Preface

It is with great pride that we present the third annual Third Circuit Review. This year's Review functions as a transition toward a more compact form as we strive for a casenote which will be of the greatest assistance to the legal practitioner, who must stay abreast of recent developments within the Third Circuit. Thus, we have attempted to tailor the length of each casenote selected for inclusion in the Review according to its complexity and legal merit. The newer form assumes some familiarity upon the reader's part with the historical development of the area of law relevant to the case discussed. It emphasizes analysis of the soundness of the decision and the impact of the case upon the present state of the law. Despite these streamlining efforts, we have sought to maintain the high level of analytical scrutiny which is essential to render the casenote a valuable aid to the practitioner.
