July 8, 2011

No. 07-4394

United States of America

v.

John A. O'Neal, Appellant

(E.D. Pa. No. 04-mj-01060)

Present: HARDIMAN, ALDISERT, Circuit Judges and RESTANI *, Judge

1. Motion by Appellee to Correct Opinion of the Court.

Respectfully,

ORDER

The foregoing Motion is GRANTED.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the opinion in the above case, filed June 22, 2011, be amended as follows:

Page 3, Section II, second line, which read:

On appeal, the United States concedes that it failed to demonstrate that O'Neal's protest occurred on VA property.

shall read:

In its Summary of Argument in the brief before us the United States Attorney states: "The government, upon careful consideration of the matter, reverses its earlier position and agrees with that part of the Appellant's argument asserting that the government presented insufficient evidence to support a restriction on O'Neal's political activity on October 28, 2004. The government did not sustain its burden in defeating the presumption that the area where O'Neal mounted his protest was a public forum; and further did not establish the circumstances justifying a restriction on political speech in a public forum.”

*The Honorable Jane A. Restani, Judge of the United States Court of International Trade, sitting by designation.

By the Court,

/s/ Thomas M. Hardiman
Circuit Judge
