imposed under the MA Program.

Bureau—The Bureau of Hearings and Appeals of the Department.

Department—The Department of Public Welfare.

Dispositive motion—

(i) A motion that seeks a final determination of one or more of the issues in a provider appeal without the need for hearing or further hearing.

(ii) The term includes the following:

(A) A motion to quash the provider appeal.

(B) A motion to dismiss the provider appeal.

(b) If a provider files a request for hearing by first-class mail, the United States postmark appearing upon the envelope in which the request for hearing was mailed shall be considered the filing date of that request for hearing. (ii) Both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The amendment is based upon additional information acquired after the expiration of the 90-day period that contradicts information previously disclosed by the Department or provides entirely new information not previously disclosed by the Department.

(B) The program office and other parties to the appeal will not be prejudiced if the amendment is allowed.

(d) A legal or factual objection or issue not raised in either a request for hearing filed within the time prescribed in subsection (a) or in an amended request for hearing filed under subsection (c) shall be deemed waived. A general objection to an agency action shall be deemed a failure to object and constitute a waiver of the objections and issues relating to an action.

(e) The Bureau will dismiss a request for hearing, either on its own motion or on motion of a program office, if a provider fails to file its request in accordance with the time limits specified in subsection (a).

(f) The Bureau will dismiss a request for hearing on its own motion or a motion of the program office if the following conditions are met:

PETITIONS

(a) A provider may include a waiver request in a petition for relief only if the regulation that is the subject of the waiver request is not a basis for an agency action involving the provider.

(b) If an agency action involving the provider depends, in whole or in part, upon the application of a regulation of the Department, a provider aggrieved by that agency action may only present a waiver request pertaining to that regulation in the context of a request for hearing filed in accordance with § 41.31 (relating to request for hearing).

(c) To the extent that the waiver sought by a provider in a petition for relief has been or could have been included in a request for hearing, the Bureau will dismiss the petition for relief.

(d) Subsections (a)—(c) supersede 1 Pa. Code § 35.18 (relating to petitions for issuance, amendment, waiver or deletion of regulations) to the extent that an appealable agency action is involved.

(a) A provider may include a request for declaratory relief in a petition for relief only if the relief sought by the provider would not modify or alter an agency action involving the provider.

(b) If the requested relief would modify an agency action involving the provider, the provider may only seek the relief in the context of a request for hearing filed in accordance with § 41.31 (relating to request for hearing).

(c) To the extent that a request for declaratory relief sought by a provider in a petition for relief has been or could have been included in a request for hearing, the Bureau will dismiss the petition for relief.

The sole means by which a provider may formally petition the Department for the issuance, amendment or deletion of a regulation or statement of policy is by filing a petition for relief under 1 Pa. Code § 35.18 (relating to petitions for issuance, amendment, waiver or deletion of regulations).

§ 41.44. Transfer of petition for relief.

(a) If a provider filed a petition for relief prior to the date of an agency action in which it has sought relief in connection with or relating to that agency action, the provider may file a motion to have the petition for relief transferred to the Bureau and deemed a request for hearing. The motion shall be filed within the time allowed for the filing of a request for a hearing specified in § 41.32(a) (relating to timeliness and perfection of requests for hearing).

(b) Subsection (a) supersedes 1 Pa. Code § 35.17 (relating to petitions generally) to the extent that an appealable agency action is involved.

SUPERSEDEAS

(a) The filing of a request for hearing does not act as an automatic supersedeas. However, a provider who has filed a request for hearing may petition the Bureau to grant a supersedeas of the agency action. The Bureau may, upon good cause shown, grant a provider's petition for supersedeas in accordance with § 41.53 (relating to circumstances affecting grant or denial).

(b) A petition for supersedeas must be set forth in writing and may be filed during a provider appeal.

(c) The Bureau will not issue a supersedeas without first conducting a hearing, but a hearing may be limited under subsection (e). The Bureau, upon motion or sua sponte, may direct that a prehearing conference be held before scheduling or holding a hearing on a supersedeas.

(d) A hearing on a supersedeas, if necessary, will be held expeditiously, if feasible within 2 weeks of the filing of the petition. In scheduling the hearing the Bureau will take into account the availability of the presiding officer and program office staff and the urgency and seriousness of the problem to which the order or action of the Department applies. If good cause is shown, the hearing will be held as soon as possible after the filing of the petition.

(e) If necessary to ensure prompt disposition, and at the discretion of the Bureau, a supersedeas hearing may be limited in time and format, with parties given a fixed amount of time to present their entire case, and with restricted rights of discovery or of cross-examination.

(f) The Bureau may impose costs or other appropriate sanctions on a party that files a petition for supersedeas in bad faith or on frivolous grounds.

(a) A petition for supersedeas must plead facts with particularity and be supported by one of the following:

(1) Affidavits prepared as specified in Pa.R.C.P. Nos. 76 and 1035.4 (relating to definitions; and motion for summary judgment), setting forth facts upon which issuance of the supersedeas may depend.

(2) An explanation of why affidavits have not accompanied the petition if no supporting affidavit is submitted with the petition for supersedeas.

(b) A petition for supersedeas must state with particularity the citations of legal authority the petitioner believes form the basis for the grant of supersedeas.

(c) A petition for supersedeas may be denied upon motion made before a supersedeas hearing or during the proceedings, or sua sponte, without hearing, for one of the following reasons:

(1) Lack of particularity of the facts pleaded.

(2) Lack of particularity or inapplicability of the legal authority cited as the basis for the grant of the supersedeas.

(3) An inadequately explained failure to support factual allegations by affidavit.

(4) A failure to state grounds sufficient for the granting of a supersedeas.

(a) The Bureau, in granting or denying a supersedeas, will be guided by relevant judicial precedent. Factors to be considered include the following:

(1) Irreparable harm to the provider.

(2) The likelihood of the provider prevailing on the merits.

(3) The likelihood of injury to the public or other parties.

(b) A supersedeas will not be issued if injury to the public health, safety or welfare exists or is threatened during the period when the supersedeas would be in effect. If State law or Federal law or regulation requires that an action take effect prior to the final determination of an appeal, injury to the public health, safety or welfare shall be deemed to exist.

(c) In granting a supersedeas, the Bureau may impose conditions that are warranted by the circumstances, including the filing of a bond or the posting or provision of other security.

INTERVENTION

(a) Petitions to intervene and notices of intervention in a provider appeal may be filed following the filing of a request for hearing but in no event later than 60 days from the filing date on the provider's request for hearing, unless for extraordinary circumstances and for good cause shown, the Bureau authorizes a late filing.

(b) Subsection (a) supersedes 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.23, 35.24 and 35.39—35.41.

ANSWERS

(a) An answer to a pleading is not required.

(b) Answers to legal documents, if permitted or required by this chapter, must be filed with the Bureau within 20 days after the date of service of the legal document, unless either of the following occurs:

(1) A different period is specifically required in this chapter.

(2) For cause, the Bureau with or without motion prescribes a different time, but in no case may an answer be required in less than 10 days after the date of service.

(c) Answers must be in writing and conform to the requirements of this chapter. Answers must admit or deny in detail each material fact asserted in the legal document answered and state clearly and concisely the facts and law relied upon.

(d) Subsections (a)—(c) supersede 1 Pa. Code § 35.35 (relating to answers to complaints and petitions).

§ 41.72. Answers to petitions to intervene.

(a) A party may file an answer to a petition to intervene, and in default thereof, may be deemed to have waived an objection to the granting of the petition.

(b) Answers shall be filed within 20 days after the date of service of the petition, unless for cause the Bureau with or without motion prescribes a different time.

(c) Subsections (a) and (b) supersede 1 Pa. Code § 35.36 (relating to answers to petitions to intervene).

CONSOLIDATION, AMENDMENT AND WITHDRAWAL OF APPEALS

(a) Each provider that wishes to appeal an agency action shall file an individual request for hearing in its own name, without joining another provider.

(b) The Bureau, on timely motion, may order that a provider appeal be consolidated with one or more other provider appeals if the Bureau determines that the provider appeals in question involve substantially similar or materially related issues of law or fact and that consolidation is otherwise appropriate.

(c) Consolidation is appropriate if it will not prejudice the ability of the nonmoving party to perform adequate discovery or to adequately present its claim or defense, and if it will not unduly delay the adjudication of the earlier-filed matter.

(d) A provider appeal will not be consolidated except upon motion filed by one or more parties.

(e) In addition to the general requirements for motions in §§ 41.131—41.136 (relating to motions), a motion for consolidation must include the following:

(1) Identification of the issues of law raised in each provider appeal and the extent to which each is shared or distinct.

(2) Identification of the material facts that serve as a basis for each appeal and the extent to which each of these facts is shared or distinct.

(3) Justification or advantages to support consolidation.

(f) In addition to the general requirements for answers to motions in § 41.72 (relating to answers to petitions to intervene), an answer to a motion for consolidation must explain how consolidation would, if allowed, adversely affect the nonmoving party's ability to conduct and complete discovery, or its ability to present its claims or defenses.

(g) A motion to consolidate will be considered untimely as to a provider appeal if it is filed after the date set for the conclusion of discovery in that provider appeal. An untimely motion to consolidate will only be granted with the consent of the nonmoving parties.

(h) If a provider seeks to consolidate its provider appeal with a provider appeal filed by a different provider, the motion for consolidation shall be deemed to be opposed by the other provider unless an affirmative statement to the contrary is set forth in the motion.

(i) A motion for consolidation and an answer thereto must be served on each person that is a party to the other provider appeals for which consolidation is sought.

(j) If the Bureau grants a provider's motion to consolidate, the discovery available to the providers in the consolidated appeals must, in the aggregate, comply with the limitations specified in § 41.120 (relating to limitations on scope of discovery).

(k) Subsections (a)—(j) supersede 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.45 and 35.122 (relating to consolidation; and consolidation of formal hearings).

§ 41.82. Amendments of requests for hearing.

(a) Amendments to a request for hearing will not be permitted except as specified in §§ 41.32(c) and 41.33(b) (relating to timeliness and perfection of requests for hearing; and appeals nunc pro tunc).

(b) Subsection (a) supersedes 1 Pa. Code § 35.48—35.50 (relating to amendments of pleading generally; amendments to conform to the evidence; and directed amendments).

(a) A provider may withdraw or end its provider appeal prior to adjudication by one of the following:

(1) The provider notifies the Bureau in writing that it is withdrawing its provider appeal.

(2) The parties to a provider appeal sign a written stipulation of settlement in which the provider agrees to withdraw the provider appeal.

(b) When a provider appeal is withdrawn prior to adjudication, the withdrawal shall be with prejudice, except that the appeal may be reopened if, on motion of the provider, the Bureau finds that the withdrawal of the appeal was reasonable and not done for dilatory or vexatious purposes, that the program office will not be prejudiced by the reopening, and that good cause exists for permitting the appeal to be re-opened.

(c) Unless the written notice or stipulation of settlement provides otherwise, a withdrawal of a provider appeal under this section shall be effective on the date the written notice or stipulation of settlement is received by the Bureau.

(d) Subsections (a)—(c) supersede 1 Pa. Code § 35.51 (relating to withdrawal of pleadings).

PREHEARING PROCEDURES AND HEARINGS

A hearing need not be held if one of the following occurs:

(1) The provider waives its right to hearing.

(2) The parties stipulate to the material facts or agree to submit direct and rebuttal testimony or documentary evidence in affidavit form (sworn or affirmed on personal knowledge) or by deposition.

(3) The Bureau determines that there are no material facts in dispute.

(4) Subsections (a)—(c) supersede 1 Pa. Code § 35.101 (relating to waiver of hearing).

(a) This section applies to provider appeals involving the denial of claims for payment through the prior authorization process, the denial of requests for precertification, the recovery of overpayments or improper payments through the utilization review process, the denial of claims upon prepayment review, the denial of claims for payment under § 1101.68 (relating to invoicing for services), the denial, termination or suspension of an exceptional DME grant as defined in § 1187.2 (relating to definitions) and the denial of a program exception request filed under § 1150.63 (relating to waivers).

(b) A request for hearing in a provider appeal subject to this section shall be submitted in writing to the Bureau within the time limits specified in accordance with § 41.32(a) (relating to timeliness and perfection of requests for hearing) and include both of the following:

(1) The information specified in § 41.31(d) (relating to request for hearing).

(2) Relevant supporting documentation.

(c) The provider shall send a copy of its request for hearing to the program office issuing the notice of the agency action at the same time it files its request with the Bureau.

(d) Unless the information has already been exchanged, each party shall give to the other parties a document that it will introduce as an exhibit and a list of the persons, including medical or other experts, which it will call as a witness at the hearing.

(e) The Bureau will promptly schedule a hearing taking into due consideration the availability of expert witnesses. The Bureau will provide at least 3 weeks notice of a hearing from the date of notice.

(f) The following sections of this chapter do not apply to appeals subject to this section:

(1) Section 41.11 (relating to title of document).

(2) Section 41.12 (relating to form).

(3) Section 41.14 (relating to verification).

(4) Section 41.22(1)(ii) (relating to service of pleadings and legal documents).

(5) Section 41.23 (relating to proof of service).

(6) Section 41.24 (relating to certificate of service).

(7) Section 41.101 (relating to prehearing procedure in certain provider appeals).

(8) Sections 41.111—41.123.

(9) Section 41.134 (relating to discovery motions).

(10) Section 41.135 (relating to dispositive motions), except for a motion to dismiss based upon timeliness.

(11) Section 41.141 (relating to voluntary mediation).

(12) Section 41.151 (relating to initiation of hearings).

(13) Section 41.181 (relating to posthearing briefs).

(g) Upon motion of a party, and for good cause shown, the Bureau may order that a provider appeal identified in subsection (a) be exempt from this section or may order that one or more of the sections identified in subsection (f) apply in whole or in part to the appeal. In the case of a motion seeking an order to apply §§ 41.111—41.121 to a provider appeal identified in subsection (a), in order to show good cause, the moving party shall establish that the disclosures or discovery will not prevent the prompt and efficient adjudication of the appeal and are reasonable and necessary given the facts involved in the appeal.

(h) Upon joint motion of the parties to a provider appeal, the Bureau may order that this section applies to a provider appeal not identified in subsection (a).

(i) A motion to exempt an appeal from this section under subsection (g) and a joint motion to apply this section to an appeal under subsection (h) may be filed with the request for hearing, but shall be filed no later than 30 days from the filing date of the request for hearing in the provider appeal.

PREHEARING PROCEDURES AND PREHEARING CONFERENCES

(a) Upon the filing of a request for hearing, the Bureau will issue a prehearing order specifying the following:

(1) The parties shall make disclosures in accordance with §§ 41.111—41.117.

(2) Discovery requests must be served within 90 days of the date of the prehearing order and discovery must be concluded within 120 days of the date of the prehearing order.

(3) Motions to compel discovery shall be filed within 30 days of the close of discovery.

(4) Other miscellaneous prehearing motions, including motions in limine, shall be filed within 60 days of the date of filing of the program office's position paper.

(5) Dispositive motions shall be filed within 60 days of the date of the filing of the program office's position paper.

(b) The parties may, within 30 days of the date of the prehearing order, submit a joint proposed case management order to the Bureau that proposes alternative dates for completion of the matters specified in subsection (a), or that agrees to discovery beyond the limitations set forth in § 41.120 (relating to limitations on discovery).

(c) The Bureau may issue subsequent prehearing orders incorporating the alternate dates and discovery limitations proposed by the parties or specifying other dates and discovery limitations that the Bureau deems appropriate, except that the Bureau will not establish dates or impose limitations that are more restrictive than the dates or limitations otherwise provided for in this chapter without the agreement of each party to the appeal.

(d) Subsections (a)—(c) supersede 1 Pa. Code § 35.111 (relating to conferences to adjust, settle or expedite proceedings).

(a) The Bureau, on its own motion or on motion of a party, may hold a conference either prior to or during a hearing for the purpose of facilitating settlement, adjustment of the proceeding or another issue therein, or other matters to expedite the orderly conduct and disposition of a hearing.

(b) A stipulation of the parties or order of the Bureau as a result of the conference shall be binding upon the parties.

DISCLOSURES AND DISCOVERY

(a) A party to a provider appeal commenced by a request for hearing shall, without awaiting a discovery request, disclose information to each other party as specified in this section.

(b) The program office will disclose the following:

(1) The name, title, business address and telephone number of each staff person directly involved in the agency action, and, if different, the name, title, business address and telephone number of the officials or staff designated to testify on its behalf regarding the agency action and the issues on which the designated individual will testify. In the case of an audit appeal, the program office will, at a minimum, identify every auditor involved in the audit and every audit supervisor and audit manager who reviewed the audit report.

(2) A copy of, or a description by category and location of, the documents, data compilations and tangible things, not privileged or protected from disclosure, that were relied upon in issuing the agency action, or that formed the basis for the agency action.

(c) The provider shall disclose the following:

(1) The name, title, business address and telephone number of each person who provided facts, opinions or other information that were relied upon in drafting the request for hearing or petition for supersedeas or that support or form the basis for, the allegations contained therein; and, if different, the name, title, business address and telephone number of the officials or staff designated to testify on its behalf regarding the agency action and the issues on which the designated person will testify.

(2) A copy of, or a description by category and location of, the documents, data compilations and tangible things, not privileged or protected from disclosure, that were relied upon in drafting the request for hearing or petition for supersedeas or that support or form the basis for, the allegations contained therein. In a case when a provider alleges in its request for hearing that its costs or its claim for payment is supported by documents, the provider shall disclose the supporting documents.

(d) The parties shall make their initial mandatory disclosures within 45 days of the date of the Bureau's initial prehearing order, unless a different time is set by stipulation of the parties or by the prehearing order of the Bureau.

(e) A party shall make its initial disclosures based on the information in its possession or otherwise then reasonably available to it. A party will not be excused from making its disclosures because it has not fully completed its investigation of the case, because it challenges the sufficiency of another party's disclosures or because another party has not made its disclosures.

(f) An opposing party is not obligated to respond to a discovery request made under §§ 41.118—41.121 until the party that propounded the request has made its mandatory initial disclosures in compliance with this section.

(a) The provider shall file its position paper and required documentation with the Bureau and serve it on the program office within 60 days of the close of discovery or another date as may be specified in the Bureau's prehearing order. If the provider fails to meet the position paper due date or fails to supply the Bureau with the required documentation, the Bureau will dismiss the provider's appeal, unless the provider shows good cause for its noncompliance.

(b) The program office will file its position paper and required documentation with the Bureau and serve it on the provider within 60 days of the date of service of the provider's position paper or another date as may be specified in the Bureau's prehearing order. If the program office fails to meet the position paper due date, the Bureau will bar it from presenting evidence and witnesses at the hearing, unless the program office shows good cause for its noncompliance.

(c) The Bureau disfavors requests for extensions of time to file position papers. The Bureau may grant an extension if the following conditions are met:

(1) A party submits a written request for extension.

(2) The request is received by the Bureau in time for it to review the matter prior to the due date.

(3) The party establishes that good cause exists to warrant an extension.

(d) Failure to complete discovery before the due date of the position paper will ordinarily not be considered sufficient cause to extend the deadline, unless the failure is due to the noncooperation of the other side. A request for extension should be considered denied unless the Bureau affirmatively grants the extension in writing before the papers are due.

(a) For each issue identified in its request for hearing or amended request for hearing, the provider's position paper must state the relevant facts and present arguments setting forth the provider position.

(b) For each issue identified in its request for hearing or amended request for hearing, the provider shall include the following:

(1) A summary of the pertinent facts and circumstances.

(2) Citations to the relevant statutory provisions, regulations and other controlling authorities.

(3) The monetary amount in dispute only if the sum is certain in whole or in part as of the date the position paper is due. If the sum in dispute is not certain as of the date the position paper is due, the party is required to identify the regulation that is applicable to determining such sum and a supporting affidavit for the reason the sum could not be determined.

(4) An explanation showing how the monetary amount was computed.

(5) Other relief sought by the provider in connection with the issue.

(6) The name and business address of every witness whose testimony the provider will present.

(7) A copy of every document that the provider will offer into evidence to support its position with respect to the issue.

(8) This section supersedes 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.164 and 35.165 (relating to documents on file with agency; and public documents).

(a) For each issue identified in the provider's position paper, the program office's position paper will state whether it accepts or disputes the provider's statements regarding the following:

- (1) Summary of the pertinent facts and circumstances.
- (2) Citations to the relevant statutory provisions, regulations and other controlling authorities.

(3) Computation of the monetary amount in dispute.

(b) If the program office disputes the facts, citations or monetary amount, it will provide a counterstatement of the items in dispute if the information has not already been published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

(c) The program office's position paper will identify those additional issues not addressed by the provider that it believes should be determined by the Bureau.

(d) For each disputed issue, the program office will include a summary of the pertinent facts, circumstances and citations to the relevant statutory provisions, regulations and other controlling authorities.

(e) The program office will provide the name and business address of every witness whose testimony it will present and a copy of every document that it will offer into evidence to support its position on each issue identified in its position paper.

(f) On those occasions when the Department bears the burden of proof under § 41.153(b) (relating to burden of proof and production), the program office will file an initial position paper. That position paper will conform to § 41.113 (relating to content of provider position paper), except § 41.113(b)(3)—(5). If the program office fails to timely file its initial position paper and required documentation with the Bureau, the Bureau will affirm the provider's appeal as to those issues on which the program office bears the burden of proof, unless the program office shows good cause for its noncompliance. Once that program office's initial position paper has been filed, the provider shall file its position paper, which shall address all issues raised in the provider's request for hearing, including those on which it bears the burden of proof. Thereafter, the program office will file another position paper, which will address any issues on which the provider bears the burden of proof. The deadlines for filing these position papers will be set by order of the Bureau.

(g) This section supersedes 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.164 and 35.165 (relating to documents on file with agency; and public documents).

(a) For each issue in dispute, a party's position paper must address the party's reliance upon an expert. The party shall state whether its position depends, in whole or in part, upon the judgment, opinion or testimony of a person who, if called to testify, would be called as an expert.

(b) When a party's position depends, at least in part, upon the judgment, opinion or testimony of an expert, the party's position paper must include a "statement of expert opinion."

(c) Consistent with Pa.R.C.P. No. 4003.5 (relating to discovery of expert testimony, trial preparation material), and unless the Bureau orders to the contrary, each expert opinion statement must include the following:

- (1) An identification of the expert by name and address.
- (2) The subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify.
- (3) An identification of the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify.

(4) A summary of the grounds for each opinion to which the expert is expected to testify.

(5) The signature of the expert.

(6) A brief statement of the expert's qualifications or a current curriculum vitae.

(d) The parties shall submit a joint statement of undisputed facts at least 20 days prior to the hearing.

The Bureau may permit a party to amend its position paper upon motion of the party and for good cause shown.

(a) A party will not be permitted to offer the testimony of a witness at a hearing on a provider appeal unless either the party disclosed the identity of the witness in the party's position paper or the party establishes that there is good cause to permit the testimony of the witness.

(b) A party will not be permitted to introduce a document into evidence at a hearing on a provider appeal unless the party identified the document as an exhibit and served the other parties to the provider appeal with a copy of the document at the time the party filed its position paper with the Bureau unless there is good cause.

(c) This section does not preclude a party from introducing a document or testimony solely for use as an impeachment of a witness's credibility even if a party did not give advance notice to the opposing party.

Once the time period for mandatory disclosures has elapsed, a party to a provider appeal commenced by a request for hearing may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods:

- (1) Interrogatories.
- (2) Requests for the production of documents.
- (3) Expert reports.
- (4) Requests for admission.
- (5) Depositions of witnesses and designees of parties.

(a) Parties may obtain discovery regarding a matter, not privileged, that is relevant to the claim or defense of another party in a provider appeal, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of the books, documents or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of a discoverable matter.

(b) Except to the extent inconsistent with or as otherwise provided in this chapter, discovery shall be governed by Pa.R.C.P. 4001—4020 as authorized by this chapter. The term "court" as used in the Pa.R.C.P. means "Bureau"; the term "prothonotary" or "clerk of court" as used in the Pa.R.C.P. means "Formal Docketing Unit."

(a) In addition to the general limitation on the scope of discovery and deposition in Pa.R.C.P. No. 4011 (relating to limitation of scope of discovery and deposition), the following limitations on discovery apply:

- (1) Interrogatories to a party, as a matter of right, may not exceed ten in number. Interrogatories inquiring as to the names and locations of witnesses, or the existence, location and custodian of documents or physical evidence each will be construed as one interrogatory.

(i) Other interrogatories, including subdivisions of one numbered interrogatory, will be construed as separate interrogatories.

(ii) If counsel for a party believes that more than ten interrogatories are necessary, counsel shall consult with opposing counsel promptly and attempt to reach a written stipulation as to a reasonable number of additional interrogatories.

(iii) Counsel are expected to comply with this requirement in good faith. If the parties cannot agree on a written stipulation, the Bureau, upon motion of a party, may permit the party to serve additional interrogatories if the party establishes to the Bureau's satisfaction that additional interrogatories are reasonable and necessary in light of the particular facts involved and that they will not prevent the prompt and efficient adjudication of the provider appeal.

(2) Request for admissions to a party, as a matter of right, will not exceed ten in number.

(i) Requests for admissions, including subdivisions of one numbered request, will be construed as a separate request.

(ii) If counsel for a party believes that more than ten requests for admission are necessary, counsel shall consult with opposing counsel promptly and attempt to reach a written stipulation as to a reasonable number of additional requests.

(iii) Counsel are expected to comply with this requirement in good faith. If the parties cannot agree on a written stipulation, the Bureau, upon motion of a party, may permit the party to serve additional requests for admission if the party establishes to the Bureau's satisfaction that additional requests for admission are reasonable and necessary in light of the particular facts involved and that they will not prevent the prompt and efficient adjudication of the provider appeal.

(3) Depositions, as a matter of right, may not exceed three in number.

(i) A deposition of a person will not be permitted if the person has already been deposed in the appeal.

(ii) If counsel for a party believes that more than three depositions or that the deposition of a person who has already been deposed are necessary, counsel shall consult with opposing counsel promptly and attempt to reach a written stipulation as to a reasonable number of additional depositions.

(iii) Counsel are expected to comply with this requirement in good faith. If the parties cannot agree on a written stipulation, the Bureau, upon motion of a party, may permit the party to take additional depositions if the party establishes to the Bureau's satisfaction that additional depositions are reasonable and necessary in light of the particular facts involved and that they will not prevent the prompt and efficient adjudication of the provider appeal.

(b) Unless the Secretary has been identified as a witness by the program office, a party may not depose the Secretary.

(c) Unless a senior Department official has been identified as a witness by the program office or agrees to submit to a deposition, a party may not depose a senior Department official regardless of the number of depositions taken, except that the Bureau, upon motion of a party, may permit the party to depose a senior Department official if the party establishes to the Bureau's satisfaction that the following apply:

(1) The senior Department official was personally involved in the disputed agency action.

(2) The deposition of the senior Department official is reasonable and necessary in light of the particular facts involved and will not prevent the prompt and efficient adjudication of the provider appeal.

(d) The Bureau may issue protective orders limiting or precluding discovery in accordance with § 41.120(a)—(c) (relating to limitations on scope of discovery) or as specified in Pa.R.C.P. No. 4012 (relating to protective orders).

(e) Subsections (a)—(d) supersede 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.145—35.152 as the sections relate to discovery only.

§ 41.121. Timing and sequence of discovery.

Unless the Bureau upon motion, for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interest of justice, orders otherwise, methods of discovery may be used regardless of sequence, and the fact that a party is conducting discovery, whether by deposition or otherwise, does not operate to delay another party's discovery.

(a) A party has a duty to supplement or correct a disclosure under §§ 41.111—41.117 to include information thereafter acquired if ordered by the Bureau or if the party learns that in some material respect the information disclosed is incomplete or incorrect and if the additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the other parties during the discovery process or in writing.

(b) A party is under a duty to supplement responses made to discovery requests as set forth in Pa.R.C.P. No. 4007.4 (relating to supplementing responses).

(a) Every disclosure shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney's individual name, whose address shall be stated. An unrepresented party shall sign the disclosure and state the party's address. The signature of the attorney or party constitutes a certification that to the best of the signer's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after a reasonable inquiry, the disclosure is complete and correct as of the time it is made.

(b) Every discovery request, response or objection made by a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney's individual name, whose address shall be stated. An unrepresented party shall sign the request, response, or objection and state the signer's address.

(c) The signature of the attorney or party constitutes a certification that to the best of the signer's knowledge, information and belief, formed after a reasonable inquiry, the request, response or objection is:

(1) Consistent with this chapter and warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification or reversal of existing law.

(2) Not interposed for an improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.

(3) Not unreasonable or unduly burdensome or expensive, given the needs of the case, the discovery already had in the case, the amount in controversy, and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation.

(d) If a request, response or objection is not signed, it will be stricken unless it is signed promptly after the omission is called to the attention of the party making the request, response or objection, and a party will not be obligated to take action with respect to it until it is signed.

(e) If without substantial justification a certification is made in violation of this section, the Bureau, upon motion or upon its own initiative, will impose upon the individual who made the certification, the party on whose behalf the disclosure, request, response or objection is made, or both, an appropriate sanction, which may include an order to pay the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred because of the violation, including reasonable attorney fees.

MOTIONS

(a) This section applies to every motion, except oral motions made during the course of a hearing.

(b) Motions and responses to motions must be in writing, signed by a party or its attorney and accompanied by a proposed order.

(c) Unless the time is extended by the Bureau, a response to a dispositive motion shall be filed within 30 days of service of the motion, and a response to other motions shall be filed within 20 days of service of the other motions.

(d) Except in the case of a dispositive motion, the Bureau will deem a party's failure to respond to a motion to be the party's lack of opposition to the motion.

(e) Except in the case of a dispositive motion, the moving party may not file a reply to a response to its motion, unless the Bureau orders otherwise.

(f) Subsections (a)–(e) supersede 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.54, 35.55 and 35.179 (relating to motions as to complaint; motions as to answer; and objections to motions).

(a) The Bureau will rule on dispositive motions within 60 days after the moving party's reply to the nonmoving party's response, if a reply is filed. If the moving party does not file a reply, the Bureau will rule on a dispositive motion within 60 days after the date on which the nonmoving party's response is due.

(b) The Bureau will rule on motions other than dispositive motions within 30 days after the date on which the nonmoving party's response is due.

(c) Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b), the Bureau will rule on each outstanding prehearing motion no later than 20 days prior to the commencement of the hearing.

(d) Subsections (a)–(c) supersede 1 Pa. Code § 35.180(a) (relating to action on motions).

(a) This section applies to motions that pertain to the procedural aspects of a case, including motions for continuance, expedited consideration, extensions of time in which to file documents and stays of proceedings.

(b) Procedural motions must contain a statement indicating the nonmoving party's position on the relief requested or a statement that the moving party, after a reasonable effort, has been unable to determine the nonmoving party's position.

(c) If the parties consent to the relief requested, the request may be embodied in a letter, provided the letter indicates the consent of the other parties.

(d) Requests for extensions or continuances, whether in letter or motion form, must be accompanied by a proposed order.

(e) Procedural motions and responses may not be accompanied by supporting memoranda of law unless otherwise ordered by the Bureau.

(a) This section applies to motions filed to resolve disputes arising from the conduct of discovery under §§ 41.118–41.121.

(b) A motion to compel discovery must contain as exhibits the discovery requests and answers giving rise to the dispute.

(c) A party may file a memorandum of law in support of its discovery motion or its response to a discovery motion. The supporting memorandum of law shall be filed at the same time the motion or response is filed.

(a) This section applies to dispositive motions.

(b) Motions for summary judgment or partial summary judgment and responses to those motions must conform to Pa.R.C.P. No. 1035.1–1035.5 (relating to motion for summary judgment).

(c) Dispositive motions must be accompanied by a supporting memorandum of law. The Bureau may deny a dispositive motion if a party fails to file a supporting memorandum of law.

(d) An affidavit or other document relied upon in support of a dispositive motion, response or reply, that is not already a part of the record, must be attached to the motion, response or reply or it will not be considered by the Bureau in ruling thereon.

(a) This section applies to a motion not otherwise addressed in §§ 41.133–41.135 (relating to procedural motions; discovery motions; and dispositive motions), including a motion in limine, a motion to strike and a motion for recusal.

(b) A memorandum of law in support of a miscellaneous motion or response to a miscellaneous motion shall be filed with the miscellaneous motion or response.

MEDIATION

(a) Upon request by the parties, the Bureau may stay a provider appeal commenced by a request for hearing for up to 120 days to allow the parties to utilize voluntary mediation services through the Office of General Counsel Mediation Program.

(b) The parties shall file their request for stay with the Bureau at least 14 days before initiation of hearings by the Bureau.

(c) At the end of the initial stay, the parties shall jointly file a statement that sets forth the status of mediation activities conducted. The parties may request an additional stay if necessary to complete the mediation process.

(d) The grant of an additional stay for mediation is in the Bureau's discretion and the Bureau may impose limitations the Bureau deems appropriate.

(e) A party's participation in voluntary mediation may not be used as evidence in a proceeding before the Bureau.

(f) Communications between the parties during the mediation period shall be regarded as offers of settlement and are neither discoverable nor admissible as evidence in a proceeding before the Bureau.

HEARINGS

§ 41.151. Initiation of hearings.

(a) If, after the Bureau has ruled on a dispositive motion, a hearing is required to determine the remaining issues, the Bureau will, after consultation with the parties, schedule a formal evidentiary hearing and send a notice of hearing to each of the parties to the provider appeal.

(b) A hearing may, if permitted by this chapter or by agreement of the parties, be conducted via telephone.

(c) Subsections (a) and (b) supersede 1 Pa. Code § 35.121 (relating to initiation of hearings).

§ 41.152. Continuance of hearings.

(a) A hearing may not be continued except for compelling reasons.

(b) A motion for continuance of a hearing must be submitted to the Bureau in writing with a copy served upon the other parties to the proceedings, except that during the course of a hearing in a proceeding, the requests may be made by oral motion in the hearing.

(c) In the event that the parties are engaged in good faith settlement negotiations, the Bureau may grant a joint continuance request of not more than 60 days.

§ 41.153. Burden of proof and production.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), the provider has the burden of proof to establish its case by a preponderance of the evidence and is required to make a prima facie case by the close of its case-in-chief.

(b) If the agency action at issue in the provider's appeal is based upon the Department's determination that the provider committed an act prohibited by section 1407(a)(1) of the Public Welfare Code (62 P. S. § 1407(a)(1)), or § 1101.75(a)(1) or (2) (relating to provider prohibited acts), the Department has the burden of proving that the provider violated those provisions. The provider has the burden of proving the other issues raised in the provider's request for hearing.

(c) The party with the burden of proof has the burden of production, unless otherwise directed by the presiding officer, upon a determination included in the record by the presiding officer that the evidence is peculiarly within the knowledge or control of another party or participant, in which case the order of presentation may be varied by the presiding officer.

(d) Each party shall have the right to an opening statement, presentation of evidence, cross-examination, objection, motion and argument and closing argument.

(e) A pleading or a position paper must, without further action, be considered part of the record. A pleading or a position paper will never be considered as evidence of a fact other than that of the filing thereof, unless offered and received into evidence under this chapter.

(f) Subsections (a)—(e) supersede 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.125 and 35.126 (relating to order of procedure; and presentation by the parties).

EVIDENCE AND WITNESSES

§ 41.161. Written testimony.

(a) Written testimony of a witness, including an expert witness, on numbered lines in question and answer form, may be admitted into evidence provided the witness is present for cross-examination at the hearing or the parties agree that the witness' presence at the hearing is not required.

(b) Written testimony shall be filed concurrently with the proffering party's position paper unless a different time is prescribed by the Bureau. Objections to written testimony that can be reasonably anticipated prior to hearing must be in writing and filed within the time prescribed for prehearing motions in limine, unless otherwise ordered by the Bureau.

(c) If a party desires to file written testimony prior to the close of the record, it may do so only upon motion approved by the Bureau for good cause. This approval will include the scope of the written testimony and the time for filing the testimony and service upon opposing counsel.

(d) Subsections (a)—(c) supersede 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.138 and 35.139 (relating to expert witnesses; and fees of witnesses).

§ 41.162. Subpoenas.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter or by order of the Bureau, requests for subpoenas and subpoenas will be governed by Pa.R.C.P. No. 234.1—234.4 and 234.6—234.9. The term "court" as used in Pa.R.C.P means "Bureau"; the term "Prothonotary" or "clerk of court" as used in Pa.R.C.P means "Formal Docketing Unit."

(b) Proof of service of the subpoena need not be filed with the Bureau.

(c) Subsections (a) and (b) supersede 1 Pa. Code § 35.142 (relating to subpoenas).

PRESIDING OFFICERS

§ 41.171. Independence.

(a) The presiding officers will act independently of employees or public officials of the Department whose actions are subject to review before the Bureau.

(b) The presiding officers may not engage in ex parte communications concerning a hearing with a party to the hearing.

(c) A presiding officer may withdraw from a proceeding when he deems himself disqualified, or he may be withdrawn by the agency head for good cause found after timely affidavits alleging personal bias or other disqualification have been filed and the matter has been heard by the agency head or by another presiding officer to whom the agency head has delegated the matter for investigation and report.

POSTHEARING PROCEDURES

§ 41.181. Posthearing briefs.

(a) The initial posthearing brief of each party must be as concise as possible and may not exceed 50 pages. An initial posthearing brief must contain proposed findings of fact, with references to the appropriate exhibit or page of the transcript, an argument with citation to supporting legal authority and proposed conclusions of law.

(b) The provider shall file its initial posthearing brief first and within the time specified by the presiding officer, which may not be less than 30 days from the closing of the record unless the provider consents to a shorter period of time. The program office will file its initial posthearing brief within 30 days of the date of service of the provider's brief.

(c) The provider may file a reply brief within 20 days of service of the program office posthearing brief. A reply brief must be as concise as possible and may not exceed 25 pages.

(d) Longer briefs and surreply briefs may be permitted at the discretion of the presiding officer.

(e) A party may waive the filing of a posthearing brief.

(f) If a party files a posthearing brief, a disputed issue or legal theory that is not argued in the party's posthearing brief will be deemed waived.

(g) Subsections (a)—(f) supersede 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.191—35.193 (relating to proceedings in which briefs are to be filed; content and form of briefs; and filing and service of briefs).

AGENCY ACTION

§ 41.191. Determinations and recommendations by the Bureau.

(a) The Bureau will conduct a de novo review of the factual and legal issues that are timely raised and properly preserved in a provider appeal. Except as provided in subsection (b), the Bureau will issue a determination adjudicating the contested issues of law and fact within its jurisdiction, and issue an appropriate order, decree or decision.

(b) If a request for hearing includes a waiver request, the Bureau will make a written recommendation for consideration by the Secretary proposing that the waiver be either granted or denied and stating the Bureau's reasoning in support of its position. If the request for hearing raises factual and legal issues in addition to the waiver request, the Bureau will issue its written recommendation together with its final determination adjudicating the remaining factual and legal issues, as specified in subsection (c). If the request for hearing does not raise other issues, the Bureau's written recommendation on the waiver request will be issued within the time limits and served on the parties as specified in subsection (c).

(c) The Bureau will issue a determination in a provider appeal within 30 days of the filing of the posthearing briefs, or, if the parties waive the filing of posthearing briefs, within 30 days of the close of the record or receipt of the transcript, whichever is later. The Bureau will serve a copy of its determination on the parties to the proceeding or their representatives.

(d) A party aggrieved by a determination of the Bureau may request the Secretary to review the determination under § 41.212 (relating to review of Bureau determinations). For purposes of this section, a program office will be deemed to be aggrieved if the Bureau determination does one or more of the following:

- (1) Sustains the provider's appeal in whole or in part.
- (2) Interprets a statute, regulation, statement of policy or bulletin applied by the program office in a manner inconsistent with the interpretation of that office.

(3) Alters a policy of the program office or purports to impose a new or different rule or policy on the program office.

(e) The Secretary will review written recommendations of the Bureau issued under subsection (b) or (c) under § 41.213 (review of bureau recommendations).

(f) Subsections (a)—(e) supersede 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.201—35.207, 35.211—35.214 and 35.221.

REOPENING OF RECORD

§ 41.201. Reopening of record prior to adjudication.

(a) After the conclusion of the hearing on the merits and before the Bureau issues an adjudication, the Bureau, upon its own motion or upon a motion filed by a party, may reopen the record as provided in this section.

(b) The record may be reopened upon the basis of recently discovered evidence when each of the following circumstances are present:

(1) Evidence is discovered that conclusively establishes a material fact of the case or that contradicts a material fact that had been assumed or stipulated by the parties to be true.

(2) Evidence is discovered after the close of the record and could not have been discovered earlier with the exercise of due diligence.

(3) Evidence is not cumulative.

(c) The record may also be reopened to consider evidence that has become material as a result of a change in legal authority occurring after the close of the record. A motion to reopen the record on this basis must specify the change in legal authority and demonstrate that it applies to the matter pending before the Bureau. The motion need not meet the requirements of subsection (d)(2) and (3).

(d) A motion seeking to reopen the record must:

(1) Identify the evidence that the moving party seeks to add to the record.

(2) Describe the efforts that the moving party had made to discover the evidence prior to the close of the record.

(3) Explain how the evidence was discovered after the close of the record.

(e) A motion filed under subsection (b) must be verified and motions to reopen must contain a certification by counsel that the motion is being filed in good faith and not for the purpose of delay. The motion shall be served upon the parties to the proceedings.

(f) Upon written request or motion to the Bureau or sua sponte by the Bureau, the parties will be afforded the opportunity to file amended pleadings and position papers, if the Bureau orders that the record be reopened. The additional pleadings and position papers will be due to the Bureau as ordered by the presiding officer.

(g) Subsections (a)—(f) supersede 1 Pa. Code §§ 35.231 and 35.232 (relating to reopening of application of party; and reopening by presiding officer).

RECONSIDERATION AND REVIEW BY THE SECRETARY

§ 41.211. Reconsideration of interlocutory orders.

(a) A motion for reconsideration by the Secretary of an interlocutory order or ruling of the Bureau must be filed within 10 days of the order or ruling. The petition must demonstrate that extraordinary circumstances justify immediate consideration of the matter by the Secretary. A party may file a memorandum of law at the time the motion or response is filed.

(b) A copy of the motion shall be served upon the parties. A party wishing to file an answer may do so within 10 days of service or as ordered by the Bureau or the Secretary.

(c) The failure of a party to file a motion under this section will not result in a waiver of an issue.

(d) Subsections (a)—(c) supersede 1 Pa. Code § 35.241 (relating to application for rehearing or reconsideration).

§ 41.212. Review of Bureau determinations.

(a) A determination of the Bureau will be deemed the final adjudication of the Department effective upon expiration of the 30-day time period specified in subsection (b) unless an aggrieved party requests review by the Secretary within that 30-day time period.

(b) A request for review shall be filed within 30 days of the mailing date of the Bureau determination. An untimely request for review will be dismissed as of course unless the filing party can satisfy the requirements of § 41.33 (relating to appeals nunc pro tunc).

(c) A request for review must be in writing, state concisely the alleged errors in the Bureau determination and identify the particular relief sought. If the party requesting review is seeking relief by reason of matters that have arisen since the hearing and Bureau determination, or by reason of a matter that would arise from compliance with the Bureau determination, the party shall specifically identify those matters in its request.

(d) If an aggrieved party timely requests review of a Bureau determination, the Secretary may enter an order granting or denying the request for review within 30 days of receipt of the request. No party has a right to have a Bureau determination reviewed by the Secretary, but only a right to request this review. The decision to grant or deny a request lies within the discretion of the Secretary.

(e) If the Secretary enters an order denying a request for review within 30 days of receipt of the request, the Bureau's determination will be deemed the final adjudication of the Department effective on the date of the order denying the request for review.

(f) If the Secretary fails to act on a request for review within 30 days of receipt of the request, the request for review will be deemed denied. The Bureau's determination will be deemed the final adjudication of the Department effective on the date on which the request for review is deemed denied.

(g) Answers to a request for review will not be considered by the Secretary unless the Secretary has granted review. If, and to the extent the Secretary has granted review, a response in the nature of an answer may be filed by a party, other than the party requesting review. The response must be confined to the issues upon which the Secretary has granted review.

(h) If the Secretary grants review, the Secretary will enter a final order within 180 days of the date of the order granting review. The final order may affirm, reverse or modify the findings of fact, conclusions of law or the relief set forth in the Bureau's determination, and may, to promote fairness and the proper administration of the MA Program, waive compliance with program requirements.

(i) If the Secretary fails to act within 180 days of the order granting review, the determination of the Bureau will be deemed approved by, and the final order of, the Secretary effective the date it is deemed approved.

§ 41.213. Review of Bureau recommendations.

(a) The Secretary will review and issue a final order adopting, rejecting or modifying a recommendation of the Bureau issued under § 41.191(b) (relating to determinations and recommendations by the Bureau).

(b) A party to the provider appeal in which the Bureau's recommendation was issued may file a brief with the Secretary setting forth its position regarding the recommendation at the same time the party requests review of the Bureau's related determination under § 41.212 (relating to review of Bureau determinations) or, if the party is not seeking review of the Bureau's determination, within 30 days of the date of the mailing date of the Bureau recommendation.

(c) A brief supporting or opposing the Bureau's recommendation must state concisely the reasons for the party's position on the recommendation, set forth proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law for consideration by the Secretary and specify what relief should be granted or denied by the Secretary. The brief may not exceed 25 pages.

(d) The Secretary's final order regarding a recommendation issued under § 41.191(b) will be issued in accordance with the following:

(1) If review is granted under § 41.212, the date on which the Secretary issues a final order.

(2) If review is not granted under § 41.212, 180 days from the date of receipt of the written recommendation.

(e) If the Secretary does not issue a final order regarding a recommendation issued under § 41.191(b) within the time frames specified in subsection (d), the recommendation of the Bureau will be deemed adopted by, and the final order of, the Secretary effective the date it is deemed adopted.

§ 41.214. Appeals.

A provider aggrieved by a final adjudication of the Department issued under § 41.212(a), (e) or (f) (relating to review of Bureau determinations), or a final order of the Secretary issued under § 41.212 (e), (h) or (i) or § 41.213(a) or (d) (relating to review of Bureau recommendations) may petition for judicial review in accordance with 2 Pa.C.S. Chapter 7, Subchapter A (relating to judicial review of Commonwealth agency action).
